

Mock Council debate on motion

Strengthening control on light pollution

Light nuisance and light pollution problems caused by external lighting installations such as advertising signboards, decorative lightings, and spot lights on the external walls of buildings have been drawing public concern. Furthermore, light pollution implies energy wastage. In this connection, this Council urges the Administration to expeditiously introduce legislation on external lighting installations to minimize the adverse impact of light pollution.