Enacted by the Legislative Council.

PART 1

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

This Ordinance may be cited as the Matrimonial Proceedings and Property (Amendment) Ordinance 2010.

2. Commencement

This Ordinance comes into operation on a day to be appointed by the Secretary for Justice by notice published in the Gazette.

PART 2

AMENDMENTS TO MATRIMONIAL PROCEEDINGS AND PROPERTY ORDINANCE

3. Part IIA added

The Matrimonial Proceedings and Property Ordinance (Cap. 192) is amended by adding—

“PART IIA

FINANCIAL RELIEF IN HONG KONG AFTER DIVORCE,
ETC. OUTSIDE HONG KONG

29AA. Interpretation of Part IIA

In this Part—

“competent authority outside Hong Kong” (境外主管當局) means any court or public body outside Hong Kong;

“disposition” (財產處置) does not include any provision contained in a will or codicil but, with that exception, includes any conveyance, assurance or gift of property of any description, whether made by an instrument or otherwise;

“order for financial relief” (經濟濟助命令), except in section 29AJ, means an order that the court may make under section 29AG.

29AB. Applications for financial relief after divorce, etc. outside Hong Kong

(1) If—

(a) a marriage has been dissolved or annulled, or the parties to a marriage have been legally separated, by means of judicial or other proceedings in a place outside Hong Kong; and

(b) the divorce, annulment or legal separation is recognized as valid by the law of Hong Kong, either of the parties to the marriage may apply to the court in accordance with rules of court for an order for financial relief.

(2) If after a marriage has been dissolved or annulled in a place outside Hong Kong, one of the parties to the marriage remarries, that party is not entitled to make an application in relation to that marriage.

(3) The reference in subsection (2) to remarriage includes a marriage that is by law void or voidable.

29AC. Leave of court required for applications for financial relief

(1) No application for an order for financial relief may be made unless the leave of the court has been obtained in accordance with rules of court.

(2) The court must not grant leave unless it considers that there is substantial ground for the making of an application for an order for financial relief.

(3) The court may grant leave under this section despite the fact that an order has been made by a competent authority outside Hong Kong requiring the other party to the marriage to make any payment or transfer any property to, or for the benefit of, the applicant or a child of the family.

(4) Leave under this section may be granted subject to any conditions the court thinks fit.

29AD. Interim orders for maintenance

(1) If leave is granted under section 29AC for the making of an application for an order for financial relief and it appears to the court that the applicant or any child of the family is in immediate need of financial assistance, the court may make an order requiring the other party to the marriage to make to the applicant or the child any periodical payments the court thinks reasonable.

(2) The periodical payments may be for a term that the court thinks reasonable, but the term must not begin earlier than the date of the grant of leave and must end on the date of the determination of the application for an order for financial relief.

(3) An order under this section may be made subject to any conditions the court thinks fit.

29AE. Jurisdiction of court

The court has jurisdiction to entertain an application for an order for financial relief if any of the following jurisdictional requirements is satisfied—

- (a) either of the parties to the marriage was domiciled in Hong Kong—
  - (i) on the date of the application for leave under section 29AC; or
  - (ii) on the date on which the divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained in the place outside Hong Kong took effect in that place;
- (b) either of the parties to the marriage was habitually resident in Hong Kong—
  - (i) throughout the period of 3 years immediately before the date of the application for leave under section 29AC; or
  - (ii) throughout the period of 3 years immediately before the date on which the divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained in the place outside Hong Kong took effect in that place; or

- (c) either of the parties to the marriage had a substantial connection with Hong Kong—
  - (i) on the date of the application for leave under section 29AC; or
  - (ii) on the date on which the divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained in the place outside Hong Kong took effect in that place.

29AF. Duty of court to consider whether Hong Kong is appropriate venue for application

(1) Before making an order for financial relief, the court must consider whether in all the circumstances of the case it would be appropriate for the order to be made by a court in Hong Kong, and if the court is not satisfied that it would be appropriate, the court must dismiss the application.

