United Nations Sanctions Ordinance
(Chapter 537)

UNITED NATIONS SANCTIONS (CENTRAL AFRICAN REPUBLIC) REGULATION 2018

INTRODUCTION

A At the meeting of the Executive Council on 5 June 2018, the Council advised and the Chief Executive (“the CE”) ordered that the United Nations Sanctions (Central African Republic) Regulation 2018 (“the 2018 Regulation”), at Annex A, should be made under section 3 of the United Nations Sanctions Ordinance (Cap. 537) (“the Ordinance”). The 2018 Regulation was gazetted on 8 June 2018 and came into operation on the same day.

BACKGROUND

Obligation and Authority

B 2. Under section 3(1) of the Ordinance, the CE is required to make regulations to give effect to an instruction from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China (“MFA”) to implement sanctions decided by the Security Council of the United Nations (“UNSC”). In March 2018, the CE received an instruction from the MFA to implement UNSC Resolution (“UNSCR”) 2399 in respect of the Central African Republic in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“HKSAR”). The 2018 Regulation was made pursuant to the instruction. A document issued by the Chief Secretary for Administration confirming the MFA’s instruction is at Annex B.

Sanctions against the Central African Republic

3. Concerned with the continuing deterioration of the security situation in the Central African Republic and its consequences on the central African region and beyond, the UNSC has adopted several UNSCRs to impose or renew sanctions against the Central African Republic since 2013. The sanction measures include arms-related sanctions, financial sanctions and travel ban, which have been renewed by the UNSC on an annual basis.

4. Pursuant to the instructions of the MFA, the CE implemented these sanctions through making regulations under the Ordinance, the most recent one being the United Nations Sanctions (Central African Republic) Regulation 2017 (“the 2017 Regulation”), which expired at midnight on 31 January 2018.

UNSCR 2399

5. Determining that the situation in the Central African Republic continues to constitute a threat to international peace and security in the region, the UNSC adopted UNSCR 2399 (at Annex C) on 30 January 2018, which decided, inter alia, that –

- C
- (a) until 31 January 2019, all Member States shall continue to take the necessary measures to prevent the direct or indirect supply, sale or transfer to the Central African Republic, from or through their territories or by their nationals, or using their flag vessels or aircraft, of arms and related materiel of all types, including weapons and ammunition, military vehicles and equipment, paramilitary equipment, and spare parts for the aforementioned, and technical assistance, training, financial or other assistance, related to military activities or the provision, maintenance or use of any arms and related materiel, including the provision of armed mercenary personnel whether or not originating in their territories, subject to the exceptions set out in paragraph 1 of UNSCR 2399 (paragraph 1 of UNSCR 2399 refers);

- (b) all Member States shall, upon discovery of items prohibited by paragraph 1 of UNSCR 2399, seize, register and dispose (such as through destruction, rendering inoperable, storage or transferring to a State other than the originating or destination States for disposal) items the supply, sale, transfer or export of which is prohibited by paragraph 1 of UNSCR 2399 (paragraph 2 of UNSCR 2399 refers);
- (c) until 31 January 2019, all Member States shall continue to take the necessary measures to prevent the entry into or transit through their territories of individuals designated by the Committee established pursuant to paragraph 57 of UNSCR 2127 (the Committee), provided that nothing in this paragraph shall oblige a State to refuse its own nationals entry into its territory, and subject to the exceptions set out in paragraph 14 of UNSCR 2399 (paragraphs 9 and 14 of UNSCR 2399 refer); and
- (d) all Member States shall, until 31 January 2019, continue to freeze without delay all funds, other financial assets and economic resources within their territories, which are owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the individuals or entities designated by the Committee, or by individuals or entities acting on their behalf or at their direction, or by entities owned or controlled by them, and that all Member States shall continue to ensure that any funds, financial assets or economic resources are prevented from being made available by their nationals or by any individuals or entities within their territories, to or for the benefit of the individuals or entities designated by the Committee, subject to the exceptions set out in paragraphs 17, 18 and 19 of UNSCR 2399 (paragraphs 16, 17, 18 and 19 of UNSCR 2399 refer).

