Comprehensive review of the accountability system

Hon WONG Yuk-man moved the following motion and spoke on the motion:

That the Government of the Special Administrative Region has made countless blunders in the implementation of policies, since TUNG Chee-hwa introduced the so-called accountability system in 2002, accountability of Directors of Bureau is only empty talk; subsequently, Donald TSANG Yam-kuen adds a wretched sequel to the accountability system by appointing the so-called Under Secretaries and Political Assistants at his own discretion; this provides convenience for authoritarians to hand-pick their deputies, which results in a total collapse of the accountability system and is detrimental to the well-being of the people; this Council urges the Government to conduct a comprehensive review of the accountability system so as to implement fundamental reforms to restore its ability to govern; such reforms include:

- (a) establishing a political system which is truly accountable to the people, and expeditiously implementing dual universal suffrage for the Legislative Council and the Chief Executive elections;
- (b) formulating a political parties law to promote the development of party politics, so as to induce political parties to be truly accountable to their constituents;
- (c) establishing an impeachment mechanism for replacing those officials under the accountability system who are derelict of their duties; and
- (d) clearly defining the roles, functions and powers among the Chief Executive, officials under the accountability system and civil servants.

Question on Hon WONG Yuk-man's motion proposed.

The President stated that Hon Miriam LAU would move an amendment to the motion. In accordance with the Rules of Procedure, the motion and the amendment would be debated together in a joint debate.

Hon Miriam LAU moved the following amendment to Hon WONG Yuk-man's motion and spoke on the motion and the amendment:

To delete "the Government of the Special Administrative Region has made countless blunders in the implementation of policies, since TUNG Chee-hwa" after "That" and substitute with "since the Government"; to delete "so-called" after "introduced the"; to delete "accountability of Directors of Bureau is only empty talk; subsequently, Donald TSANG Yam-kuen adds a wretched sequel to the accountability system by appointing the so-called Under Secretaries and Political Assistants at his own discretion; this provides convenience for authoritarians to hand-pick their deputies, which results in a total collapse of the accountability system and is detrimental to the well-being of the people" after "accountability system in 2002," and substitute with "the system has not been working satisfactorily”; to delete “so as to implement fundamental reforms to restore its ability to govern; such reforms include” after “comprehensive review of the accountability system” and substitute with “, including”; to delete “establishing a political system which is truly accountable to the people, and” after “(a)” and substitute with “improving the accountability system step by step and ensuring that it is fully implemented and, in line with the decision of the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress on issues relating to universal suffrage,”; to add “considering” after “(b)”; to delete “, so as to induce political parties to be truly accountable to their constituents” after “party politics”; to delete “establishing an impeachment mechanism for replacing those” after “(c)” and substitute with “enhancing the accountability mechanism for”; to delete “who are derelict of their duties” before “; and (d)” and substitute with “as well as the transparency of the mechanism”; and to add “further” after “defining”.

Question on Hon Miriam LAU’s amendment to Hon WONG Yuk-man’s motion proposed.

The Secretary for Constitutional and Mainland Affairs spoke on the motion and the amendment.

While the Secretary for Constitutional and Mainland Affairs was speaking, the President left the chair at 1:50 pm temporarily and the President’s Deputy, Hon Miriam LAU, took the chair.

Six Members and Hon Albert HO spoke on the motion and the amendment.

While Hon Albert HO was speaking, Hon Frederick FUNG sought elucidation of a point raised by Hon Albert HO in his speech. Hon Albert HO elucidated and then continued to speak.

Three other Members spoke on the motion and the amendment.

Hon Paul CHAN declared that he was a member of the Committee on Review of Post-service Outside Work for Directorate Civil Servants. He then spoke on the motion and the amendment.

One more Member and Dr Hon Priscilla LEUNG spoke on the motion and the amendment.

At 3:23 pm, while Dr Hon Priscilla LEUNG was speaking, the President resumed the chair.

Three more Members spoke on the motion and the amendment.

Hon WONG Yuk-man spoke on the amendment.

