

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL BRIEF

Lingnan University Bill

INTRODUCTION

At the meeting of the Executive Council on 1 June 1999, the Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that -

- (a) Lingnan College should be granted university status and should adopt a new internal governance structure; and
- (b) the Lingnan University Bill, at Annex A, should be introduced into the Legislative Council.

BACKGROUND AND ARGUMENT

Self-Accrediting Status

2. On 8 September 1998, the Executive Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that Lingnan College (LC) should assume the responsibility for accrediting its own degree courses, subject to the normal periodic external reviews of its teaching and learning quality processes and other quality assurance measures undertaken by the University Grants Committee (UGC). Details of the decision are set out in a Legislative Council brief sent to Members on 8 September 1998.

Pre-conditions for University Title

3. Under the existing policy, the granting of university title to any of the non-university institutions funded by the UGC should only follow when the following three conditions are met -

- (a) acceptance by the institution of the principle and terms of a differentiation of roles among UGC-funded institutions;
- (b) acceptance and implementation of a common basis of funding as applied to other UGC-funded universities; and

- (c) attainment of self-accrediting status.

4. Regarding 3(a) above, both the UGC and the Administration view the system of higher education as a whole and, as far as possible, seek to reconcile the aspirations of individual institutions with the needs of the community. The aim is to develop a system of higher education that has an appropriate balance between programmes at different levels and in different areas and in which the institutions make contributions to the community through the provision of trained manpower, research collaboration, consultancy and other means. LC aspires to become an internationally recognised liberal arts university with Hong Kong characteristics. Its role and mission, as agreed by LC and the UGC, are as follows:

- (a) offers first-degree courses in Arts, Business and Social Sciences;
- (b) provides a general education programme which seeks to offer all students a broad educational perspective;
- (c) may run a small number of higher degree programmes and has research work in some subject areas; and
- (d) maintains strong links with the community.

5. As regards paragraph 3(b) above, LC has been funded fully on par with other UGC-funded institutions, including the adoption of common (university) salary scale for academic and equivalent administrative staff since 1992. With the approval of the Executive Council, LC was awarded self-accrediting status in September 1998. Following the fulfillment of three pre-conditions in paragraph 3, LC has applied for the award of university title and status. Having considered the LC's proposal in detail, the UGC recommends, and we agree, that LC's proposal be endorsed. The Lingnan University Bill has been prepared to give effect to the change of LC's status. Major changes relating to the title, objects, chancellorship, internal governance structure and autonomy of the institution are outlined in the following paragraphs.

University Title

6. Following extensive consultation both within and outside the College, LC proposes that its title be changed to "Lingnan University" in English and "嶺南大學" in Chinese. These proposed new titles have incorporated the original titles of the College and do not conflict with the titles of existing UGC-funded institutions either linguistically or semantically.

Objects of the Proposed University

7. The existing objects of LC, as stipulated in the Lingnan College Ordinance, are to “provide for education, studies, training and research in arts, commerce, social sciences, science and other subjects of learning”. LC proposes that the objects of the proposed Lingnan University (LU) be extended to include providing education, studies, training and research in “humanities” so that the range of programmes provided by the institution can be more accurately reflected. The proposed change is also in line with the role and mission of LC as set out in paragraph 4 above.

Chancellorship

8. The Chief Executive is currently the titular head of LC, and will continue to hold such a post in the proposed LU. In line with the terminology adopted by most tertiary institutions, the titular head will be addressed as “Chancellor”.

New Internal Governance Structure

9. LC’s existing governance structure consists of a Board of Governors, a Council and an Academic Board. The Board of Governors is LC’s supreme governing body which is empowered to make appointments to key posts (including the President), and to amend and approve annual budget and estimates. It has a total of 40 members, of whom 18 are nominated by the Lingnan Education Organization Ltd^{Note}. The Council is LC’s executive body and is subject to the directions given by the Board of Governors. The Academic Board is the supreme academic body of the College.

