青年民建聯 陳威雄書面意見

1 Nomination requirement: gov propose 15 district council... minimum requirement should be set btw 10 and 20... why high restriction? Total voting pop: 3.2mil... 50percent come out. Min vote require to be elected 300k.. Which is historical high! High nomination restriction is need in order to maintain a good quality of candidates! Small party can co-operate with other party to acquire nominations... help to improve political environent in HK!

2 Saperate district: support the proposal to adopt proportional representative on Large constituency Why?

3 Budget: Hk 2.1m per set Hke/w 1.755m per set Nte/wq 2.6m per set Theroatically: large constituency should be 10mil My line: 5-6mil... Why not more? To promote fair election on capability vs capital... We don't want to involve in black gold politics

4 reimbursement on vote: if you got 5percent vote. One vote sub increase to 12 dollar or half of the budget... Which is lower...We don't have objection...Some small party may ask for 70percent and 15 dollar but that is tax payer money!
