

Chairperson
Panel on Welfare Services
Legislative Council

I am writing to express my support for inclusion in the Domestic Violence Ordinance of same-sex cohabitants.

In my mind, the proposed ordinance is about protecting vulnerable people. Some vulnerable people may be in living in same-sex relations for a whole host of reasons. If the intent in the ordinance is to protect the vulnerable, then all vulnerable people should be protected without discrimination.

Sincerely,
Darren Bryant