1. Expansion and renovation of the Hong Kong Museum of Art

The Administration plans to seek members' support for the proposal to expand and renovate the facilities of the Hong Kong Museum of Art. The proposal will be submitted to the Public Works Subcommittee for consideration at its meeting on 4 June 2014.

May 2014

2. Government's policy and measures on street performance

At the suggestion of Dr Hon Kenneth CHAN, members agreed at the Panel meeting on 12 July 2013 that the subject matter be discussed at a future meeting. At the Panel meeting on 10 October 2013, Dr CHAN expressed a wish that the Panel would schedule the discussion of this subject within the 2013-2014 session.

May 2014

On 1 November 2013, a referral memorandum from the Clerk to the Panel on Environmental Affairs ("EA Panel") concerning a joint letter dated 6 June 2013 from Hon KWOK Wai-keung and Hon TANG Ka-piu was issued to members [LC Paper No. CB(2)200/13-14(01)]. In the letter, the two non-Panel Members expressed concern about the control over noise of street performances as well as its impact on such activities. Members noted the view of the Chairman of the EA Panel that the issues raised by these two Members should more appropriately be dealt with in the wider context of the Government's policy on street performance, which is under the purview of this Panel.

At the Panel meeting on 13 December 2013, Hon Claudia MO noted from the Administration's response to her letter under the management of the Leisure and Cultural Services Department

The Administration plans to brief members on the provision of stage facilities at performance venues under the management of the Leisure and Cultural Services Department.

June 2014

6. Review of the Building Management Ordinance

The Review Committee on the Building Management Ordinance is reviewing various building management issues with a view to making recommendations to the Administration on how to resolve the common building management problems. The Administration plans to consult the Panel on the proposed amendments to the Building Management Ordinance (Cap. 344).

3rd quarter of 2014

At the informal meeting between the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Panel and the Secretary for Home Affairs to discuss the Panel's work plan for the 2013-2014 session on 21 October 2013, the Administration agreed that item 15 concerning matters relating to building management could be discussed together with this item.

7. Monitoring of Private Recreational Leases ("PRLs")

At the Panel meeting on 14 June 2013, the Administration briefed members on its progress in renewing PRLs and measures to be taken for the monitoring of facilities that operated under such leases. The Panel passed a motion urging the Government to establish a monitoring and vetting mechanism for the approval and renewal of lands leased under PRLs and to further open up such lands for use by the public, so as to safeguard public interests.

3rd quarter of 2014

On 12 July 2013, members discussed a proposal referred by the Panel on Development ("DEV Panel") to consider forming a joint subcommittee by the two Panels to monitor and review government policies relating to the grant of land under PRLs and to study related issues. After deliberations, members considered it not necessary to form a joint subcommittee to monitor and review the policy on PRLs. Members in general considered that this Panel should continue to follow up matters relating to PRLs with the Administration by requesting the latter to report to the Panel regularly on the progress of the renewal of PRLs as well as the monitoring of facilities that operated under such leases. When the matter was discussed by the Panel in future, members of the DEV Panel would be invited to join the discussion.

At the meeting on 10 October 2013, Dr Hon CHIANG Lai-wan requested that the Administration should report on its follow-up actions on the motion passed by the Panel at its meeting on 14 June 2013 when the subject is discussed by the Panel.

8. Signature project of Wong Tai Sin District Council

The Administration plans to brief members on the proposal of Wong Tai Sin District Council in expanding the area and improving the facilities of Wong Tai Sin Square.

11. Implementation of the new betting duty structure for local bets on non-local races under the Betting Duty (Amendment) Ordinance 2013

During the scrutiny of the Betting Duty (Amendment) Bill 2013, Hon Christopher CHUNG suggested that the Administration should consider reviewing, before expiry of the proposed three-year guarantee period, the proposal of charging a flat betting duty rate at 72.5% as well as the Hong Kong Jockey Club's liability to pay a betting duty of no less than $175 million per year (i.e. the guaranteed amount) for three years (i.e. the guaranteed period) after implementation of the new betting duty structure for local bets on non-local races. There was another suggestion that the Administration's provision of a report on the progress of the implementation of the Bill to the Panel during the three-year guarantee period would be acceptable (see paragraphs 27 to 29 of the Report of the Bills Committee on Betting Duty (Amendment) Bill 2013 [LC Paper No. CB(2)1469/12-13]).

To be confirmed

The Administration subsequently advised the relevant Bills Committee that upon implementation of the new betting duty structure, the Administration would monitor the turnover of local bets on non-local races as well as the amount of net stake receipts and betting duty receipts so generated for each racing season. It would report the matter to this Panel as and when appropriate [LC Paper No. CB(2)1383/12-13(01)].

12. Review of District Councils

In his letter dated 20 May 2013 [LC Paper No.

Chi-wai said that when the Administration briefed the Panel on various building management initiatives implemented by the Home Affairs Department ("HAD") in recent years at the meeting on 28 May 2013, many members had expressed concern about the manpower situation of Liaison Officers engaged in building management duties in HAD Headquarters and the District Building Management Liaison Teams in 18 districts. He suggested that the Panel should follow up on this matter.

At the informal meeting on 21 October 2013, the Administration agreed that this item could be discussed together with item 6 above.

