Dear Ms Chung,

PWSC(2014-2015)52

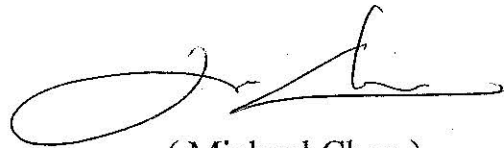

Block Allocation under the Capital Works Reserve Fund for 2015-16

Further to our letter dated 24 February 2015 on the above, we would like to supplement by providing the latest position, as set out below, on the Cottage Houses Option to which villagers of Chuk Yuen Village affected by the Liantang/Heung Yuen Wai Boundary Control Point project are eligible subject to meeting the specified criteria -

- (a) the applications for land exchange for building cottage houses of 24 households have been approved by District Lands Office/North (DLO/N), and construction works of 18 of them have started. The construction works of the remaining 6 will start in due course. The relevant government departments will continue to provide assistance to these households to facilitate the construction of their cottage houses as far as practicable;

- (b) 4 households have recently submitted land exchange applications which are being processed by DLO/N; and
- (c) DLO/N is awaiting the land exchange applications from the other 10 households. According to information provided by these households, they are either looking for suitable land or in the course of preparing necessary supporting documents for their applications.

Yours sincerely,

(Michael Chan)

for Secretary for Development
