ADAPTATION OF LAWS BILL 1998

INTRODUCTION

At the meeting of the Executive Council on 22 September 1998, the Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that the Adaptation of Laws Bill 1998, at the Annex, should be introduced into the Legislative Council, to effect necessary adaptations to 15 Ordinances relating to the treatment of offenders etc. and their subsidiary legislation.

BACKGROUND AND ARGUMENT

2. Article 160 of the Basic Law states that -

“Upon the establishment of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, the laws previously in force in Hong Kong shall be adopted as laws of the Region except for those which the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress declares to be in contravention of this Law. If any laws are later discovered to be in contravention of this Law, they shall be amended or cease to have force in accordance with the procedure as prescribed by this Law.”

Article 8 of the Basic Law states that -

“The laws previously in force in Hong Kong, that is, the common law, rules of equity, ordinances, subordinate legislation and customary law shall be maintained, except for any that contravenes this Law, and subject to any amendment by the legislature of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.”.

3. On 23 February 1997, the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress published a decision on the treatment of laws previously in force in Hong Kong. It provides, among other things, that apart from the 24 Hong Kong Ordinances that are declared not to be adopted in whole or in part, the existing Hong Kong laws are to be adopted as laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and these laws shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed in accordance with specified principles of interpretation. These interpretative principles are included in the Hong Kong Reunification Ordinance and are now incorporated as section 2A and Schedule 8 in the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance. However, although the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance laid down how terminology inconsistent with the Basic Law or with the status of Hong Kong as a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China is to be construed, it is considered unacceptable to retain such terminology in our laws. Accordingly, we now need to introduce further legislation to effect the necessary textual amendments.

THE BILL

4. The proposed amendments are merely terminological changes. References to “the Governor”, “the Crown”, “the Colonial Regulations”, “London” and “Secretary of State” etc. will be suitably amended.

COMMENCEMENT

5. The Bill provides that, subject to Article 12 of the Hong Kong Bill of Rights*, the adaptations when passed into law shall take effect retrospectively, as from the date of the establishment of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.

— * Note Article 12 of the Hong Kong Bill of Rights states that -

“(1) No one shall be held guilty of any criminal offence on account of any act or omission which did not constitute a criminal offence, under Hong Kong or international law, at the time when it was committed. Nor shall a heavier penalty be imposed than the one that was applicable at the time when the criminal offence was committed. If, subsequent to the commission of the offence, provision is made by law for the imposition of a lighter penalty, the offender shall benefit thereby.

(2) Nothing in this article shall prejudice the trial and punishment of any person for any act or omission which, at the time when it was committed, was criminal according to the general principles of law recognized by the community of nations.”

PUBLIC CONSULTATION

6. Since the amendments are essentially straightforward adaptations, consultation with the public is not considered necessary.

HUMAN RIGHTS IMPLICATIONS

7. There are no human rights implications arising from the Bill.

BINDING EFFECT

8. The amendments in the Bill do not affect the current binding effect of the existing provisions of various Ordinances covered by the Bill.

FINANCIAL AND STAFFING IMPLICATIONS

9. There are no financial or staffing implications arising from the Bill.

LEGISLATIVE TIMETABLE

10. The legislative timetable is -

Publication in the Gazette	30 September 1998
First Reading and commencement of Second Reading debate	14 October 1998
Resumption of Second Reading debate, committee stage and Third Reading	to be notified

PUBLICITY

11. A press release will be issued on 30 September 1998.
