Proposed amendments to Motion of Thanks

Further to LC Paper Nos. CB(3) 84 and 88/08-09 issued on 24 October 2008, Hon WONG Kwok-hing, Hon WONG Sing-chi and Hon Frederick FUNG Kin-kee have advised that they will withdraw their respective proposed amendments to the Motion of Thanks. As such, only Hon Emily LAU Wai-hing will propose amendment to the Motion of Thanks.

2. To assist Members in debating the above motion and the relevant amendment, I set out below the procedure to be followed during the debate:
- (a) Hon Miriam LAU Kin-yee moves the motion;
 - (b) the President proposes the question on Hon Miriam LAU Kin-yee's motion, and orders a joint debate;
 - (c) the President has accepted the recommendations of the House Committee on the time limits for speeches in the debate. A Member may speak once in one or more sessions of the five debate sessions, but subject to the total speaking time limit of 30 minutes. Hon Miriam LAU Kin-yee, as mover of the motion, will have an additional 15-minute speaking time for moving the motion and making her reply;
 - (d) Members' speeches in a session should be confined to the policy areas specified for that session;

- (e) like all other Members, Hon Miriam LAU Kin-yea and Hon Emily LAU Wai-hing who intends to move amendment may speak in one or more of the five debate sessions, but no amendment is to be moved at this stage;
- (f) after Members have spoken in each session, there will be a 10-minute suspension of the meeting for the designated public officers for that session to co-ordinate their response to the Council. The President may exercise discretion not to suspend the meeting if the designated officers consider the break not necessary;
- (g) the total speaking time limit for designated public officers in each debate session is as follows:
 - (i) for one or two officers, each officer may speak for not less than 15 minutes, subject to the total time limit of 45 minutes. Under this arrangement, where two officers are to speak, the officer speaking first should not speak for more than 30 minutes, leaving at least 15 minutes for the other officer. Subject to such a restriction, it is up to the officers to determine their actual speaking time; and
 - (ii) for three or more officers, it will be calculated on the basis of 15-minute speaking time limit for each officer;
- (h) at the end of a debate session and before the start of the next session, Members will be informed of the balance of their speaking time;
- (i) once all designated public officers for a particular debate session have spoken, the next session will begin immediately unless the time is approaching 9:00 pm;
- (j) after the designated public officers have spoken in the last debate session, the President gives leave for Hon Miriam LAU Kin-yea to speak on the proposed amendments for up to five minutes;
- (k) the President invites Hon Emily LAU Wai-hing to move her amendment to the motion, and forthwith proposes and puts to vote the question on Hon Emily LAU Wai-hing's amendment;
- (l) after Hon Emily LAU Wai-hing's amendment has been dealt with, the President calls upon Hon Miriam LAU Kin-yea to reply. Thereafter, the President puts to vote the question on Hon Miriam LAU Kin-yea's motion, or her motion as amended, as the case may be.

3. For Members' ease of reference, the terms of the original motion and of the motion, if amended, are set out in the Appendix.

4. Members are also reminded that the deadline for giving notice of amendment to amendment to the motion is 12:00 midnight today (27 October 2008).

1. Hon Miriam LAU Kin-yee's original motion

“That this Council thanks the Chief Executive for his address.”

2. Motion as amended by Hon Emily LAU Wai-hing

“That this Council thanks the Chief Executive for his address, but as many people support the implementation of dual universal suffrage in 2012, this Council expresses deep regret at the Chief Executive's remark that the timetable for universal suffrage set by the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress at the end of 2007 enjoys wide support in the community, which disregarded the request for the implementation of dual universal suffrage in 2012 from the community at large.”

Note: Hon Emily LAU Wai-hing's amendment is marked in bold and italic type.