The Secretary for Constitutional and Mainland Affairs spoke again.

Question on Hon Miriam LAU's amendment to Hon WONG Yuk-man's motion put.

Hon WONG Kwok-kin claimed a division. The President then ordered the Council to proceed to a division under Rule 47(1) of the Rules of Procedure.

The President announced that among the Members returned by functional constituencies, 24 were present, nine were in favour of the amendment, five against it and 10 abstained; while among the Members returned by geographical constituencies through direct elections, 24 were present, four were in favour of the amendment, 14 against it and five abstained. (Voting record in Appendix I.) Since the question was not agreed by a majority of each of the two groups of Members present, he declared that the amendment was negatived.

Hon WONG Yuk-man replied.

Question on Hon WONG Yuk-man's motion put.

Hon WONG Yuk-man claimed a division. The President then ordered the Council to proceed to a division under Rule 47(1) of the Rules of Procedure.

While the division bell was ringing, Hon CHIM Pui-chung rose and requested the President to be impartial to everybody when chairing Council meetings in future.

The President stated that it was the convention of the Council that Members should not challenge the President's ruling at Council meetings.

Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung rose. He and Hon CHIM Pui-chung then spoke aloud to each other.

The President reminded them that it was not the time for Members to speak and ordered Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung to be seated. As the two Members kept speaking aloud to each other, the President suspended the meeting at 4:20 pm. At this juncture, the division bell had not been rung for three minutes.

The Council resumed at 4:25 pm.

The President ordered that the division on the question on Hon WONG Yuk-man's motion would be held after the division bell had been rung for three minutes.

The President announced that among the Members returned by functional constituencies, 25 were present, two were in favour of the motion, 19 against it and four abstained; while among the Members returned by geographical constituencies through direct elections, 25 were present, 15 were in favour of the motion, eight against it and one abstained. (Voting record in Appendix II.) Since the question was not agreed by a majority of each of the two groups of Members present, he declared that the motion was negatived.

Promoting research and development

Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou moved the following motion and spoke on the motion:

That the Task Force on Economic Challenges has identified six economic areas where Hong Kong enjoys clear advantages as the targets of focal development to boost Hong Kong's economic growth and provide job opportunities, and in order to successfully promote the development of these economic areas, Hong Kong must lay a solid foundation for research and development ('R&D'); in this connection, this Council urges the Government to:

- (a) set up committees to make recommendations on policies and various complementary measures for promoting R&D, for implementation by bureaux;
- (b) consolidate and coordinate the existing relevant policies as well as the structures and resources of various related public organizations, so as to more effectively boost Hong Kong's technological R&D business;
- (c) through education and publicity, foster an atmosphere that emphasizes technological research and innovation;
- (d) take the lead in allocating more funding to enhance the capability of technological research, and stipulate the interim and long-term targets that government funding in R&D shall represent a certain proportion of local gross domestic product;
- (e) establish negotiation platforms in conjunction with Guangdong Province and other regions in the Mainland to achieve complementarity of edge, maximal application of R&D results and effective protection of intellectual property;
- (f) formulate policies for nurturing local talents in R&D and systematically bring in overseas professionals under the principle of giving priority to local talents;
- (g) introduce tax concessions and other incentives to encourage private organizations to invest in R&D work in Hong Kong; and

- (h) make optimal use of the land of the existing industrial estates and science park, etc, and expeditiously develop the land in the boundary districts between Hong Kong and Shenzhen for the purposes of technological R&D and talent training, so as to facilitate the establishment of industry clusters.

Question on Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion proposed.

The President stated that five Members intended to move amendments to the motion. In accordance with the Rules of Procedure, the motion and the five amendments would be debated together in a joint debate.

Dr Hon Samson TAM, Hon Fred LI, Hon Andrew LEUNG, Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung and Hon LI Fung-ying, who intended to move amendments to the motion, spoke on the motion and the amendments.

The Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development spoke on the motion and the amendments.

Thirteen Members spoke on the motion and the amendments.

Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou spoke on the amendments.

The Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development spoke again.

