6. Public consultation on the proposed regulatory framework governing veterinary drug residues in food and food animals	December 2016/ January 2017

According to the Administration, it is considering measures to strengthen control over veterinary drug residues in food and food animals in order to enhance food safety and it plans to launch a public consultation on the proposed regulatory framework in due course.

At the meeting on 18 October 2016, the Chairman and Dr Hon Pierre CHAN considered that arrangements should be made by the Administration for early discussion of items relating to veterinary drug residues (i.e. items 5 and 6).

At the work plan meeting on 31 October 2016, the Administration agreed to provide an information paper on its work on these fronts by end of December 2016. Members will be invited to consider the need of discussing items 5 and 6 as a combined item (e.g. "Use of veterinary drugs in food animals and cultured fish and surveillance of veterinary drug residues in food and food animals" as previously suggested by the Administration) at a meeting, after the Administration's provision of the information paper.

the various issues raised therein, the Subcommittee specifically requested the Administration to consult the Panel on its proposals, if any, for rental adjustment mechanism for public market stalls in the first quarter of 2017 at the latest (paragraph 31 of the report refers).

In her letter dated 2 November 2015 (LC Paper No. CB(2)201/15-16(01)), Hon Alice MAK expressed concern about the lack of public markets in newly developed districts. Hon MAK considered that the Administration should comprehensively review its policy in respect of the planning and provision of public markets in Hong Kong and suggested that the matter be discussed by the Panel.

At the meeting on 18 October 2016, Hon Michael TIEN considered that the Administration should report to the Panel on its progress in following up the recommendations made in the Subcommittee's report. Hon Jeremy TAM considered that the Administration should also update members on its progress in following up the recommendations of the consultancy study on improving the operating environment of public markets. Hon Andrew WAN also expressed concern about the cessation of construction of public markets by the Administration.

On 20 October 2016, Hon Andrew WAN wrote to the Chairman requesting for discussion at the Panel meeting on 8 November 2016 of his proposal for setting up a subcommittee to study issues relating to public markets and bazaars. It was agreed in principle at the work plan meeting on 31 October 2016 that the subcommittee proposed by Hon WAN, if appointed, should take up relevant issues, including the provision and management of public markets. (Please refer to Hon WAN's letter dated 2 November 2016 (LC Paper No. CB(2)99/16-17(01)) for his revised proposal on setting up under the Panel a subcommittee on policy issues.)
