

Sharing on Visit to LegCo

Name: _____
Class: _____
Date of visit: _____

1 _____ Road,
Central, Hong Kong

We are now in the Legislative Council (“LegCo”) Complex. The guided tour is about to begin, and it is really exciting!

Opened in _____

I'd love to visit the LegCo Complex too! Is it convenient to get there by public transport?

The LegCo Complex is located near the _____ MTR Station and it is very convenient to get there by public transport!

If you are interested, you may refer to the “Location map of the LegCo Complex” on the LegCo Website!

Main Lobby

This is the feature wall incorporating the design of the LegCo emblem! The guide told us that the LegCo emblem is composed of a Chinese character “_____” and an English alphabet “_____”, reflecting that Hong Kong is a place where Chinese and Western cultures blend in perfect harmony.

This is a photo hotspot for visitors! I have taken photos here too.

If you'd like to know more about the history of the LegCo Building/Complex, you may refer to “Legislative Council Then and Now: A Journey to the New Complex”.

Conference rooms

The “Council meetings” which people often mention refer to the regular meetings of LegCo normally held in the _____ of the LegCo Complex on Wednesdays. There are also five conference rooms in the Complex for holding other meetings.

I know that many committee meetings are held!

Yes! _____ Among the committees, there are _____ Panels established to monitor and examine specific policy areas under the purview of their respective policy bureaux.

The details of the meetings of LegCo and its committees are available on the “LegCo calendar” on the LegCo Website.

Public Gallery of the Chamber

We are now in the Chamber—the centre stage of the LegCo Complex! The Public Gallery offers a commanding view of the meeting below, allowing us to know what happens at a glance.

The Chamber looks solemn! Are members of the public allowed to observe meetings?

Yes. They may also put on headphones to listen to the live simultaneous interpretation which is available in _____, _____ and _____.

If you are interested to know the different people you will find at a Council meeting, you may watch the “Council meetings” animation.
