

Dear Sir/ Madam,

The following is the recommendation of Practising Estate Doctors Association (PEDA) on the issue of Healthcare Intermediary:

A healthcare intermediary should be regulated and controlled by legislation. He or she should inform the medical profession whether:

1. He or she has become subject to an adverse finding, whether past or pending, by a regulatory, trade, professional, public, industry or consumer body, or by any tax or government authority
2. He or she has been the subject of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings
3. He or she had refused, suspended, withdrawn, or made subject to a non standard conditions or restrictions any licence, permission or authorisation to do business
4. He or she has been a defendant in any civil proceedings, or party to any arbitration in relation to any financial business or the subject of any criminal proceedings
5. He or she has ceased trading in circumstances in which one or more of his/her creditors did not receive full payment
6. He or she has been disqualified from acting as director of a company, or from acting on the Management or conduct of affairs of any company, partnership or unincorporated association
7. He or she has been charged with any offence involving violence, fraud, or other dishonesty
8. He or she had an application to represent an insurance office refused, or a previous agency cancelled

Thank you for your attention.

Very best wishes,

Dr Aaron LEE Fook Kay
