REGULATION 2011

UNITED NATIONS SANCTIONS (LIBERIA)
REGULATION 2010 (REPEAL) REGULATION

INTRODUCTION

At the meeting of the Executive Council on 22 March 2011, the Council advised and the Chief Executive (“the CE”) ordered that –

- A
- (a) the United Nations Sanctions (Liberia) Regulation 2011 (“the Regulation”), at Annex A, be made under section 3 of the United Nations Sanctions Ordinance (Cap. 537) (“the Ordinance”) to give effect to the instruction of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People’s Republic of China (“MFA”); and
- B
- (b) the United Nations Sanctions (Liberia) Regulation 2010 (Repeal) Regulation (“the Repeal Regulation”), at Annex B, be made consequential to the making of the Regulation.

The Regulation and the Repeal Regulation were gazetted on 25 March 2011. The Regulation (except the provisions relating to financial sanctions) came into operation on the same date. The Repeal Regulation and the provisions of the Regulation that relate to financial sanctions will come into effect on 1 April 2011¹.

BACKGROUND

Obligation and Authority

2. Under section 3(1) of the Ordinance, the CE is required to make regulations to give effect to an instruction by the MFA to implement sanctions decided by the Security Council of the United Nations (“UNSC”). In February 2011, the CE received an instruction from the MFA requesting the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“HKSAR”) to implement UNSC Resolution (“UNSCR”) 1961 in respect of Liberia. The Regulation was made pursuant to the instruction. A document issued by the Chief Secretary for Administration confirming the MFA’s instruction is at Annex C.

Sanctions against Liberia

3. Since March 2001, the UNSC has adopted a series of resolutions imposing sanctions against Liberia in view of the country’s support for armed rebel groups in neighbouring countries which constitutes a threat to international peace and security in the region. These resolutions include UNSCR 1521 (at Annex D) imposing arms-related sanctions and travel ban, and UNSCR 1532 (at Annex E) concerning financial measures. The sanctions regime, which was last updated by UNSCR 1903 (at Annex F) in December 2009, concerns the following –

F

- (a) prohibition against the direct or indirect supply, sale, transfer and carriage of arms and related materiel, and the provision of assistance, advice or training related to military activities, to a person operating in the territory of Liberia (paragraphs 3, 4, 5 and 6 of UNSCR 1903 refer);
- (b) prohibition against the entry into or transit through the HKSAR by certain persons designated by the Committee established by UNSCR 1521 (“the Committee”) (paragraph 4 of UNSCR 1521 refers); and
- (c) freezing of funds, other financial assets and economic resources owned or controlled directly or indirectly by persons designated by the Committee, or that are held by entities owned or controlled directly or indirectly by any persons acting on their behalf or at their direction, as designated by the Committee, and prohibition against making available to, or for the benefit of, such persons or entities any funds, other financial assets or economic resources (paragraph 1 of UNSCR 1532 refers).

4. To implement the relevant sanctions against Liberia, a number of items of subsidiary legislation have been made under the Ordinance. The most recent regulation enacted was the United Nations Sanctions (Liberia) Regulation 2010 (Cap. 537, sub. leg. AQ). All provisions in Cap. 537AQ, except for those relating to financial sanctions (including prohibition, licensing and law enforcement provisions), expired at midnight on 16 December 2010.

UNSCR 1961

G 5. On 17 December 2010, UNSC adopted UNSCR 1961 (at Annex G), which stipulated, inter alia, that –

- (a) the measures on travel imposed by paragraph 4 of UNSCR 1521 be renewed for a period of 12 months from the date of adoption of UNSCR 1961 (paragraph 1 of UNSCR 1961 refers);
- (b) the financial measures imposed by paragraph 1 of UNSCR 1532 remain in force (paragraph 2 of UNSCR 1961 refers); and
- (c) the measures on arms and related materiel, previously imposed by paragraph 2 of UNSCR 1521 and modified respectively by paragraphs 1 and 2 of UNSCR 1683, paragraph 1(b) of UNSCR 1731, and paragraphs 3, 4, 5 and 6 of UNSCR 1903, be renewed for a period of 12 months from the date of adoption of UNSCR 1961 (paragraph 3 of UNSCR 1961 refers).

