LegCo Members to visit Shanghai Expo tomorrow

*****

The President of the Legislative Council (LegCo), Hon Jasper TSANG Yok-sing, will lead a LegCo Delegation to conduct a three-day visit tomorrow (May 8) to the World Exposition 2010 Shanghai China (Shanghai Expo). The Delegation will first proceed to Guangzhou and take the Express Rail Link from Guangzhou to Wuhan, and then take the flight from Wuhan to Shanghai. While visiting the Shanghai Expo, the Delegation will tour the China Pavilion, the Hong Kong (HK) Pavilion, the Theme Pavilions, Pavilions of some other countries, and the Urban Best Practices Area (UBPA).

Mr TSANG hoped that through the visit, LegCo Members could gain a first-hand experience of the Shanghai Expo. They would also observe the HK Pavilion and the HK UBPA, both of which were approved funding by the LegCo Finance Committee. He said that Members would also take this opportunity to experience the operation of the Express Rail Link from Guangzhou to Wuhan and receive a briefing from the Mainland railway experts on the operation of the Express Rail Link. He believed that this would help Members understand more about the development and planning of railway on the Mainland.

The Delegation will depart for Nansha and Guangzhou tomorrow morning and then take the Express Rail Link to Wuhan after arriving in Guangzhou. During the journey, experts from the Ministry of Railways will brief Members on the operation of the Express Rail Link and its latest development on the Mainland. Members will take a flight from Wuhan to Shanghai in the evening.

On May 9, the Delegation will proceed to the Shanghai Expo and visit the China Pavilion, the HK Pavilion and the Theme Pavilions, as well as Pavilions of other countries, including the Japan Pavilion, the Saudi Arabia Pavilion and the African Joint Pavilion.
