新聞稿 Press Release

Artwork proposals for new Legislative Council Complex short-listed (with photos)

With the aim to enhancing the aesthetic appeal of the built environment of the new Legislative Council (LegCo) Complex and supporting the cultural life of Hong Kong city and the public, the LegCo Commission intends to commission four artworks for four selected locations at the LegCo Complex through an exercise of Open Call for Artwork Proposals launched in April 2010, with a total commissioning fee up to HK$6.3 millions. The Open Call exercise ended on June 28, and more than 180 preliminary proposals were received.

The first stage of adjudication of the submitted artwork proposals has now been completed. The Adjudication Panel, members of which were appointed by the Commission, assessed a total of 181 preliminary proposals submitted by 110 participants (individual/ team): 55 proposals for Location 1; 45 for Location 2; 35 for Location 3; 46 for Location 4. A total of 12 proposals for the four locations were short-listed, with 3 proposals for each location. The short-listed participants will proceed to developing and submitting detailed design proposals for the second stage adjudication in October 2010 for final selection.