16. Issues concerning the removal of some persons from the Golden Bauhinia Square during the National Day Flag Raising Ceremony

In their joint letter addressed to the Chairmen of the Panel on Home Affairs and the Panel on Security ("SE Panel") dated 7 October 2013 [LC Paper No. CB(2)23/13-14(01)], Dr Hon Kenneth CHAN and Hon Dennis KWOK (a non-Panel member) expressed concern about recent media reports on the removal of some persons from the Golden Bauhinia Square in Wan Chai on 1 October 2013 during the National Day Flag Raising Ceremony. They requested that a joint meeting of the two Panels be held to discuss the matter, as it straddled the policy areas of the two Panels.

To be confirmed

The SE Panel has briefly discussed the joint letter at its meeting on 10 October 2013. Subsequent to the said meeting, Hon IP Kwok-him wrote, in his capacity as Chairman of the SE Panel, to the Panel Chairman on 11 October 2013 referring the matter to this Panel for follow-up as the National Day Flag Raising Ceremony was co-ordinated by HAD. At the instruction of the Panel Chairman, the subject matter is included in the list of outstanding items for discussion and the Administration has been requested to provide a written response to the issues raised in Dr CHAN's and Mr KWOK's joint letter.

The Administration's response to the joint letter of Dr CHAN and Mr KWOK was circulated to members on 1 November 2013 [LC Paper No. CB(2)202/13-14(01)].

17. Community development services

At the meeting on 13 November 2009, Hon CHEUNG Kwok-che suggested that the provision of community development services, in particular those services provided by HAD in collaboration with the welfare sector, should be discussed.

To be confirmed

18. Review of Places of Public Entertainment Ordinance

At the request of the Subcommittee on Places of Public Entertainment (Exemption) (Amendment) Order 2011, the Administration undertook to convey members' concern and suggestions on reviewing the Places of Public Entertainment Ordinance (Cap. 172) ("PPEO"), including narrowing down the scope of "public entertainment" and "place of public entertainment" therein, to the relevant policy bureaux for consideration. The Subcommittee agreed that issues relating to the review of PPEO should be referred to the Panel for follow-up. Members' views and the Administration's response on the subject were detailed in paragraphs 27 and 28 of the Subcommittee's report [LC Paper No. CB(2)1152/11-12].

To be confirmed

At the Panel meeting on 10 October 2013, Hon Cyd HO advised that according to a recent ruling of the Court of Appeal, dance performance in the pedestrian precinct did not trigger the licensing requirements under PPEO. She suggested that the Panel should follow up on issues arising from the court judgment when the review of PPEO was discussed.

for discussion

19. Development of football in Hong Kong

At the meeting on 10 January 2014, members noted the two letters respectively from Dr Hon Helena WONG and Dr Hon Kenneth CHAN, expressing concerns about incidents of suspected "match fixing" in matches of the Hong Kong soccer league [LC Paper Nos. CB(2)617/13-14(01) and (02)].

To be confirmed

Dr CHAN considered it necessary for the Administration to update members on Hong Kong Football Association's implementation of "Project Phoenix", a project funded by HAB to help bring about a renaissance of Hong Kong football, and the Administration's next course of action having regard to the effectiveness of the said project. Members agreed that the Panel should discuss the development of football in Hong Kong at a future meeting. Dr CHAN subsequently suggested that when the item was discussed by the Panel, deputations should be invited to give views on the subject.

20. Matters relating to the participation of the Hong Kong, China delegation in large-scale international multi-sport games

At the Panel meeting on 24 March 2014, members noted the Administration's responses [LC Paper Nos. CB(2)996/13-14(01) and CB(2)1110/13-14(01)] to the three letters from Dr Hon Kenneth CHAN and Hon CHAN Chi-chuen [LC Paper Nos. CB(2)868/13-14(01) & (02) and CB(2)970/13-14(01)] regarding the Hong Kong, China Delegation to the 2014 Sochi Olympic Winter Games. Members agreed that matters relating to the participation of the Hong Kong, China delegation in large-scale international multi-sport games as well as the authority of the Sports Federation & Olympic Committee of Hong Kong, China to determine the composition of the

Hong Kong, China delegation to these games should be discussed at a future meeting.

Members also agreed that to facilitate members' discussion, the Research Office of the Legislative Council Secretariat should be requested to conduct a research study on the institutional structure and governance of the National Olympic Committees ("NOCs") in selected places as well as that of their national sports associations ("NSAs"). The research study should also look into the role of these countries' government in monitoring the operation of NOCs/NSAs and promoting elite sports development. The Panel's endorsement of the proposed research outline will be sought in due time.

21. Government's policy on youth development

At the Panel meeting on 24 March 2014, the Administration briefed members on the Government's policy on youth development. Some members considered that the foci of the Administration's paper were mainly on the $100 million Scholarship Scheme (a new initiative announced in the Chief Executive's 2014 Policy Address) for fostering a culture of multi-faceted excellence and the outcome of the Administration's review on the operation and positioning of the Youth Square. Members agreed that the Panel should further discuss with the Administration the Government's overall objectives and strategies for youth development and the concerted efforts of various bureaux/departments in youth development work.