Dr Hon Samson TAM moved the following amendment to Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion:

To add “, in order to meet the challenges of globalization,” after “That”; to add “improve the existing rotation system of administrative officers to nurture a batch of talents with technological R&D mindset, so that long-term technological research strategies can be implemented effectively; (d)” after “(c)”; to delete the original “(d)” and substitute with “(e)”; to delete the original “(e)” and substitute with “(f)”; to delete the original “(f)” and substitute with “(g) strive for setting up more state partner laboratories in Hong Kong so that Hong Kong may directly participate in more technological research projects at the state level, and assist the relevant industries to strive for participation in formulating the standards for state products; (h)”; to delete “local” after “nurturing”; to delete “systematically” after “in R&D and” and substitute with “strategically”; to delete the original “(g)” and substitute with “(i)”; to add “, and at the same time bring in multinational enterprises to set up R&D centres in Hong Kong to promote the integration of local and overseas technological research capabilities” after “work in Hong Kong”; and to delete the original “(h)” and substitute with “(j)”.

Question on Dr Hon Samson TAM's amendment to Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion proposed, put and agreed to.

The President stated that Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung and Hon LI Fung-ying had indicated that they would withdraw their amendments to Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion if Dr Hon Samson TAM's amendment was passed. Hon LEUNG Kwok-hung and Hon LI Fung-ying had therefore withdrawn their amendments.

As Dr Hon Samson TAM's amendment had been passed, the President granted leave for Hon Fred LI to revise the terms of his amendment.

Hon Fred LI moved the following further amendment to Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion as amended by Dr Hon Samson TAM, and explained the revised terms of his amendment to the Council:

To add “; (k) introduce concessionary land premium and concessionary loans to encourage private organizations to operate in the above six economic areas; and (l) collaborate with the cities in the Pearl River Delta region to enhance the promotion of technological research projects on clean fuels (including electricity generation and transport), green construction, effluent treatment and solid waste treatment etc, which can facilitate the transformation of industries and upgrade the quality of life in the region” immediately before the full stop.

Question on Hon Fred LI's amendment to Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion as amended by Dr Hon Samson TAM proposed, put and agreed to.

As Dr Hon Samson TAM's and Hon Fred LI's amendments had been passed, the President granted leave for Hon Andrew LEUNG to revise the terms of his amendment.

Hon Andrew LEUNG moved the following further amendment to Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion as amended by Dr Hon Samson TAM and Hon Fred LI, and explained the revised terms of his amendment to the Council:

To add “; and (m) make optimal use of Hong Kong's comprehensive and effective protection regime for intellectual property rights ('IPR') and consider establishing a 'Patent Trademark Authority' to promote Hong Kong as the IPR service centre in the region, so as to attract local and overseas organizations to allocate more resources to R&D work” immediately before the full stop.

Question on Hon Andrew LEUNG's amendment to Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion as amended by Dr Hon Samson TAM and Hon Fred LI proposed, put and agreed to.

Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou replied.

Question on Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou's motion as amended by Dr Hon Samson TAM, Hon Fred LI and Hon Andrew LEUNG put and agreed to.

Motion for the adjournment of the Council

The President said that he had determined under Rule 16(6) and (7) of the Rules of Procedure that if at the expiration of 75 minutes from the moving of this motion, there were Members who still wished to speak, he would extend the period of the debate until all Members who wished to speak had spoken, and the designated public officer had given his reply. As regards the speaking time, each Member might speak up to five minutes, and the designated public officer making a reply might speak up to 15 minutes.

Hon Ronny TONG moved the following motion and spoke on the motion:

That this Council do now adjourn for the purpose of debating the selection of candidates for the post of Chief Executive of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority.

While Hon Ronny TONG was speaking, the President left the chair at 7:37 pm temporarily and the President's Deputy, Hon Miriam LAU, took the chair.

Question on the motion proposed.

Ten Members and Hon Vincent FANG spoke on the motion.

At 8:31 pm, while Hon Vincent FANG was speaking, the President resumed the chair.
