Internet Cures : the social lives of digital miracles
Nguyen, Dang
Bristol University Press , 2024 ; English ; 177 Pages
In health care, we come across daily promises of miraculous cures for various ailments. However, in the digital era, the dynamics of experiencing and practicing these remedies have changed.
This book explores the intersection of miracle cures and technology, showcasing their transformation into hybrid forms, such as handwritten recipes captured in photos or tutorials streamed through videos. Combining computational social media data with ethnographic insights from Vietnam and the US, the book captures the interconnected lives of these

Victim-centred peacemaking : Colombias Santos-FARC-EP peace process
Brett, Roddy
Bristol University Press , 2024 ; English ; 325 Pages
Based on unique empirical research into Colombia's Santos-FARC-EP peace process (2012-2016), this book interrogates how, if at all, survivors and victims may assert agency and contribute to formal peacemaking and transitional justice initiatives.
The book argues that victim inclusion meaningfully transformed victim-perpetrator relations and dynamics in Havana, while partially shaping the content of both the Victims' Agreement and Final Agreement. As such, the delegations created paths for empowerment at the individual and, in part, collective levels. However, victim inclusion also precipitated

Abstract ▼

How can feminist scholarship advance the field of foreign policy analysis to better understand contemporary foreign policy actions and challenges?

This groundbreaking book provides the state-of-the-art in the study of gender, feminisms and foreign policy. Bringing together contributors from around the world, chapters offer new analyses of foreign policy topics, including diplomacy, trade, defence, environment, peacebuilding, disinformation and development assistance. The book advances new theories, concepts and empirical knowledge for the emerging field of feminist foreign policy analysis.

The book stands as a vital resource for scholars, students and practitioners seeking to understand and respond to the multifaceted gendered dynamics of global politics.

About the Author

Dang Nguyen is Research Fellow in the ARC Centre of Excellence in Automated Decision-Making and Society at RMIT University, Australia. She researches the social implications of digital technologies by bringing together methods of different disciplines and traditions – and by looking beyond Western contexts. Dang is the author of Digital Research Methods in the Diaspora: Assembling Transnational Networks with and beyond Digital Technologies (Routledge, 2023). Currently based in Australia, Dang was born and raised in Vietnam and continues to conduct research into Vietnam and the Southeast Asian region more generally.

Reading on App - Setup (2)

The screenshot displays the 'Read on App' setup interface. At the top left is a 'Back to title' button. Below it, the heading 'Read on App' is followed by 'Step 1: Sign in your personal account'. A 'Download App' button is highlighted with a red box and an arrow pointing to the text 'The app is available for installation on Android or IOS devices'. The main sign-in area includes a link 'Don't have an account? Create an account' (the latter is boxed in red with an arrow pointing to the text 'Create an account by entering your email and creating a password'), a 'Sign in with Google' button, a 'Username or Email' input field, a 'Password' input field, and a 'Sign in' button. A blue arrow points from the sign-in area to a separate 'Create account' form on the right. This form includes a link 'Already have an account? Sign in', a 'Sign in with Google' button, an 'Email' input field, a 'Password' input field, a 'Confirm Password' input field, and a 'Create account' button.
