80A. Warning notices

(1) If the Commission has reasonable cause to believe that—

- (a) a contravention of the first conduct rule has occurred; and
- (b) the contravention does not involve serious anti-competitive conduct, the Commission must, before bringing proceedings in the Tribunal against the undertaking whose conduct is alleged to constitute the contravention, issue a notice (a “warning notice”) to the undertaking.

(2) A warning notice must—

- (a) describe the conduct (the “contravening conduct”) that is alleged to constitute the contravention;
- (b) identify the undertaking (the “contravening undertaking”) that has engaged in the contravening conduct;
- (c) identify the evidence or other materials that the Commission relies on in support of its allegations;

- (d) state—
- (i) that the Commission requires the contravening undertaking to cease the contravening conduct within the period (the “warning period”) specified in the notice, and not to repeat that conduct after the warning period;
 - (ii) that, if the contravening conduct continues after the expiry of the warning period, the Commission may bring proceedings in the Tribunal against the contravening undertaking in respect of the contravening conduct; and
 - (iii) that, if the contravening undertaking repeats the contravening conduct after the expiry of the warning period, the Commission may bring proceedings in the Tribunal against the contravening undertaking in respect of the contravening conduct and the repeated conduct; and
- (e) indicate the manner in which the contravening undertaking may cease the contravening conduct.

(3) In determining the warning period, the Commission must have regard to the amount of time which the contravening undertaking is likely to require to cease the contravening conduct.

(4) After the expiry of the warning period—

(a) if the Commission has reasonable cause to believe that the contravening conduct continues after the expiry, the Commission may bring proceedings in the Tribunal against the contravening undertaking in respect of the contravening conduct; and

(b) if the Commission has reasonable cause to believe that the contravening undertaking repeats the contravening conduct after the expiry, the Commission may bring proceedings in the Tribunal against the contravening undertaking in respect of the contravening conduct and the repeated conduct.

(5) To avoid doubt, proceedings under subsection (4) may not be brought in respect of any period that precedes the warning period.

(6) The Commission may, either of its own volition or on application made to it in writing, extend the warning period specified in a warning notice if it considers that there is a good reason for doing so.

(7) An application for an extension under subsection (6) must be made before the expiry of the period sought to be extended.”.

(1) Except as provided by the rules of the Tribunal made under section 156, an appeal does not lie to the Court of Appeal against any interlocutory decision, determination or order of the Tribunal unless leave to appeal has been granted by the Court of Appeal or the Tribunal.

(2) Rules of the Tribunal made under section 156 may specify an interlocutory decision, determination or order of any prescribed description as being an interlocutory decision, determination or order to which subsection (1) does not apply and accordingly an appeal lies as of right against the decision, determination or order.

(3) Leave to appeal for the purpose of subsection (1) may be granted—

- (a) in respect of a particular issue arising out of the interlocutory decision, determination or order; and
- (b) subject to any conditions that the Court of Appeal or the Tribunal considers necessary in order to secure the just, expeditious and economical disposal of the appeal.

(4) Leave to appeal may only be granted under subsection (1) if the Court of Appeal or the Tribunal is satisfied that—

- (a) the appeal has a reasonable prospect of success; or
- (b) there is some other reason in the interests of justice why the appeal should be heard.”.

“4. Mergers
(1) To the extent to which an agreement (either on its own or when taken together with another agreement) results in, or if carried out would result in, a merger, the first conduct rule does not apply to the agreement.

(2) To the extent to which conduct (either on its own or when taken together with other conduct) results in, or if engaged in would result in, a merger, the second conduct rule does not apply to the conduct.

5. Agreements of lesser significance

(1) The first conduct rule does not apply to—

(a) an agreement between undertakings in any calendar year if the combined turnover of the undertakings for the turnover period does not exceed $200,000,000;

(b) a concerted practice engaged in by undertakings in any calendar year if the combined turnover of the undertakings for the turnover period does not exceed $200,000,000; or

(c) a decision of an association of undertakings in any calendar year if the turnover of the association for the turnover period does not exceed $200,000,000.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an agreement, a concerted practice, or a decision of an association of undertakings, that involves serious anti-competitive conduct.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the turnover period of an undertaking is—

(a) if the undertaking has a financial year, the financial year of the undertaking that ends in the preceding calendar year; or

- (b) if the undertaking does not have a financial year, the preceding calendar year.

(4) The turnover period of an undertaking is the period specified as such for the purpose of this subsection in the regulations made under section 162A(2) if—

- (a) for an undertaking that has a financial year—

(i) the undertaking does not have a financial year that ends in the preceding calendar year; or

(ii) the financial year of the undertaking that ends in the preceding calendar year is less than 12 months; or

- (b) for an undertaking that does not have a financial year—

(i) the undertaking is not engaged in economic activity in the preceding calendar year; or

(ii) the period in which the undertaking is engaged in economic activity in the preceding calendar year is less than 12 months.