10. To bring its internal governance structure into line with other universities, LC, after discussion with the Administration, has proposed a new governance structure. The proposed new structure will consist of ^{Note} Lingnan College was established in 1967 by the Lingnan Middle School Limited, which was renamed the Lingnan Education Organization (LEO) Limited in 1969. LEO is the founding body and supervising body of Lingnan College, Lingnan Middle School and Lingnan Primary School. LEO is a registered limited company, with 48 directors.

three bodies - a Council, a Court and a Senate. The proposed composition and functions of these three bodies are summarised below -

(a) Council

The Council is the “executive body” of the proposed University. It will be empowered to exercise all the statutory powers and shall perform all the statutory duties of the University. Its major powers include the powers to appoint the President and Vice-President of the University, approve the annual budget, and make statutes for the administration of the University. The Council shall consist of 33 members, of which 18 members, including the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and Treasurer, shall be directly appointed by the Chief Executive and seven members shall be nominated by the Lingnan Education Organization Limited and appointed by the Chief Executive. The remaining eight seats are for elected representatives from eligible staff, Professors and Chair Professors and the Senate, as well as for ex-officio members (i.e. the President, the Vice-President and the President of the Students’ Union).

(b) Court

The Board of Governors, LC’s supreme governing body, will be replaced by the Court, and will in future serve a principally advisory role. The proposed Court will consist of 42 members, including 10 ex-officio members who are also Council members directly appointed by the Chief Executive, six members nominated by the Council and 19 members nominated by the Lingnan Education Organization Limited and appointed by the Chief Executive. The Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Court will be appointed by the Chief Executive from these three categories. The remaining seven seats are for elected/nominated representatives from alumni, eligible staff, Professors and Chair Professors and the Senate, as well as for three other ex-officio members (i.e. the President, the Vice-President and the President of the Students’ Union). The Council will need to consult the Court in appointing the President and Vice-President. Besides, the Court may consider and make representations on the annual budget. However, unlike the present Board of Governors of LC, the Court will not be given the power to give general directions to the Council.

(c) Senate

Replacing the existing Academic Board, the Senate is the “supreme academic body” of the proposed University. It would review, develop and regulate matters relating to the academic programmes of the proposed University. Its membership shall be determined by statutes made by the Council.

Powers and Obligations vis-à-vis the Government

11. The existing Lingnan College Ordinance provides that the Chief Executive in Council may give directions to the College with respect to the College’s exercise of its powers, and make regulations for the better carrying out of the provisions of the Ordinance. Besides, the College is also required by the Ordinance to submit to the Chief Executive or his representative its annual estimates and annual statements and reports. These powers and obligations will be removed, in line with the practice in other local universities.

THE BILL

12. The major provisions of the Bill are set out below -

- (a) Clause 3 provides for the establishment and sets out the objects of Lingnan University. Clause 6 stipulates the University’s powers.
- (b) Clause 4 provides that the Chief Executive is the Chancellor of the University.
- (c) Clauses 7 to 12 and Clause 18 provide for the establishment and set out the membership and powers of the Court, the Council and the Senate.
- (d) Clauses 15 to 17 provide for the appointment and set out the powers of the President and the Vice-President.

- (e) Clause 23 provides for the Council to make statutes for the administration of the University.
- (f) Clauses 25 and 26 ensure a smooth transition. Clause 25 ensures that the rights and liabilities of the LC and the length of service of its employees will not be affected by its change of title. Clause 26 puts beyond doubt that the present internal governing bodies, the present President and the present rules of LC will continue to function or to be effective pending the establishment of the new structure.
- (g) Clauses 28 to 39 make consequential amendments to other ordinances arising from LC's change of title and status.

LEGISLATIVE TIMETABLE

13.	The legislative timetable will be -
	Publication in the Gazette	17 June 1999
	First Reading and commencement of Second Reading debate	23 June 1999
	Resumption of Second Reading debate, committee stage and Third Reading	to be notified

PUBLIC CONSULTATION

14. On matters concerning tertiary education, especially with regard to UGC-funded institutions, the Government seeks the advice of the UGC. We have consulted the UGC, which has given its support to the change of LC's title as well as the proposed changes to its internal governance structure.

