Members of the LegCo Panel on Home Affairs visit Yau Ma Tei Theatre (with photos)

Members of the Legislative Council Panel on Home Affairs today (April 27) visited the Yau Ma Tei Theatre with the representatives of the Administration to know more about the facilities of the Theatre which has been converted into a performing arts venue designated for promoting Chinese opera activities. Panel Chairman Hon IP Kwok-him (second from right), and Panel members Hon Timothy FOK Tsun-ting (first from right), Prof Hon Patrick LAU Sau-shing (second from left) and Dr Hon LAM Tai-fai (third from left) take photos in the auditorium.

Members tour the dressing room of the Theatre.

Members visit the Red Brick Building which locates near the Yau Mei Tei Theatre and has been classified as a Grade 1 historical building by the Antiquities Advisory Board. Members and representatives of the Administration pose in front of the Building.