THE 2018 REGULATION

Recalling that the CAR bears the primary responsibility to protect all populations within its territory from genocide, war crimes, ethnic cleansing and crimes against humanity,

Expressing concern at the deterioration of the security situation, in particular in the south-eastern part and the north-western part of the CAR, due to the ongoing clashes between armed groups and other armed spoilers in their attempts to forcefully gain control of territory and resources and destabilize the country, as well as the lack of capacity of the national security forces, the limited authority of the State over all of the CAR territory, and the persistence of the root causes of the conflict,

Emphasizing that any sustainable solution to the crisis in the CAR should be CAR-owned, including the political process, and should prioritize reconciliation of the Central African people, through an inclusive process that involves men and women of all social, economic, political, religious and ethnic backgrounds, including those displaced by the crisis,

Calling upon the CAR authorities to continue their efforts to implement transparent and inclusive measures that allow for stabilization and reconciliation in the CAR and restore the effective authority of the State over all of the territory of the CAR; to fight impunity by restoring administration of the judiciary and the criminal justice system, including the penitentiary system, throughout the country; to achieve the reform of the CAR Armed Forces (FACA) and internal security forces in order to put in place multi-ethnic, professional, and republican security services through appropriate security sector reform processes; to carry out the inclusive and effective disarmament, demobilization, reintegration and repatriation (DDRR) of armed groups, including children formerly associated with them and to prevent the re-recruitment of the latter; and to establish a functioning public financial management in order to meet the expenses related to the functioning of the State, implement early recovery plans, and revitalize the economy,

Welcoming the African Initiative for Peace and Reconciliation in the CAR that led to the adoption of the roadmap by the ministerial conference held in Libreville on 17 July 2017 by the CAR authorities, the African Union, the Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS), the International Conference on the Great Lakes region (ICGLR) with the support of Angola, Chad, Congo and Gabon, and reaffirming that this Initiative and this roadmap constitute the main framework for a political solution in the CAR, as agreed by CAR authorities and under their leadership,

Encouraging the CAR authorities, in collaboration with the United Nations Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA) and the European Union Training Mission in the CAR (EUTM-RCA), to provide equal opportunities for members of armed groups, whether anti-Balaka or ex-Séléka, in the process of selecting eligible demobilized members to integrate into the national security and defence forces, welcoming in this regard the launch of the DDRR pilot project, and further encouraging the CAR authorities to ensure that FACA soldiers of all prefectures enjoy equal access to the registration and simplified verification process,

Underlining the importance of rebuilding a multi-ethnic, republican and professional national army in the CAR, recognizing in this regard the work carried out by the EUTM-RCA, welcoming the support of other international and regional partners to the training of the national security and defence forces in support of the CAR authorities, and encouraging effective coordination with MINUSCA and EUTM-RCA,

Calling upon the CAR authorities to ensure that perpetrators of violations of applicable international law, including those committed against children and women, are excluded from the CAR security and armed forces, and further calling for support for the CAR government to develop a comprehensive strategy on sexual and gender-based violence to reduce overall levels of sexual violence,

Welcoming the commitment of the Secretary-General to enforce strictly his zero-tolerance policy on sexual exploitation and abuse (SEA), noting the various measures taken by MINUSCA and Troop- and Police-contributing countries to combat SEA, which has led to a reduction in reported cases, but still expressing grave concern over numerous allegations of SEA reportedly committed by peacekeepers in the CAR, as well as by non-United Nations forces, stressing the urgent need for Troop- and Police-contributing countries and, as appropriate, MINUSCA to promptly investigate those cases in a credible and transparent manner and to hold accountable those responsible for such criminal offences or misconduct, and further stressing the need to prevent such exploitation and abuse and to improve how these allegations are addressed in line with resolution 2272 \(2016\),

Welcoming the Secretary-General's Report of 16 October 2017 (S/2017/865) submitted pursuant to resolution 2301 \(2016\), and taking note of his letter dated 10 July 2017 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2017/597) pursuant to paragraph 29 of resolution 2339 \(2017\), expanded by resolution 2134 (2014) and extended pursuant to resolution 2339 (2017), and taking note of the Panel of Experts' recommendations,

Strongly condemning the ongoing violence and instability in the CAR, and the threats of violence, incitement to ethnic and religious hatred and violence, human rights violations and abuses and international humanitarian law violations, as well as sexual and gender-based violence, in particular against children, committed notably by both ex-Seleka and anti-Balaka elements and other armed groups; the attacks and incitement to violence against United Nations peacekeepers and humanitarian personnel; the continuous cycle of provocations and reprisals by armed groups, both inside and outside Bangui and denial of humanitarian access, committed by armed elements, which continue to adversely affect the dire humanitarian situation faced by the civilian population and to impede humanitarian access to vulnerable populations,