THE REGULATION

6. The Regulation, at Annex A, seeks to implement the sanctions against Liberia as renewed by UNSCR 1961, and to continue the implementation of the financial sanctions under UNSCR 1532. The main provisions of the Regulation include –

- (a) section 1, which provides that the provisions relating to financial sanctions would commence on 1 April 2011;
- (b) sections 3 and 4, which prohibit the supply, sale, transfer and carriage of arms or related materiel to a person operating in the territory of Liberia;
- (c) section 5, which prohibits the provision of assistance, advice or training related to military activities to a person operating in the territory of Liberia;
- (d) section 6, which provides for prohibitions against making available to certain persons or entities any funds or other financial assets or economic resources, or dealing with funds or other financial assets or economic resources of certain persons or entities;
- (e) section 7, which prohibits the entry into or transit through the HKSAR by certain persons;
- (f) sections 9 to 11, which provide for the granting of licences for the supply, sale, transfer or carriage of prohibited goods; for the provision of assistance, advice or training related to military activities to certain persons; and for making available to certain persons or entities any funds or other financial assets or economic resources, or dealing with funds or other financial assets or economic resources of certain persons or entities;
- (g) section 31, which provides that the CE may by notice published in the Gazette specify a person or an entity designated by the Committee established under UNSCR 1521 as a relevant person or a relevant entity for the purpose of the financial sanctions under the Regulation; and

- (h) section 33, which provides that all provisions, except those relating to financial sanctions, would expire at midnight on 16 December 2011.

The content of the Regulation, which renews or continues the implementation of sanctions against Liberia, is essentially the same as those in Cap. 537AQ.

THE REPEAL REGULATION

7. All provisions of Cap. 537AQ, except those relating to financial sanctions, expired on 16 December 2010. Consequential to the making of the Regulation which includes provisions relating to financial sanctions, there is no further need for Cap. 537AQ and it should therefore be repealed.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE PROPOSAL

8. The Regulation and the Repeal Regulation are in conformity with the Basic Law, including the provisions concerning human rights. They will not affect the binding effect of the Ordinance. They have no financial, civil service, economic, productivity, environmental or sustainability implications.

PUBLICITY

9. A press release was issued on 25 March 2011 when the Regulation and the Repeal Regulation were published in the Gazette.

Distr.: General
22 December 2003

Resolution 1521 (2003)Adopted by the Security Council at its 4890th meeting, on 22 December 2003

The Security Council,

Recalling its previous resolutions and statements by its President on the situation in Liberia and West Africa,

Taking note of the reports of the United Nations Panel of Experts on Liberia dated 7 August 2003 (S/2003/779) and 28 October 2003 (S/2003/937 and S/2003/937/Add.1) submitted pursuant to resolution 1478 (2003),

Expressing serious concern at the findings of the Panel of Experts that the measures imposed by resolution 1343 (2001) continue to be breached, particularly through the acquisition of arms,

Welcoming the Comprehensive Peace Agreement signed by the former Government of Liberia, Liberians United for Reconciliation and Democracy (LURD) and the Movement for Democracy in Liberia (MODEL) on 18 August 2003 in Accra, and that the National Transitional Government of Liberia under Chairman Gyude Bryant took office on 14 October 2003,

Calling upon all States in the region, particularly the National Transitional Government of Liberia, to work together to build lasting regional peace, including through the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), the International Contact Group on Liberia, the Mano River Union and the Rabat Process,

Noting with concern, however, that the ceasefire and the Comprehensive Peace Agreement are not yet being universally implemented throughout Liberia, and that much of the country remains outside the authority of the National Transitional Government of Liberia, particularly those areas to which the United Nations Mission in Liberia (UNMIL) has not yet deployed,

Recognizing the linkage between the illegal exploitation of natural resources such as diamonds and timber, illicit trade in such resources, and the proliferation and trafficking of illegal arms as a major source of fuelling and exacerbating conflicts in West Africa, particularly in Liberia,

Determining that the situation in Liberia and the proliferation of arms and armed non-State actors, including mercenaries, in the subregion continue to constitute a threat to international peace and security in West Africa, in particular to the peace process in Liberia,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

Recalling its resolutions 1343 (2001) of 7 March 2001, 1408 (2002) of 6 May 2002, 1478 (2003) of 6 May 2003, 1497 (2003) of 1 August 2003, and 1509 (2003) of 19 September 2003,

