議案措辭

有國際研究顯示，全球46個國家及地區中，香港的功課時間第二高，研究亦發現，功課時間愈短，學生閱讀能力愈高。近年有很多學生及兒童亦表示功課壓力過重，應予以限制。本委員會促請教育局應為全港幼兒及小學生訂下最高功課量和時間的上限指引，並主動監察此等指引是否得以落實，還兒童健康成長的空間。

Wording of the Motion

(Translation)

According to an international study covering 46 countries and regions, Hong Kong school children spend the second-longest time on homework. The study also found that students who spend less time doing homework are better readers. In recent years, many students and children have also indicated that their homework burden is excessively heavy and the amount of homework should be limited. This Panel urges the Education Bureau to formulate guidelines to cap the homework load and homework hours of small children and primary students of Hong Kong as well as to actively monitor the implementation of such guidelines, so as to give back to children a healthy environment to grow up.
