I Proposed duty visit to study overseas experience in waterfront planning and management

The Subcommittee deliberated (Index of proceedings attached at Annex).

2. The Subcommittee agreed to undertake a duty visit to New York, Boston, Baltimore and Vancouver as these cities possessed successful experience in waterfront planning and management and their experience was relevant to the circumstances in Hong Kong. The proposed duty visit was tentatively scheduled for 25 September to 3 October 2009. The Subcommittee also agreed that the proposed duty visit should be open to all Members of the Legislative Council. Members noted that it was necessary to seek the support of the Panel on Development and the permission of the House Committee for the proposed duty visit.

3. The Chairman directed the Clerk to issue a circular to Subcommittee members and other Legislative Council Members to invite them to indicate whether they would join the proposed duty visit.

II Any other business

4. There being no other business, the meeting ended at 2:25 pm.