BASIC LAW IMPLICATIONS

15. The Department of Justice advises that the proposed Bill is consistent with the Basic Law.

HUMAN RIGHTS IMPLICATIONS

16. The Department of Justice advises that the proposed Bill has no human rights implications.

BINDING EFFECTS

17. The Bill does not bind the state by express provision.

FINANCIAL AND STAFFING IMPLICATIONS

18. The Bill will have no financial or staffing implications for the Government, as LC is already funded fully on par with other UGC-funded universities. Its adoption of a university title and a new internal governance structure would not affect the basis of Government's funding to the UGC-funded institutions.

PUBLICITY

19. A press release will be issued on 16 June 1999 and the Bill will be gazetted on 17 June 1999. A spokesman will be available to explain the decision and answer media enquiries. A briefing will be arranged for the Legislative Council Panel on Education.

SUBJECT OFFICER

PART II THE UNIVERSITY

3. Establishment of the University

(1) The body corporate known as Lingnan College under the repealed Ordinance immediately before the commencement of this section shall, on and after that commencement, be known as Lingnan University, which in that name shall have perpetual succession and may sue and be sued.

(2) The objects of the University are to provide for education, studies, training and research in arts, humanities, business, social sciences, science and other subjects of learning.

4. Chancellor

There is a Chancellor of the University who is the Chief Executive.

5. Seal of the University

(1) The University shall have a common seal and the affixing of the seal shall -

(a) be authorized or ratified by resolution of the Council; and

(b) be authenticated by the signatures of -

(i) the President or of any Vice-President; and

(ii) 1 member of the Council, authorized by the Council either generally or specially to act for that purpose.

(2) A document purporting to be duly executed under the common seal of the University shall be admitted in evidence and shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been duly executed.

6. Powers of the University

The University shall have power to do all such things as are necessary for, or incidental or conducive to, or connected with, the furtherance of its functions and may in particular, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing -

- (a) acquire, take on lease, purchase, hold and enjoy property of any description and sell, let or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same in such manner and to such extent as the law would allow if the property were held by a natural person in the same interest;
- (b) provide appropriate amenities (including residential accommodation, facilities for social activities and physical recreation) for its students and persons in its employment;
- (c) erect, provide, equip, maintain, alter, remove, demolish, replace, enlarge, improve, keep in repair and regulate the buildings, premises, furniture and equipment and all other property of the University;
- (d) employ or engage any staff, expert or professional adviser or consultant on a full-time or part-time basis;

- (g) invest its funds in such manner and to such extent as it thinks necessary or expedient;
- (h) borrow money in such manner and on such securities or terms as it thinks expedient;
- (i) apply for and receive any grant in aid for its functions on such conditions as it thinks fit;
- (j) fix and collect fees and charges for courses of study, facilities and other services provided by it, and specify conditions for the use of such facilities and services;
- (k) reduce, waive or refund fees and charges so fixed generally or in any particular case or class of case;
- (l) receive and solicit gifts, whether on trust or otherwise, on its behalf and act as trustees of moneys or other property vested in it on trust;
- (m) provide financial assistance by way of grant or loan in pursuance of its objects;
- (n) enter into a contract, partnership or other form of joint venture with other persons;
- (o) print, produce or publish any manuscript, book, play, music, script, programme or other materials including video and audio materials and computer software as the University thinks appropriate or expedient;
- (p) confer degrees and academic awards including honorary degrees and honorary awards;
- (q) approve annual budget estimates of the University.

PART III
THE COURT

7. Establishment of the Court

There is hereby established a Court to be known as the Court of Lingnan University.

8. Duties, etc. of the Court

The Court -

- (a) shall be consulted by the Council on the appointment of a President or Vice-President;
- (b) may consider the annual budget estimates and make representations to the Council;
- (c) may consider the annual accounts together with any comments that may have been made by the auditors;
- (d) may consider any reports made to it by the Council; and
- (e) may discuss any motion on general University policy.