Noting that the changed circumstances in Liberia, in particular the departure of former President Charles Taylor and the formation of the National Transitional Government of Liberia, and progress with the peace process in Sierra Leone, require the Council's determination for action under Chapter VII to be revised to reflect these altered circumstances,

1. Decides to terminate the prohibitions imposed by paragraphs 5, 6, and 7 of resolution 1343 (2001) and paragraphs 17 and 28 of resolution 1478 (2003) and to dissolve the committee established under resolution 1343 (2001);

(a) Decides also that all States shall take the necessary measures to prevent the entry into or transit through their territories of all such individuals, as designated by the Committee, who constitute a threat to the peace process in Liberia, or who are engaged in activities aimed at undermining peace and stability in Liberia and the subregion, including those senior members of former President Charles Taylor's Government and their spouses and members of Liberia's former armed forces who retain links to former President Charles Taylor, those individuals determined by the Committee to be in violation of paragraph 2 above, and any other individuals, or individuals associated with entities, providing financial or military support to armed rebel groups in Liberia or in countries in the region, provided that nothing in this paragraph shall oblige a State to refuse entry into its territory to its own nationals;

(b) Decides that the measures in paragraph 4 (a) above shall continue to apply to the individuals already designated pursuant to paragraph 7 (a) of resolution 1343 (2001), pending the designation of individuals by the Committee as required by and in accordance with paragraph 4 (a) above;

(c) Decides that the measures imposed by subparagraph 4 (a) above shall not apply where the Committee determines that such travel is justified on the grounds of humanitarian need, including religious obligation, or where the Committee concludes that an exemption would otherwise further the objectives of the Council's resolutions, for the creation of peace, stability and democracy in Liberia and lasting peace in the subregion;

5. Expresses its readiness to terminate the measures imposed by paragraphs 2 (a) and (b) and 4 (a) above when the Council determines that the ceasefire in Liberia is being fully respected and maintained, disarmament, demobilization, reintegration, repatriation and restructuring of the security sector have been completed, the provisions of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement are being fully implemented, and significant progress has been made in establishing and maintaining stability in Liberia and the subregion;

The Security Council,

Recalling its resolution 1521 (2003) of 22 December 2003, and its other previous resolutions and statements by its President on the situation in Liberia and West Africa,

Noting with concern that the actions and policies of former Liberian President Charles Taylor and other persons, in particular their depletion of Liberian resources, and their removal from Liberia and secreting of Liberian funds and property from that country, have undermined Liberia's transition to democracy and the orderly development of its political, administrative, and economic institutions and resources,

Recognizing the negative impact on Liberia of the transfer abroad of misappropriated funds and assets and the need for the international community to ensure as soon as possible, in accordance with paragraph 6 below, the return of such funds and assets to Liberia,

Also expressing concern that former President Taylor, in collaboration with others still closely associated with him, continues to exercise control over and to have access to such misappropriated funds and property, with which he and his associates are able to engage in activities that undermine peace and stability in Liberia and the region,

Determining that this situation constitutes a threat to international peace and security in West Africa, in particular to the peace process in Liberia,

2. Decides that the provisions of paragraph 1 above do not apply to funds, other financial assets and economic resources that:

(b) have been determined by relevant State(s) to be necessary for extraordinary expenses, provided that such determination has been notified by the relevant State(s) to the Committee and has been approved by the Committee; or

(c) have been determined by relevant State(s) to be the subject of a judicial administrative, or arbitral lien or judgement, in which case the funds, other financial assets and economic resources may be used to satisfy that lien or judgement provided that the lien or judgement: was entered prior to the date of the present resolution; is not for the benefit of a person referred to in paragraph 1 above or an individual or entity identified by the Committee; and has been notified by the relevant State(s) to the Committee;

3. Decides that all States may allow for the addition to accounts subject to the provisions of paragraph 1 above of:

(a) interest or other earnings due on those accounts; and

(b) payments due under contracts, agreements or obligations that arose prior to the date on which those accounts became subject to the provisions of paragraph 1 above;

provided that any such interest, other earnings and payments continue to be subject to those provisions;

