Administration advised that it planned to launch the proposed review of the suspicious transaction reporting requirements in the first quarter of 2005.

Progress reports provided by the Administration were circulated to members vide LC Paper Nos. CB(2)875/04-05, CB(2)751/05-06 and CB(2)973/05-06 on 16 February 2005, 23 December 2005 and 25 January 2006 respectively.

The review of the suspicious transaction reporting requirements was launched in the first quarter of 2005 and is still underway. The Administration will inform the Panel of the result of the review in the course of the preparation of the legislation for implementing the FATF Recommendations.

The Administration briefed the Panel on the proposed rules of court and code of practice to be made for the United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Ordinance (Cap. 575) at the Panel meeting on 2 December 2008.

The Rules of the High Court (Amendment) Rules 2009 ("the Rules") which sought to add a new Order 117A to the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A) setting out the procedures for applications to the Court of First Instance for specification of persons and property as terrorists, terrorist associates or terrorist property, forfeiture of terrorist property, and production of information and material etc. were published in the Gazette on 9 October 2009. A subcommittee formed to scrutinize the Rules had completed its work. The Rules will come into operation on the day to be appointed by S for S for the commencement of sections 5, 6, 8, 13, 17 and 18 of Cap. 575 and of sections 5, 7, 12, 13, 16 and 17 of the United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) (Amendment) Ordinance 2004.

In February 2010, S for S gave notice to move a resolution seeking the Council's approval of the Code of Practice for requiring persons to furnish information or produce material under section 12A of Cap. 575 ("the Code"). A subcommittee formed to study the Code had completed its work. In response to the Subcommittee's requests, the Administration agreed to make amendments to the Code. The proposed resolution to pass the Code as revised was passed at the Council meeting on 7 July 2010.

2. Follow-up on issues relating to the Police's List of Recordable Offences

Issues relating to the Police's List of Recordable Offences and Certificate of No Criminal Conviction were discussed at the meeting on 2 April 2004. Members were concerned that besides some 167 recordable offences which might be recordable by the Police, offences where a heavier sentence would be imposed on conviction would also be recorded. They considered that the criteria for recording a conviction should be set out clearly and the records of convictions maintained by the Police should be separated from the system for issuing Certificate of No Criminal Conviction. The Administration stated that it would examine the issue having regard to the practice in other countries. Hon James TO proposed that the matter be followed up by the Panel.
