Motion on “Calling upon persons intending to run in the Chief Executive Election to respond to people’s aspirations”
to be moved by Hon Alan LEONG Kah-kit at the Council meeting of 19 October 2011

Wording of the Motion

That, given that the Chief Executive Election is approaching, but only the 1 200 members of the Election Committee have the right to vote, this Council calls upon those persons who intend to run in the next Chief Executive Election to put forward specific propositions on safeguarding Hong Kong people’s core values, and actively respond to the aspirations of the seven million people; the relevant propositions must include:

- (a) respecting human rights, improving people’s livelihood, defending people’s long-term interests and making actual efforts to resolve the deep-rooted conflicts in society;
- (b) persevering in the realization of a democratic political system and abolishing the functional constituency seats as well as the separate voting arrangement in the Legislative Council in 2016;
- (c) protecting freedom of the press and of speech, and undertaking not to enact legislation to implement Article 23 of the Basic Law before the full implementation of genuine universal suffrage; and
- (d) upholding the spirit of the rule of law and defending judicial independence, so as to fully implement Article 35 of the Basic Law.
