Education and Publicity

9. Publicity for the thematic campaign on risk management for MPF investments continued in June 2009. The messages were produced in the form of seat-back advertisement in 30 buses for four weeks until 18 June 2009.

10. To enhance the scheme members' understanding on how to handle their MPF preserved accounts and accrued benefits when changing jobs, a series of free advertorials on this subject was published weekly in a free recruitment magazine ("Jiu Jik") from 26 June to 17 July 2009.

11. With an aim to incorporate the concept of financial planning and MPF knowledge into the curriculum of the New Senior Secondary Liberal Studies, a training workshop, namely "Financial Planning and Personal Development", for the teachers of Liberal Studies was co-organized with the Education Bureau and the Institute of Financial Planners of Hong Kong on 9 June 2009, to introduce to the Liberal Studies teachers the application of the topics to their teaching. The importance of financial management skills and early planning for MPF investment to adolescents' personal development was presented and a teaching kit was introduced to the teachers.

12. Youth education activities continued. For the Skit Programme for secondary schools, one more school was visited this month and messages including the benefits of early retirement planning, the merits and compounding effects of MPF continued to be disseminated to the senior form students. The entire programme for the 2008/09 academic year has completed with a total of 60 skit performances.

13. For the "Book Report Competition for Kindergarten Kids", selected winning entries were displayed at the Community Art Gallery of MTR stations to encourage youngsters to cultivate the good habit of saving for the future.

14. During the month, community outreach activities continued. Two MPF district carnivals, being part of a series of partnership programmes with political parties, were organized for the residents in the districts. Representatives of the MPFA attended the dinner gatherings organized by two labour unions and MPF messages were disseminated to their members. In addition, four MPF seminars were arranged for MPF intermediaries, persons participating in re-training courses and the general public.

15. On the media front, 18 press releases concerning the MPFA's enforcement actions were issued. Meanwhile, 22 contribution articles on various MPF topics were published through different media channels, focusing mainly on the protection for MPF scheme members.
