Education and Publicity

9. Publicity for the thematic campaign on risk management for MPF investments continued in May 2009. The messages were disseminated in the form of small advertisement boxes in a free tabloid newspaper from 20 April to 8 May. Subsequently, the messages were produced in the form of seat-back advertisement in 30 buses from 22 May to 18 June.

10. To enhance the scheme members' understanding on how to handle their MPF preserved accounts and accrued benefits when changing jobs, the MPFA participated in a careers fair organized by Hong Kong Employment Development Service on 13 May. Exhibition panels were displayed and MPF publications were distributed to the participants.

11. Youth education activities continued. For the Skit Programme at secondary schools, nine schools were visited during the month and messages including the benefits of early retirement planning, the merits of MPF and compounding effect continued to be promulgated to the senior form students.

12. For the "Book Report Competition for Kindergarten Kids", selected winning entries were displayed at the Community Art Gallery of MTR stations to encourage youngsters to cultivate the good habit of saving for the future.

13. During the month, community outreach activities continued. Three MPF district carnivals, being part of a series of partnership programmes with political parties, were organized for the residents in various districts. Besides, the MPFA participated in a fun day organized by the branch of a labour union in Tung Chung and MPF messages were promoted to the local residents. In addition, nine MPF seminars were arranged for civil servants, intermediaries, self-employed persons, staff of LegCo Secretariat and the general public.

14. Publicity and communication programmes for the injection of $6,000 into the MPF accounts of eligible MPF/ORSO scheme members (GIC Project) continued in May. In addition to the telecasting of the Announcements in the Public Interest (API) on the electronic media, the TV API was also telecast on the TV panels on buses to promote the Injection Hotline number and publicize the deadline for lodging a request for review of eligibility.

15. On the media front, 13 press releases were issued concerning the MPFA's enforcement actions. Meanwhile, 15 contribution articles on various MPF topics were published through different channels in the media, focusing mainly on the MPF System and GIC Project.
