Add

“Part III

Interpretation Provisions

1. In this Schedule—
- personal insurance (個人保險) means an insurance that is taken out by an individual and under which an individual is the insured person, but does not include any such insurance the sole or predominant purpose of which is for any one or more of the following—
- (a) business or commercial insurance;
- (b) industrial insurance;
- (c) investment;
- residential property (住宅物業) means an immovable property (whether completed or uncompleted) constituting a separate unit constructed or intended to be constructed for residential use.
2. For the purposes of paragraph 7(a) of Part I of this Schedule, a residential property is a first-hand property if no agreement for sale and purchase has ever been entered into in respect of the property.
3. For the purposes of paragraph 2 of this Part, in determining whether an agreement for sale and purchase has been entered into in respect of a residential property, paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 of this Part apply.
4. If an agreement for sale and purchase has been entered into in respect of a residential property and the agreement has been terminated or has been declared void by a court in relation to that property, the agreement is not to be regarded as having been entered into in respect of that property.

5. If—

- (a) a development, housing estate or phase of a development or housing estate has more than one residential property (whether or not the development, housing estate or phase is completed); and
- (b) all the residential properties in that development, housing estate or phase are sold, or agreed to be sold, to any person under a single agreement for sale and purchase, the agreement is not to be regarded as having been entered into in respect of any of those properties in that development, housing estate or phase (as the case requires).

6. If, in any case—

- (a) a building has more than one residential property (whether or not the building is completed); and
- (b) all the residential properties of the building are sold, or agreed to be sold, to any person under a single agreement for sale and purchase, the agreement is not to be regarded as having been entered into in respect of any of those properties.

7. To avoid doubt, in determining whether a residential property is a first-hand property, the agreement for sale and purchase that is the subject of the claim or that relates to the sale giving rise to the claim is not to be taken into account.”