(2) The court must in particular have regard to the following matters—

- (a) the connection that the parties to the marriage have with Hong Kong;
- (b) the connection that those parties have with the place where the marriage was dissolved or annulled or where they were legally separated;
- (c) the connection that those parties have with any other place outside Hong Kong;
- (d) any financial benefit that the applicant or a child of the family has received, or is likely to receive, in consequence of the divorce, annulment or legal separation, by virtue of any agreement or the operation of the law of a place outside Hong Kong;
- (e) if an order has been made by a competent authority outside Hong Kong requiring the other party to the marriage to make any payment or transfer any property to, or for the benefit of, the applicant or a child of the family—
  - (i) the financial relief given by the order; and
  - (ii) the extent to which the order has been complied with or is likely to be complied with;
- (f) any right that the applicant has, or has had, to apply for financial relief from the other party to the marriage under the law of any place outside Hong Kong and, if the applicant has not exercised that right, the reason for that;

- (g) the availability of any property in Hong Kong in respect of which an order for financial relief in favour of the applicant may be made;
- (h) the extent to which any order for financial relief is likely to be enforceable;
- (i) the length of time that has elapsed since the date of the divorce, annulment or legal separation.

29AG. Orders for financial provision and property adjustment

(1) On an application by a party to a marriage for an order for financial relief, the court may make any one or more of the orders that it could make under section 4, 5 or 6 if a decree of divorce, a decree of nullity of marriage or a decree of judicial separation in respect of the marriage had been granted in Hong Kong.

(2) If under subsection (1) the court makes an order mentioned in section 4(1)(b) or (c), 5(2)(b) or (c) or 6, then, on making that order or at any time after the making of that order, the court may make an order mentioned in section 6A(1).

29AH. Matters to which court is to have regard in exercising its powers under section 29AG

(1) In deciding whether to exercise its powers under section 29AG and, if so, in what manner, the court must make its decision in accordance with this section.

(2) As regards the exercise of those powers in relation to a party to the marriage, the court must have regard to the conduct of the parties and all the circumstances of the case including the matters mentioned in section 7(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g).

(3) As regards the exercise of those powers in relation to a child of the family, the court must—

- (a) have regard to all the circumstances of the case including the matters mentioned in section 7(2)(a), (b), (c), (d) and (e); and
- (b) if it decides to exercise those powers, exercise them in the manner specified in section 7(2).

(4) As regards the exercise of those powers against a party to the marriage in favour of a child of the family who is not the child of that party, the court must have regard to all the circumstances of the case including the matters mentioned in section 7(3)(a), (b) and (c).

(5) If an order has been made by a competent authority outside Hong Kong for the making of payments or the transfer of property by a party to the marriage, the court in considering in accordance with this section the financial resources of the other party to the marriage or a child of the family must have regard to the extent to which that order has been complied with or is likely to be complied with.

29AI. Application of certain provisions of Part II to orders made under sections 29AD and 29AG

The following provisions of Part II apply in relation to an order made under section 29AD or 29AG as they apply in relation to a like order under those provisions—

- (a) section 4(2);
- (b) section 5(3) and (4);
- (c) section 6A(2), (3), (4), (5) and (6);
- (d) section 9(1), (2) and (3);
- (e) section 10;
- (f) section 11, except subsections (2)(d) and (4);
- (g) section 12;
- (h) section 13;
- (i) section 23;
- (j) section 24;
- (k) section 26(a);
- (l) section 27;
- (m) section 28;
- (n) section 28AA;
- (o) section 28AB.

29AJ. Avoidance of transactions intended to defeat applications for financial relief under section 29AD or 29AG

(1) If leave is granted under section 29AC for the making by a party to a marriage of an application for an order for financial relief under section 29AG, the court may, on an application by that party, make an order mentioned in subsection (2) or (3).

(2) If the court is satisfied that the other party to the marriage is, with the intention of defeating the claim for financial relief, about to make any disposition or to transfer out of the jurisdiction or otherwise deal with any property, the court may make any order it thinks fit for restraining the other party from so doing or otherwise for protecting the claim.

(3) If the court is satisfied that the other party to the marriage has, with the intention of defeating the claim for financial relief, made a disposition to which this subsection applies, and that if the disposition were set aside, financial relief or different financial relief would be granted to the applicant, the court may make an order setting aside the disposition.

(4) If an order for financial relief under section 29AD or 29AG has been made by the court at the instance of a party to a marriage, then, on an application by that party, the court may, if it is satisfied that the other party to the marriage has, with the intention of defeating the claim for financial relief, made a disposition to which this subsection applies, make an order setting aside the disposition.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) apply respectively to a disposition made by the other party to the marriage (whether before or after the commencement of the application), not being a disposition made for valuable consideration (other than marriage) to a person who, at the time of the disposition, acted in relation to it in good faith and without notice of any intention on the part of the other party to defeat the applicant's claim for financial relief.

