Dear Hon CHAN,

Examination of Estimates of Expenditure 2015-16
(Question Serial No: R122)

I refer to the above question which you raised during the examination of the estimates of expenditure for 2015-16 regarding Lei Muk Shue Estate.

The expenditure for the cover installed for the zebra crossing to the bus terminus at Lei Muk Shue Estate was about $2.6 million which was charged to the Hong Kong Housing Authority (HA)'s account. Implementation of improvement works is part of the routine duties of various estates of HA. Hence, the Housing Department (HD) does not maintain a breakdown on the manpower establishment in respect of this duty.

HA maintains a sustainable public rental housing stock through proactive improvement programmes. Improvement works will be carried out in Lei Muk Shu Estate in accordance with various requirements and needs. As stated above, the expenditure for improvement works is charged to HA's account. HD does not maintain a breakdown on the manpower establishment in respect of this duty.

Yours sincerely,

(Original Signed)
