Ms Amy Yu
Clerk to Panel on Education
Legislative Council Complex
1 Legislative Council Road
Central, Hong Kong

Dear Ms Yu,

Legislative Council Panel on Education
Follow-up to meeting on 11 June 2012

Use and Disposal of Vacant School Premises

Following the discussion at the meeting on 11 June 2012 on the paper on “Use and Disposal of Vacant School Premises”, the Panel on Education wrote on 13 June 2012 requesting for supplementary information on the names, locations and the current/proposed use of the vacant premises of primary and secondary schools which have ceased operation since 2003. Relevant information is provided as follows.

Under the policy on “Consolidation of Under-utilized Primary Schools”, a total of 86 public sector primary schools ceased operation in the school years from 2003/04 to 2011/12 for not meeting the minimum threshold number of Primary One students. During the same period, 15 secondary schools of different school types ceased operation due to various reasons and one secondary school merged with another school. Among these 102 school premises that have become vacant as at early June 2012, 39 of them have already been deployed or re-allocated for further educational uses (see Annex 1). As for the other 63 premises, 14 of them have been earmarked for further educational uses (see Annex 2) and action is underway to put the premises into operation in accordance with the earmarked uses. The remaining 49 premises have been found not suitable for educational purpose mainly due to their limited size and remote locations. This Bureau has informed the Planning Department and returned these 49 premises as listed at Annex 3 to the Government for consideration for disposal to meet other development needs.

Yours sincerely,

( Wendy Chung )
for Secretary for Education
