As advised by the CSB, the Constitutional and Mainland Affairs Bureau ("CMAB") should be the major policy bureau to approach regarding the employment of ethnic minorities by Government-funded public bodies. In the light of this, the Secretariat wrote to the CMAB on four occasions on 28 February, 19 March, 6 June and 21 August 2014 requesting it to provide information on details of policies and measures adopted by Government-funded public bodies with regard to the employment of ethnic minorities and statistics on the number of ethnic minorities employed by these bodies.

13. Proposed amendments to subsidiary legislation on discipline made under Discipline Services Ordinances

Amendments to Customs and Excise Service Ordinance (Cap. 342), Fire Services Ordinance (Cap. 95), Government Flying Service Ordinance (Cap. 322), Immigration Service Ordinance (Cap. 331), Police Force Ordinance (Cap. 232), and Prisons Ordinance (Cap. 234), and rules and regulations made under such Ordinances and the Traffic Wardens (Discipline) Regulation ((Cap. 374 sub. leg. J) (L.N. 58 to L.N. 63 of 2012), gazetted on 27 April 2012 and tabled at the Legislative Council ("LegCo") on 2 May 2012, sought to, amongst others, allow an accused of the relevant disciplined service charged with a disciplinary offence to apply for, subject to the approval of the concerned disciplinary authority, representation at his/her disciplinary hearing by a barrister or by another person.

April – July

The Subcommittee formed by the House Committee on 4 May 2012 to scrutinize these amendments found it not feasible to complete the scrutiny of the amendment regulations/rules within the tight timeframe under the negative vetting procedure (even with the scrutiny period duly extended) before the end of the last legislative term, as the amendments entail important policy, legal and drafting issues. Having considered the Subcommittee's views, the CSB advised that it would not bring the amendment regulations/rules into commencement. Despite the absence of statutory backing, the disciplined services departments would continue to process applications for legal representation administratively in accordance with the fairness requirements. The CSB also agreed to consult the management and staff sides of the disciplined services departments again on how to further refine the amendment regulations/rules and arrange to introduce the revised amendment regulations/rules into LegCo for the purpose of replacing the current ones at L.N. 58 to L.N. 63 of 2012.

The Subcommittee has no objection in principle to the arrangement proposed by the CSB. The Subcommittee proposed that the CSB should consult the Panel early on the draft version of the amendment regulations/rules. The Subcommittee also invited the Panel to consider setting up a subcommittee to study the draft amendment regulations/rules.