4. Further decides that the Committee shall:

(a) identify individuals and entities of the types described in paragraph 1 above, and promptly circulate to all States a list of said individuals and entities, including by posting such a list on the Committee's web site;

(b) maintain and regularly update and review every six months the list of those individuals and entities identified by the Committee as being subject to the measures set forth in paragraph 1 above;

(c) assist States, where necessary, in tracing and freezing the funds, other financial assets and economic resources of such individuals and entities;

(d) seek from all States information regarding the actions taken by them to trace and freeze such funds, other financial assets and economic resources;

5. Decides to review the measures imposed in paragraph 1 above at least once a year, the first review taking place by December 22, 2004 in conjunction with its review of the measures imposed in paragraphs 2, 4, 6 and 10 of resolution 1521 (2003), and to determine at that time what further action is appropriate;

With its capital in Monrovia, Liberia was founded in 1847 by freed American slaves, adopting a republic government modeled on that of the United States. The republic is currently led by President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf who came to power in 2005. Dependent on exports of iron ore, rubber and other natural resources such as diamond, and timber, Liberia had a GDP of US$830 million (or HK$6.5 billion) in 2008.¹ Merchandise imports and exports of Liberia in 2009 amounted to US$ 550 million (or HK$4.3 billion) and US$ 150 million (or HK$1.2 billion) respectively.² The country also has the second largest maritime registry of vessels in the world.

United Nations Sanctions against Liberia

2. Decades of economic plunder and social disinvestments, amplified by military coups and civil wars in 1980s and 1990s, eroded the wealth of natural resources, human capital and infrastructure of Liberia.³ Armed conflicts intensified in 2003, leading to the exile of the former President Charles Taylor who was known for his brutal regime between 1997 and 2003. During the civil wars period, the United Nations Security Council (UNSC) imposed an arms embargo on Liberia in 1992. In 2001, UNSC adopted Resolution 1343 which further blocked trade in rough diamonds (which was exploited by warlords for illicit trading) and restricted the travel of key individuals undermining regional security through Liberia's role in the war in neighbouring Sierra Leone. As the conflict intensified within Liberia, the UNSC demanded audits of the Liberian shipping registry and the logging sector (vide Resolution 1408 in 2002), and eventually applied timber sanctions in 2003 (vide Resolution 1478).

3. In 2003, the Comprehensive Peace Agreement ended the Liberian conflict. The exiled former President Charles Taylor continued to exert influence on events in Liberia, and the implementation of the peace accord lacked progress. Outbreaks of violence from former warlords and rebel fighters continued. In light of these developments, the UNSC renewed sanctions on ban of arms and natural resources through 2004 and 2005, and imposed vide Resolution 1532 in 2004 an assets freeze measure on certain individuals to prevent access to resources to fuel further conflict.

4. Acknowledging the efforts taken by the new Government of President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf inaugurated in January 2006, the UNSC allowed the timber sanctions to expire on 21 June 2006. Subsequently, the UNSC also lifted the ban on rough diamond on 27 April 2007.⁴ The sanctions regime was most recently renewed by UNSC Resolution 1961 of 17 December 2010.⁵

Trade Relation between Hong Kong and Liberia

5. In 2010, Liberia ranked 161th among Hong Kong's trading partners in the world, with a total trade of HK$29.9 million. Of these, HK$25.5 million worth of trade were exports to the Liberia, and HK$4.3 million imports. Hong Kong's trade with Liberia are summarized as follows –

Hong Kong's Trade with Liberia [Value in HK$ (in million)]
Item	2009	2010
(b) Imports from Liberia	5.6 ¹⁰	4.3 ¹¹
Total Trade [(a) + (b)]	36.6	29.9

In 2010, HK$26.8 million worth of goods, or 0.08% of the total trade between Liberia and the Mainland, were routed through Hong Kong. Of these, HK$3.2 million worth of goods were re-exports from Liberia to Mainland. The remaining HK$23.6 million were re-exports of Mainland origin to Liberia via Hong Kong.

6. The current arms embargo, travel ban and financial sanctions against Liberia imposed by the UNSC would unlikely affect the trade between Hong Kong and Liberia adversely, as the major categories of commodities traded are not related to arms and related materials. In addition, given the rather small trade volume between the two places, the United Nations sanctions against Liberia would unlikely have any effect on the economy of Hong Kong.