9. Membership of the Court

(1) The Court shall consist of the following members -

- (a) 10 members of the Council appointed by the Chief Executive under section 12(1) (a), as ex-officio members;
- (b) up to 6 members nominated by the Council and appointed by the Chief Executive;

- (c) 19 members nominated by the Lingnan Education Organization Limited and appointed by the Chief Executive;
- (d) 1 member elected by the eligible staff among themselves in accordance with statutes and appointed by the Council;
- (e) 1 member elected by the Senate from among its members in accordance with statutes and appointed by the Council;
- (f) 1 member elected by the Professors and Chair Professors of the University from among themselves in accordance with statutes and appointed by the Council;
- (g) the President as an ex-officio member;
- (h) the Vice-President as an ex-officio member;
- (i) the President of the Students' Union as an ex-officio member; and
- (j) a graduate or past student of the Lingnan College referred to in the preamble to this Ordinance or of the University, nominated by the Lingnan University Alumni Association (Hong Kong) Limited and appointed by the Council.

(2) The Chief Executive shall appoint from the members appointed under subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c) -

- (a) 1 member as Chairman of the Court; and
- (b) 1 member as Deputy Chairman of the Court.

(3) The Deputy Chairman of the Court shall act as Chairman of the Court if the Chairman is absent from Hong Kong or is, for any other reason, unable to act as Chairman. If for any period both the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman are absent from Hong Kong or unable to act in their respective offices, or if both of, these offices are vacant, the members may appoint one of the members referred to in subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c) to act as Chairman during that period.

(4) A member referred to in subsection (1) (b) or (c) shall hold office for a period of 3 years or such lesser period as the Chief Executive may determine.

(5) Subject to subsection (8), a member referred to in subsection (1) (d), (e), (f) or (j) shall hold office for a period of 3 years or such lesser period as the Council may determine.

(6) A member referred to in subsection (1) (b) or (c) may at any time by notice in writing to the Chief Executive or the Secretary resign from the Court.

(7) A member referred to in subsection (1) (d), (e), (f) or (j) may at any time by notice in writing to the Chairman of the Council resign from the Court.

(8) A member who became a member of the Court under subsection (1) (d), (e) or (f) shall cease to be a member of the Court -

- (a) when he ceases to be a member of the body from which he is elected; or
- (b) when he ceases to meet the criteria of eligibility for election as defined by statutes.

(9) Upon the expiry of the appointment of any member, whether by reaching pre-set time limits or as a result of resignation or ceasing to meet the criteria of eligibility for election as defined by statutes, the procedure for a new appointment or re-appointment will be as if the position thus vacated were being filled for the first time.

10. Meetings and procedures of the Court

(1) Schedule 1 shall have effect with respect to the meetings and procedures of the Court.

(2) Subject to this Ordinance and any statutes, the Court may determine its own procedures at its meetings.

PART IV
THE COUNCIL

11. Establishment of the Council

(1) There is hereby established a Council to be known as the Council of Lingnan University.

(2) The Council is the executive body of the University and may exercise any of the powers conferred and shall perform all the duties imposed on the University.

12. Membership of the Council

(1) The Council shall consist of the following members -

- (a) 10 members appointed by the Chief Executive who are specified in their appointments to be ex-officio members of the Court;
- (b) 8 members appointed by the Chief Executive;

- (c) 7 members nominated by the Lingnan Education Organization Limited and appointed by the Chief Executive;
- (d) 2 members elected by the eligible staff among themselves in accordance with statutes and appointed by the Council;
- (e) 2 members elected by the Senate from among its members in accordance with statutes and appointed by the Council;
- (f) 1 member elected by the Professors and Chair Professors of the University from among themselves in accordance with statutes and appointed by the Council;
- (g) the President as an ex-officio member;
- (h) the Vice-President as an ex-officio member; and
- (i) the President of the Students' Union as an ex-officio member.

