Additional Information on Declaration of Interest

Submitted by: Stanley Yip

I am providing the following information as declaration in case any of these issues would constitute conflicts of interest. The advise from the Competition Co-ordinator would be appreciated.

1. My current employment requires me to discuss with property developers in Hong Kong and Mainland China on potential business partnership or the provision of information technology and telecommunication services. I do not currently possess any information on if any of these companies have entered into the competition.
2. My current employment requires me to work with planners, engineers and architects in Hong Kong and Mainland China on projects related to information technology and telecommunication for property development projects. I do not currently possess any information on if any of these companies have entered into the competition.
3. My employer, Pacific Century CyberWorks Ltd has business activities internationally and also owns and manages its own real estate projects in various parts of Asia. I do not currently possess any information on if any of PCCW's consultants (such as architects and planners) has entered into the competition.
