Dear

Prosecution of Immigration Cases

Thank you for letter of yesterday's date.

I can confirm that the only occasion when Government Counsel attended court on this case was on 8 February 2000, when no evidence was offered on both the charges faced by the accused: using an unlawfully obtained document, and making a false representation to an Immigration Assistant.

The court appearances prior to 8 February 2000 were conducted by personnel of the Immigration Department.

I endorse the values identified in your final paragraph. I look forward to discussing them with the Panel on 21 March 2000.

Yours sincerely,

(I. Grenville Cross, SC)
Director of Public Prosecutions