(2) The Chief Executive shall appoint from the members appointed under subsection (1) (a) -

- (a) 1 member as Chairman of the Council;
- (b) 1 member as Deputy Chairman of the Council; and
- (c) 1 member as Treasurer of the Council.

(3) The Deputy Chairman of the Council shall act as Chairman of the Council if the Chairman is absent from Hong Kong or is, for any other reason, unable to act as Chairman.

(4) If for any period both the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman are absent from Hong Kong or unable to act in their respective offices, or if both of these offices are vacant, the members may appoint one of the members appointed under subsection (1) (a) to act as Chairman during that period.

(5) A member appointed under subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c) as well as the Chairman, Deputy Chairman or Treasurer appointed under subsection (2) shall hold office for a term of 3 years or such lesser period as the Chief Executive may determine.

(6) Subject to subsection (9), a member appointed under subsection (1) (d), (e) or (f) shall hold office for a term of 3 years or such lesser period as the Council may determine.

(7) A member appointed under subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c) or the Chairman, Deputy Chairman or Treasurer appointed under subsection (2) may resign from the Council at any time by notice in writing to the Chief Executive or the Secretary.

(8) A member appointed under subsection (1) (d), (e) or (f) may resign from the Council at any time by notice in writing to the Chairman of the Council.

(9) A member who became a member of the Council under subsection (1) (d), (e) or (f) shall cease to be a member of the Council -

- (a) when he ceases to be a member of the body from which he is elected; or
- (b) when he ceases to meet the criteria of eligibility for election as defined by statutes.

(10) Upon the expiry of the appointment of any member, whether by reaching the pre-set time limits or as a result of resignation or ceasing to meet the criteria of eligibility for election as defined by statutes, the procedure for a new appointment, or re-appointment, will be as if the position thus vacated were being filled for the first time.

13. Meetings and procedures of the Council

- (1) Schedule 2 shall have effect with respect to the meetings and procedures of the Council.
- (2) Subject to this Ordinance, the Council may regulate its own procedures.

14. Committees generally

(1) The Council may create and appoint any committee for any general or special purposes. The committee may consist partly of persons who are not members of the Council. The Chairman of the committee shall be appointed by the Council from among the members of the Council.

(2) The Council may in writing, with or without restrictions or conditions as it thinks fit, delegate any of its powers and duties to the committee. However, the Council shall not delegate to the committee the power -

- (a) to approve the terms and conditions of service of persons in the employment of the University;
 - (b) to approve the annual budget estimates;
 - (c) to authorize the preparation of the statements required under section 19(2); or
 - (d) to make statutes.
- (3) Subject to any statutes, each committee may determine its own procedure at its meetings.

PART V
PRESIDENT, VICE-PRESIDENT AND OTHER EMPLOYEES

15. Appointment of President, Vice-President and other employees

- (1) The Council shall, in consultation with the Court, appoint a President.
- (2) The President shall be subject to the control of the Council.
- (3) The President shall be the principal academic and administrative officer of the University.
- (4) The Council may, in consultation with the Court, appoint a Vice-President to assist the President.
- (5) The Council may, in consultation with the Court, terminate the appointment of the President or the Vice-President on the ground of misconduct, incompetence, inefficiency or other good cause.
- (6) The Council may appoint a person to act as President during the absence or incapacity of the President or if that office is vacant for any reason.
- (7) The Council may appoint other persons to be the employees of the University as the Council thinks fit.
- (8) The Council may terminate the appointment of an employee on the ground of misconduct, incompetence, inefficiency or other good cause.

16. Power of the Council to delegate to the President

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Council may in writing, with or without restrictions or conditions as it thinks fit, delegate to the President any of its powers and duties.

(2) The Council shall not delegate to the President the power -

- (a) to approve the terms and conditions of service of persons in the employment of the University;
- (b) to approve the annual budget estimates;
- (c) to authorize the preparation of the statements required under section 19(2);
- (d) to make statutes;
- (e) to appoint a President or Vice President;
- (f) to terminate the appointment of the Vice-President;
- (g) of the Council under section 15(6).

