

The Proposal for the Lantau Development is quite comprehensive covering spatial planning and land use for housing, recreation and tourism purposes with the associated traffic and transport infrastructure to link up Lantau Island to NWNT and Metro Area.

It is expected lots of infrastructure projects will be launched to facilitate the development. The Government should well plan and launch these mega projects in a prescribed order, to avoid launch them in one go thus boosting up the tender price and over the budget.

Ko Chun Wa