(6) If the court makes an order under subsection (3) or (4) setting aside a disposition, it may give any consequential directions it thinks fit for giving effect to the order; including directions requiring the making of any payment or the disposal of any property.

(7) Subsection (8) applies if an application is made under subsection (1) or (4), with respect to a disposition that took place less than 3 years before the date of the application or with respect to a disposition or other dealing with property that is about to take place.

(8) If the court is satisfied—

- (a) in a case falling within subsection (2), that the disposition or other dealing would (apart from this section) have the consequence of defeating the applicant's claim for financial relief; or
- (b) in a case falling within subsection (3) or (4), that the disposition has had the consequence of defeating the applicant's claim for financial relief, it is to be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that the person who disposed of or is about to dispose of or deal with the property did so or, as the case may be, is about to do so, with the intention of defeating the applicant's claim for financial relief.

(9) In this section, any reference to defeating a claim by a party to a marriage for financial relief is a reference to—

- (a) preventing financial relief from being granted or reducing the amount of relief that might be granted; or

- (b) frustrating or impeding the enforcement of any order that might be or has been made under section 29AD or 29AG.

29AK. Prevention of transactions intended to defeat prospective applications for financial relief

(1) The court may make an order under subsection (2) if, on an application by a party to a marriage for the order, it appears to the court—

- (a) that the marriage has been dissolved or annulled, or that the parties to the marriage have been legally separated, by means of judicial or other proceedings in a place outside Hong Kong;
- (b) that the divorce, annulment or legal separation is recognized as valid by the law of Hong Kong;
- (c) that the applicant intends to apply for leave to make an application for an order for financial relief as soon as he or she has been habitually resident in Hong Kong throughout a period of 3 years immediately before the date of the application; and
- (d) that the other party to the marriage is, with the intention of defeating the claim for financial relief, about to make any disposition or to transfer out of the jurisdiction or otherwise deal with any property.

(2) The court may make any order it thinks fit for restraining the other party to the marriage from making any disposition or transferring out of the jurisdiction or otherwise dealing with any property.

(3) If an application is made under subsection (1) with respect to a disposition or other dealing with property that is about to take place and the court is satisfied that the disposition or other dealing would (apart from this section) have the consequence of defeating the applicant's claim for financial relief, it is to be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that the person who is about to dispose of or deal with the property is about to do so, with the intention of defeating the applicant's claim for financial relief.

(4) In this section, any reference to defeating a claim by a party to a marriage for financial relief is a reference to—

- (a) preventing financial relief from being granted or reducing the amount of relief that might be granted; or
- (b) frustrating or impeding the enforcement of any order that might be made under section 29AG.

29AL. Power to grant injunctions not affected

Division 4—Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependants) Ordinance

15. Interpretation

Section 2(1) of the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependants) Ordinance (Cap. 481) is amended, in the definition of “former wife” or “former husband”, in paragraph (b), by repealing “country or territory” and substituting “place”.

16. Section 17A added

The following is added—

“17A. Restriction imposed in proceedings under Matrimonial Proceedings and Property
Ordinance on application under this Ordinance

(1) On making an order under section 29AG of the Matrimonial Proceedings and Property Ordinance (Cap. 192), the court, if it considers it just to do so, may, on the application of either party to the marriage, order that the other party to the marriage is not on the death of the applicant entitled to apply for an order under section 4.

(2) If an order under subsection (1) has been made with respect to a party to a marriage that has been dissolved or annulled, then, on the death of the other party to that marriage, the court must not entertain an application under section 4 made by the first-mentioned party.

(3) If an order under subsection (1) has been made with respect to a party to a marriage the parties to which have been legally separated, then, if the other party to the marriage dies while the legal separation is in force, the court must not entertain an application under section 4 made by the first-mentioned party.”.

Explanatory Memorandum

The principal purpose of this Bill is to amend the Matrimonial Proceedings and Property Ordinance (Cap. 192) (“the MPPO”) to empower the High Court and the District Court to order financial relief for a former spouse whose marriage has been dissolved or annulled, or who has been legally separated, in judicial or other proceedings outside Hong Kong, as they are able to do in proceedings for divorce, annulment or judicial separation in Hong Kong.

Part 1—Preliminary

2. Clause 1 provides for the short title of the Bill (when enacted).
3. Clause 2 empowers the Secretary for Justice to appoint a day for the Bill (when enacted) to come into operation.