17. Power of the President to delegate

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the President may in writing, with or without restrictions or conditions as he thinks fit, delegate, to such person or committee of persons as he thinks fit, his powers and duties, including subdelegating any power or duty of the Council delegated to him under section 16.

(2) The President's power to subdelegate any power or duty of the Council delegated to him shall be subject to any restriction or condition on subdelegation imposed by the Council under section 16.

PART VI
THE SENATE

18. Senate

- (1) There shall be a Senate which is the supreme academic body of the University.
- (2) The Senate shall -
 - (a) review and develop academic programmes;
 - (b) direct and regulate the teaching and research at the University;
 - (c) regulate the admission of persons to approved courses of study and their attendance at such courses;
 - (d) regulate the examinations leading to the degrees and other academic awards of the University; and
 - (e) determine the eligibility of persons to receive degrees, diplomas, certificates and other academic awards other than honorary degrees or honorary awards.
- (3) The membership and procedures of the Senate shall be in accordance with statutes.

PART VII
FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND REPORTS

19. Accounts

(1) The University shall maintain proper accounts and records of all its income and expenditure.

(2) After the end of each financial year, the University shall prepare statements of its income and expenditure during the previous financial year and of its assets and liabilities on the last day of the previous financial year.

(3) The University may, from time to time, fix a period to be its financial year.

20. Auditors

(1) The University shall appoint auditors, who are entitled at any time to have access to all books of account, vouchers and other financial records of the University and to require such information and explanations as the auditors reasonably consider necessary.

(2) The auditors shall audit the statements prepared under section 19(2), and shall report thereon to the University.

21. Statements and reports to be submitted to the Chancellor

The University shall, not later than 6 months after the end of each financial year, or before such later date as the Chancellor may allow in any particular year, submit to the Chancellor a report on its activities, copies of the statements prepared under section 19(2) and a copy of the report made under section 20(2).

PART VIII
GENERAL

22. Unauthorized use of title of the University

(1) No person shall incorporate or form, or be a director, officer, member or organizer of, or work in connection with, any body of persons which -

- (a) falsely purports or holds itself out to be -

Explanatory Memorandum

This Bill provides for the conversion of the body corporate known as Lingnan College under the Lingnan College Ordinance (Cap. 422) into a university to be known as the Lingnan University under the Bill.

2. Clause 3 establishes the University and states its objects to be to provide for education, studies, training and research in arts, humanities, business, social sciences, science and other subjects of learning.
3. Clause 4 provides that the Chief Executive is the Chancellor of the University.
4. Clauses 5 and 6 confer on the University the power to use a seal, to execute documents, to hold land, and to do all other things necessary for the furtherance of its functions.
5. Part III (clauses 7 to 10) establishes the Court of the University and provides for the duties, membership and meetings and procedures of the Court.
6. Part IV (clauses 11 to 14) establishes the Council of the University, as the executive body of the University, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the University and provides for its membership and meetings and procedures. Clause 14 provides that the Council may appoint any committee for any general or specific purposes.

7. By clause 15, the Council is empowered to appoint the President, Vice-President and other employees, and by clause 16, to delegate certain of its powers to the President. The President in turn may delegate certain of his powers to other persons or committees (clause 17).
8. Clause 18 provides for the establishment of the Senate which is the supreme academic body of the University.
9. Part VII (clauses 19 to 21) requires the University to maintain proper accounts and records of all its income and expenditure, to appoint auditors and to submit financial statements and reports to the Chancellor.
10. Clause 22 protects the name of the University from misuse by any person.
11. By clause 23, the Council is empowered to make statutes for the better carrying out of the provisions of the Bill.
12. Clauses 24 to 27 provide for the amendment of Schedules 1 and 2 by the Secretary for Education and Manpower and the vesting, transitional and saving provisions necessitated by the conversion of Lingnan College into Lingnan University. Clause 28 repeals the Lingnan College Ordinance (Cap. 422) and clauses 29 to 39 make consequential amendments to other enactments.
