12. Review of the "abscondee" regime under the Bankruptcy Ordinance (Cap.6) (BO)

During the Bills Committee's deliberation of the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Bill 2007, the Administration advised Members of its plan to review the "abscondee" regime (i.e. bankrupts who left Hong Kong and could not be contacted) under the Bankruptcy Ordinance (Cap.6) (BO). The Administration further advised that taking into account the policy content involved in the review, and the fact that more time would be needed to study the issue and conduct necessary research into relevant developments in other common law jurisdictions and consultations, it was not appropriate or possible to include legislative amendment proposals with respect to the "abscondee" regime as a whole in the Bill. Any proposed legislative amendments to the "abscondee" regime should be taken forward in a separate exercise.

To be deferred to the next LegCo term

Members of the Bills Committee were concerned about the timeframe for introducing the proposed legislative amendments to the "abscondee" regime and whether public consultation would be conducted. The Bills Committee agreed that the issues should be referred to the Panel for follow-up.

Proposed timing for discussion at Panel meeting

The Administration has reconsidered the timing for conducting a review of the "abscondee" regime. Noting that following the Court of Final Appeal's ruling on the legal effect of section 30A(10)(b)(i) of the BO, the Official Receiver's Office ("ORO") has been operating the abscondee regime on that basis without encountering any practical or operational difficulties, there is no immediate need for changes to the operation of the abscondee regime. Nevertheless, the Administration recognizes that it would be desirable to review the subject taking into account prevailing overseas practices / legislation, technological advances and lifestyle changes which may need to be considered in the administration of a bankrupt's estate with a view to modernizing our abscondee regime.

The Administration intends to commence a detailed research on overseas practices within 2011 in preparation for a review of the abscondee regime. It will take into account Government's legislative programme and other competing priorities of the Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau in considering the timing to pursue any legislative programme. It intends to report developments to the Panel in the next term of LegCo.
