Question:

Regarding Reply Serial No. ENB015, I enquired about the details of your Department's expenditures and estimated expenditure involved in the work of the wild pig hunting teams over the past 5 years and in 2016-17. However, it was only replied that the average expenditure involved in handling complaints against wild pigs over the past 5 years was $0.16 million. Would the Government also provide, as soon as possible, the details of the relevant estimated expenditure involved in 2016-17?

Asked by: Hon MO Claudia (Member Question No.)

Reply:

The Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department (AFCD)'s estimated expenditure involved in handling public complaints against wild pig nuisance in 2016-17 is $0.16 million. AFCD provides no funding support to maintain the hunting teams as their members are all volunteers.
