at the Legislative Council meeting on 12 July 2017

Review of financial eligibility limits of legal aid applicants

President,

I move the Resolution standing in my name on the Agenda.

2. Legal aid services form an integral part of the legal system in Hong Kong. The policy objective of legal aid is to ensure that all those who comply with the regulations of the Legal Aid Ordinance (Cap. 91) (“LAO”) and have reasonable grounds for pursuing or defending a legal action in the courts of Hong Kong will not be denied access to justice due to a lack of means. To qualify for legal aid, a person is required to satisfy both the means test and merits test as provided by the LAO.

3. At present, a person whose financial resources do not exceed $290,380 is financially eligible for legal aid under the Ordinary Legal Aid Scheme (“OLAS”) which covers civil proceedings in the District Court or higher courts as set out in section 5 of the LAO. The same limit is also applicable to criminal legal aid. The financial eligibility limit (“FEL”) for the Supplementary Legal Aid Scheme (“SLAS”) is $1,451,900 as specified in section 5A of the LAO.

Review of financial eligibility limits

4. Pursuant to the Government’s report to the Legislative Council (“LegCo”) in September 1999, the Government will review the relevant limits annually to take into account general price movement and biennially to take into account changes in private litigation costs and other relevant factors.

5. The previous adjustment to the FELs was implemented in July 2015, reflecting the 7.7% increase in Consumer Price Index (C) (“CPI(C)”) for the period between July 2012 and July 2014. For the current review, we propose to increase the FELs under OLAS and SLAS by 4.0% to reflect the accumulated change in CPI(C) for the period of July 2014 to July 2016. I now propose moving the Resolution to increase the FEL under OLAS from $290,380 to $302,000, and the FEL under SLAS from $1,451,900 to $1,509,980, according to the recommended level of increase.

6. We have informed the Legal Aid Services Council, the Hong Kong Bar Association, the Law Society of Hong Kong and the Panel on Administration of Justice and Legal Services of the outcome of the current review.

Financial implications

7. The proposal to increase the FELs is estimated to incur an additional recurrent expenditure of around $1.4 million in a full year by the Legal Aid Department (LAD). LAD has included the necessary provisions in the 2017-18 Estimates to meet the costs of the proposal. The workload in effecting the changes to the FELs will be absorbed by LAD with its existing manpower resources.

8. Subject to the LegCo's approval of the Resolution, the adjusted FELs will come into effect upon gazettal. May I invite Members to support the Resolution. Thank you, Mr President.
