(4) The Requested Party may refuse assistance if the request relates to an offence which is punishable according to the law of the Requesting Party with life imprisonment or carries a prison sentence of undetermined duration, unless the Requesting Party gives such assurance as the Requested Party considers sufficient that these penalties will not be imposed, or if imposed, will not be carried out.

(5) The Requested Party may refuse assistance if the Requesting Party cannot comply with any conditions in relation to confidentiality or limitation as to the use of material provided.

(6) The Requested Party may postpone assistance if execution of the request would interfere with an ongoing investigation or prosecution in the Requested Party.

(7) Before denying or postponing assistance pursuant to this Article, the Requested Party, through its Central Authority—

- (a) shall promptly inform the Requesting Party of the reason for considering denial or postponement; and
- (b) shall consult with the Requesting Party to determine whether assistance may be given subject to such terms and conditions as the Requested Party deems necessary.
