PAPERS.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY, by command of H. E. The Governor, laid upon the table the following papers:—

Amendments of and Additions to the Dairies By-laws under section 16 of the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance, 1903.

Rule under section 16 of the Gunpowder and Fireworks Ordinance, 1901.

QUESTIONS.

HON. MR. J. P. BRAGA:—I rise, Sir, to ask the questions standing in my name.

1.—Is the Honourable the Inspector General of Police aware that cabarets and "dancing academies" so-called are being regarded as a growing social evil in the Colony and are a cause of very real anxiety and dissatisfaction among parents because of the dangers to which they expose young and inexperienced people?

2.—Will the same Honourable Member kindly compile, for the information of this Council, a return showing, respectively, for Hong Kong and Kowloon:—

- (a) the number of cabarets, or "dancing academies" so-called, now carrying on business with the knowledge and permission of the Police authorities;
- (b) the premises within which the cabaret business is conducted;
- (c) between what hours they are permitted to remain open to the public; and
- (d) the periods for which these places of entertainment are allowed to continue their business?

3.—Are any regulations extant permitting of the licensing of cabarets in the Colony? If not, is it contemplated to regulate the business of cabarets by law?

4.—If the reply to the preceding question is in the negative, will the Government consider the expediency of the early framing of regulations for licensing cabarets and similar establishments in Hong Kong?

5.—Are cabarets in the Colony restricted as to number; if so, what is the maximum number for Hong Kong and Kowloon, respectively?

6.—Does the Inspector General of Police consider that such numbers have been attained, and if not will he limit the number and so discourage the opening of any more establishments devoted to commercialised dancing?

The INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE:—

1.—The Inspector General of Police is aware that such institutions exist in the Colony and that the number is increasing. The Inspector General of Police has reason to believe that certain sections of the community do not regard cabarets and dancing academies with approval, though he has received no representations on the subject.

2.—(a) The number of cabarets or dancing academies carrying on business with the knowledge of the Police is:—Hong Kong, seven; Kowloon, two.

- (b) A list has been prepared and will be circulated to Honourable Members.
- (c) There is no restriction on the hours they are permitted to remain open to the public.
- (d) There is no limit to the periods for which dancing academies are allowed to continue business.

3.—There are no regulations extant. A proposal to require dancing academies to be licensed, and to frame suitable regulations is under consideration at the present time.

4.—Does not arise.

5.—No.

6.—The Inspector General of Police has at present no power to limit the number of cabarets or similar establishments.

HON. SIR HENRY POLLOCK.—I would like to ask with regard to No. 7, whether all those who are entitled to apply for meters in the rider main area have applied for meters?

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC WORKS.—We have not got the exact number of houses in the rider main areas, but the number of applications we actually have are greater than the number of houses we thought were in the rider main area, so that there are very few who have not applied.