Stressing the urgent and imperative need to end impunity in the CAR and to bring to justice perpetrators of these acts, some of which may amount to crimes under the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC), to which the CAR is a State party, noting in this regard the opening by the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court on 24 September 2014 of an investigation following the request of the national authorities on alleged crimes committed since 2012, and welcoming the ongoing cooperation by the CAR authorities in this regard,

Stressing the importance of putting in place an effective national judicial system, underlining the need to bolster national accountability mechanisms, including through further implementation of the 7 August 2014 Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on Urgent Temporary Measures, welcoming in this regard the progressive operationalization of the Special Criminal Court (SCC) to investigate and prosecute serious crimes committed in the CAR, and recalling the importance of continuous support of the international community to this process pursued by the CAR authorities,

Emphasizing that those engaging in or providing support for acts that undermine the peace, stability or security of the CAR, threaten or impede the political stabilization and reconciliation process, target civilians and attack peacekeepers may meet criteria for designation under sanctions as stated in this resolution,

Expressing concern that illicit trafficking, trade, exploitation and smuggling of natural resources including gold, diamonds and wildlife has a negative impact in the economy and the development of the country, and that it continues to threaten the peace and stability of the CAR,

Recalling the Kimberley Process (KP) Administrative Decision on Resumption of Exports of Rough Diamonds from the CAR, its annexed Operational Framework, and the work of the KP Monitoring Team for CAR, and recognizing the need to strengthen the efforts of the CAR Authorities and the KP, to responsibly and progressively, through pre-established "compliant zones", reintegrate the CAR into the global diamond trade,

Noting with concern the findings of the Panel of Experts' final report that the Lord's Resistance Army (LRA) remains active in the south-eastern part of the CAR having carried out the killing and abduction of civilians, including children and women,

Further noting with concern the ongoing transnational criminal activity in the region, emphasizing the risk of the situation in the CAR providing a conducive environment for further transnational criminal activities, such as those involving arms trafficking and the use of mercenaries as well as a potential breeding ground for radical networks,

Acknowledging in this respect the important contribution the Council-mandated arms embargo can make to countering the illicit transfer of arms and related materiel in the CAR and its region, and in supporting post-conflict peacebuilding, DDRR and Security sector reform (SSR) processes, recalling its resolutions 2117 \(2013\), 2127 \(2013\), 2220 \(2015\), 2262 \(2016\) and 2339 \(2017\) and expressing grave concern at the threat to peace and security in the CAR arising from the illicit transfer, destabilizing accumulation and misuse of small arms and light weapons, and the use of such weapons against civilians affected by armed conflict,

Reiterating the importance of all Member States' full implementation of the measures set out in resolutions 2127 \(2013\), 2134 \(2014\), 2196 \(2015\), 2262 \(2016\), 2339 \(2017\) and this resolution, including the obligation to implement targeted sanctions against individuals and entities designated by the Sanctions Committee established pursuant to resolution 2127 \(2013\) (the Committee),

Noting the critical importance of effective implementation of the sanctions regime, including the key role that neighbouring States, as well as regional and subregional organizations, can play in this regard and encouraging efforts to further enhance cooperation and implementation of the sanctions regime in all its aspects,

Noting with concern the reports that sanctioned individuals are travelling in the region in violation of the travel ban, and underlining that individuals or entities who knowingly facilitate the travel of a sanctioned individual in violation of the travel ban may be determined by the Committee to have met the designation criteria for sanctions,

Further noting with concern the reports that funds, financial assets and economic resources of listed individuals and entities have still not been frozen, and underlining the obligation of Member States and CAR authorities to do so without further delays,

Welcoming efforts by the Chair of the Committee and the President of the Security Council to support and strengthen the implementation of the measures imposed pursuant to resolution 2339 \(2017\) through engagement with Member States, especially regional States,

United Nations Sanctions (Central African Republic) Regulation 2018

Information on the Central African Republic

Country Background

The Central African Republic is a landlocked country in Central Africa <sup>Note 1</sup>. It borders Chad in the north, Sudan in the northeast, South Sudan in the east, the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Republic of Congo in the south and Cameroon in the west. The Central African Republic achieved independence in 1960, with its capital in Bangui. It has a total area of 622,984 sq. km. and an estimated population of around 4.659 million in 2017 <sup>Note 2</sup>. Its GDP in 2016 was US$1.780 billion (or HK$13.82 billion) <sup>Note 3</sup>.

