At this stage of the Proceedings The Honorable WILLIAM KESWICK, leave having been obtained to put the Question, inquires from His Excellency what would be the probable application of the sums which had accumulated in the Treasury from the Fees paid by the Licensed Gaming Houses. His Excellency in reply gives the Council some details of the general results of the Policy recently instituted,—observing that the monies accruing from the Gaming House Fees are still considered as Deposits unavailable, no instruction for dealing with them having as yet been received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

The Bill for amending the Law relative to Jurors and Juries is read a second time, and the Council goes into Committee upon the said Bill.

Section 1 agreed to.

Section 2 being read, it is moved by the Chief Justice and seconded by the Auditor General, that this Section be struck out with a view to the insertion in its place of Two new Sections.

Proposed new Sections read.

Debate ensues.

Question put—That Section 2 be struck out, and the proposed new Sections stand part of the Bill.

Question carried, and the new Sections, with certain amendments, adopted as Sections 2 and 3. Sections 3 to 8, inclusive, renumbered and ordered to stand as Sections 4 to 9

The Bill having gone through Committee, His Excellency puts the Question—That this Bill, as amended, do pass, and that the Title be "An Ordinance enacted by the Governor of Hongkong, with the Advice of the Legislative Council thereof, for amending the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries."