(5) In this section—

“preceding calendar year” (對上公曆年) means the calendar year preceding the calendar year mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c);

“turnover” (營業額)—

- (a) in relation to an undertaking that is not an association of undertakings, means the total gross revenues of the undertaking whether obtained in Hong Kong or outside Hong Kong; and
- (b) in relation to an association of undertakings, means the total gross revenues of all the members of the association whether obtained in Hong Kong or outside Hong Kong.

6. Conduct of lesser significance

(1) The second conduct rule does not apply to conduct engaged in by an undertaking the turnover of which does not exceed $40,000,000 for the turnover period.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the turnover period of an undertaking is—

- (a) if the undertaking has a financial year, the financial year of the undertaking that ends in the preceding calendar year; or
- (b) if the undertaking does not have a financial year, the preceding calendar year.

(3) The turnover period of an undertaking is the period specified as such for the purpose of this subsection in the regulations made under section 162A(2) if—

- (a) for an undertaking that has a financial year—
 - (i) the undertaking does not have a financial year that ends in the

- preceding calendar year; or
- (ii) the financial year of the undertaking that ends in the preceding calendar year is less than 12 months; or
- (b) for an undertaking that does not have a financial year—
- (i) the undertaking is not engaged in economic activity in the preceding calendar year; or
- (ii) the period in which the undertaking is engaged in economic activity in the preceding calendar year is less than 12 months.

(4) In this section—

“preceding calendar year” (對上公曆年) means the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the conduct mentioned in subsection (1) is engaged in;

“turnover” (營業額) means the total gross revenues of an undertaking whether obtained in Hong Kong or outside Hong Kong.”.

REGISTER AND DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS

28A. Register of interest

(1) A member of the Commission, or a member of a committee established by the Commission, must disclose to the Commission any interest that the member has which is of a class or description determined by the Commission under subsection (2)—

- (a) in the case of a member of the Commission, on the member’s first appointment to the Commission;
- (b) in the case of a member of the committee who is not also a member of the Commission, on the member’s first appointment to the committee;
- (c) at the beginning of each calendar year after the member’s appointment;
- (d) on becoming aware of the existence of an interest not previously disclosed under this subsection; and

(e) after the occurrence of any change to an interest previously disclosed under this subsection.

(2) The Commission may, for the purposes of this section—

(a) determine the class or description of the interest required to be disclosed;

(b) determine the details of the interest required to be disclosed and the manner in which such interest is to be disclosed; and

(c) from time to time change any matter determined under paragraph (a) or (b).

(3) The Commission is to establish and maintain a register relating to any disclosure required to be made under subsection (1) (the “register”).

(4) If a person makes a disclosure as required by subsection (1), the Commission must cause the person’s name and the particulars of the disclosure to be recorded in the register, and if a further disclosure is made, the Commission must cause the particulars of the further disclosure to be recorded in the register.

(5) The Commission must make the register available for inspection by any person—

(a) at the offices of the Commission during ordinary business hours;

(b) through the Internet or a similar electronic network; and

(c) in any other manner the Commission considers appropriate.

28B. Disclosure of interests

- (1) If a member of the Commission has—
 - (a) a pecuniary interest, whether direct or indirect; or
 - (b) a personal interest greater than that which the member has as a member of the general public, in any matter under discussion at a meeting of the Commission, the member must disclose the nature of the interest at the meeting.

(2) The following provisions apply for the purposes of a disclosure under subsection (1)—

- (a) the disclosure must be recorded in the minutes;
- (b) if the disclosure is made by the member presiding, the member must vacate the chair during the discussion;
- (c) the member (including one who has vacated the chair under paragraph (b)) must, if so required by the majority of the other members present, withdraw from the meeting during the discussion and must not in any case, except as otherwise determined by the majority of the other members present, vote on any resolution concerning the matter under the discussion or be counted for the purpose of establishing the existence of a quorum.

(3) When a matter is being dealt with by way of the circulation of written resolutions under section 17 of this Schedule, and a member of the Commission has—

- (a) a pecuniary interest in the matter, whether direct or indirect; or
- (b) a personal interest in the matter greater than that which the member has as a member of the general public, the member must disclose the nature of the interest by attaching to the resolutions being circulated a note recording the disclosure.

(4) If a member has made a disclosure under subsection (3), the member's signature (if any) is not to be counted for the purpose of section 17(1) of this Schedule unless the Chairperson directs otherwise.

(5) If the member making a disclosure in respect of a matter under subsection (3) is the Chairperson, section 17 of this Schedule ceases to apply to the matter.

(6) The validity of any proceeding of the Commission is not affected by the failure by a member of the Commission to comply with this section.

(7) Subsections (1), (2) and (6) apply to a member of a committee established by the Commission, as if any reference to the Commission in subsections (1) and (6) were a reference to the committee.”.