Part 2—Amendments to Matrimonial Proceedings and Property Ordinance

4. Clause 3 adds a new Part IIA (comprising sections 29AA to 29AL) to the MPPO.

5. The new section 29AA contains 3 definitions that are necessary for the interpretation of the new Part.
6. The new section 29AB provides for applications to be made to the court for an order for financial relief if a marriage has been dissolved or annulled, or the parties to a marriage have been legally separated, by means of judicial or other proceedings in a place outside Hong Kong. The new section 29AC requires a person to obtain the leave of the court before applying for financial relief.
7. The new section 29AD enables the court to make an interim order if leave to make an application for financial relief is given, and the applicant or a child of the family is in immediate need of financial assistance.
8. The new section 29AE sets out the jurisdictional requirements that must be satisfied before the court may consider an application for financial relief.
9. The new section 29AF requires the court, before making an order for financial relief, to consider whether in all the circumstances of the case it would be appropriate for a court in Hong Kong to make the order. If the court is not so satisfied, it must dismiss the application. The new section also sets out the matters to which the court must pay particular attention for this purpose.
10. The new section 29AG enables the court to make orders for financial provision and property adjustment after leave to apply has been given under the new section 29AC and it is satisfied that it is appropriate for such an order to be made by a court in Hong Kong.
11. The new section 29AH sets out guidelines for the court in the exercise of its power under the new section 29AG to make orders for financial provision and property adjustment.
12. The new section 29AI applies certain provisions of Part II of the MPPO to orders made under the new section 29AD or 29AG so that similar consequences apply as if the orders had been ancillary to divorce, etc. proceedings in Hong Kong.
13. The new sections 29AJ and 29AK contain anti-avoidance provisions to counter dealings which are intended to prevent applications for financial relief or which reduce such a relief, or which in any way interfere with the enforcement of orders for relief. The new section 29AJ applies if leave to apply has been given under the new section 29AC. The new section 29AK applies if the applicant is not yet able to satisfy any of the jurisdictional criteria for obtaining leave to apply for an order for financial relief.

14. The new section 29AL preserves the power of the High Court to grant interlocutory injunctions under section 21L(1) or 21M(1) of the High Court Ordinance (Cap. 4).

15. Clause 4 amends section 32 of the MPPO to transfer to the Chief Judge the rule-making power of the Chief Justice under that section, and to give more powers to the Chief Judge to make rules of court.

Part 3—Related and Consequential Amendments

16. Clause 5 amends Order 1, rule 2(2) of the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A) so that those Rules do not apply to matrimonial proceedings that may be made under section 32 of the MPPO except to the extent that those Rules are applied by any other rules made in relation to those proceedings. Under rule 3 of the Matrimonial Causes Rules (Cap. 179 sub. leg. A) as amended by clause 10, the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A) apply to the practice and procedure in relation to those proceedings.

17. Clauses 6, 8 and 9 amend certain sections of the Matrimonial Causes Ordinance (Cap. 179) to replace the references to “country” with “place” so that those sections apply to divorces or legal separations obtained in any place outside Hong Kong. Clause 7 repeals section 56(3) of that Ordinance because the references to “country” have been replaced with “place” in section 56(1) and (2) of that Ordinance.

18. Clause 10 extends the definition of “matrimonial proceedings” in rule 2(2) of the Matrimonial Causes Rules (Cap. 179 sub. leg. A) so that references to matrimonial proceedings in the Rules include also proceedings with respect to which rules may be made under section 32 of the MPPO.

19. Clauses 11 and 13 replace the references to “country” in rules 40(1) and 109(3) of the Matrimonial Causes Rules (Cap. 179 sub. leg. A) with “place”.

20. Clause 12 adds 5 new rules to the Matrimonial Causes Rules (Cap. 179 sub. leg. A). The new rules set out the procedure relating to various applications made under the new Part IIA of the MPPO. Clause 14 prescribes the forms to be used in relation to those applications.

21. Clause 15 extends the definition of “former wife” or “former husband” in section 2(1) of the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependants) Ordinance (Cap. 481) to include a marriage dissolved or annulled in any place outside Hong Kong.

22. Clause 16 adds a new section to the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependants) Ordinance (Cap. 481). The section provides that the court may, on making an order under section 29AG of the MPPO, order that a party to the marriage be barred, on the death of the other party, from making an application for financial provision from the deceased’s estate.