Sanctions imposed by the Security Council of the United Nations

2. Since independence of the Central African Republic in 1960, four presidents have been removed from power through unconstitutional means, and state authority has been weak in many parts of the country. Ethnic tensions in the north and the presence of the Lord's Resistance Army, an armed group known for its brutal tactics, have added to instability, which has crippled the country for decades and driven people away from their homes <sup>Note 4</sup>.

3. The country witnessed the latest turmoil in December 2012 when the Séléka rebel coalition launched a series of attacks, culminating in March 2013 when President François Bozizé was forced to flee. A transitional government, headed by the then Prime Minister Nicolas Tiangaye, has been entrusted with restoring law and order and paving the way for democratic elections. However, armed clashes in the north-eastern part of the country have increased since August 2013, and the country was facing a dire humanitarian situation that affected virtually the entire population.

4. With the deteriorating situation in the country characterised by a total breakdown of law and order and widespread human rights abuses, the Security Council of the United Nations ("UNSC") unanimously adopted resolution 2127 on 5 December 2013 authorising the African-led International Support Mission in the Central African Republic ("MISCA"), to quell the spiralling violence, as well as the deployment of French troops to assist it. The resolution also imposes a sanctions regime, including a year-long embargo banning the sale or transfer to the Central African Republic of weapons of all types.

<sup>Note 1</sup> At present, there is not a definite list of Belt and Road countries, but the Central African Republic is usually not regarded as one of the countries along the Belt and Road.

5. Determining that the situation in the Central African Republic continued to constitute a threat to international peace and security in the region, the UNSC expanded the sanctions against the Central African Republic, including a year-long travel ban and financial sanctions, via the adoption of resolution 2134 on 28 January 2014. The UNSC then extended the sanction measures on an annual basis for a few times. The sanction measures were most recently renewed by the UNSC until 31 January 2019, by the adoption of resolution 2399 on 30 January 2018.

Trade Relation between Hong Kong and the Central African Republic

6. In 2017, the Central African Republic ranked 181st among Hong Kong's trading partners in the world, with a total trade of HK$11 million. Of these, HK$10.2 million worth of trade were exports to the Central African Republic, and HK$0.8 million imports. Hong Kong's trade with the Central African Republic are summarised as follows –

Hong Kong's Trade with the Central African Republic <sup>Note 5</sup> [Value in HK$ (in million)]
Item	2017	2018 (January – March)
(a) Total Exports to the Central African Republic	10.2	1.2
(i) Domestic exports	0.3 <sup>Note 6</sup>	- <sup>Note 7</sup>
(ii) Re-exports	9.9 <sup>Note 8</sup>	1.2 <sup>Note 9</sup>
(b) Imports from the Central African Republic	0.8 <sup>Note 10</sup>	- <sup>Note 11</sup>
Total Trade [(a) + (b)]	11.0	1.2

In 2017, HK$10.4 million worth of goods, or 3.3% <sup>Note 12</sup> of the total trade between the Central African Republic and the Mainland, were routed through Hong Kong. Of these, HK$0.6 million worth of goods were re-exports of the Central African Republic origin to Mainland via Hong Kong. The remaining HK$9.9 million were re-exports of Mainland origin to the Central African Republic via Hong Kong.

<sup>Note 5</sup> Due to rounding of figures, the sub-items may not add up to the total.

<sup>Note 6</sup> In 2017, Hong Kong's major domestic export items to the Central African Republic was printed matter (99.0%).

<sup>Note 7</sup> In the first three month of 2018, there was no domestic export to the Central African Republic.

<sup>Note 8</sup> In 2017, Hong Kong's major re-export items to the Central African Republic were telecommunications and sound recording and reproducing apparatus and equipment (82.4%).

<sup>Note 9</sup> In the first three month of 2018, Hong Kong's major re-export items to Central African Republic was telecommunications and sound recording and reproducing apparatus and equipment (90.6%).

<sup>Note 10</sup> In 2017, Hong Kong's major import items from the Central African Republic were non-metallic mineral manufactures (89.3%).

<sup>Note 11</sup> In the first three month of 2018, there was no import from the Central African Republic.

<sup>Note 12</sup> The percentage is an estimate with reference to China's Customs Statistics and Hong Kong Trade Statistics. Since two different sets of data are involved, the calculated percentage is solely indicative.

7. The sanctions against the Central African Republic imposed by the UNSC would unlikely affect the trade between Hong Kong and the Central African Republic notably, as the major categories of commodities traded are not related to arms or related items. In addition, given the rather small trade volume between the two places, the sanctions against the Central African Republic imposed by the UNSC would unlikely have any significant effect on the Hong Kong economy.
