

Subcommittee on Subsidiary Legislation made under the Estate Agents Ordinance (Cap. 511)
Gazetted on 16 October 1998

Concerns raised by members at the meeting on 2 November 1998

- (a) the definition of “existing practitioner” by adding a requirement for a total period of time that an individual has done estate agency work in Hong Kong within a certain period immediately before the implementation date of the Estate Agents (Licensing) Regulation;
- (b) specifying the condition(s) under which an extension of time will be granted to an applicant for complying with the requirement for obtaining a licence and specifying the date the period of extension will expire;
- (c) the minimum number of licensed directors for corporate licensed estate agent; and
- (d) the provision of a prescribed period under section 25 of the Estate Agents Ordinance within which application for licence shall not be made.
