LC Paper No. CMI/10/12-13

Ref: CB(3)/C/1 (12-16)

The relevant requirements for disclosure of pecuniary interest by Members and not voting or withdrawal in case of direct pecuniary interest

Purpose

This paper provides information concerning the rules in the Rules of Procedure ("RoP") on disclosure of direct or indirect pecuniary interest by Members, and not voting or withdrawal in case of direct pecuniary interest, to assist Members in the understanding of the requirements and the compliance with the relevant rules.

Disclosure of pecuniary interest by Members

2. Rule 83A of RoP provides that in the Council or in any committee or subcommittee, a Member shall not move any motion or amendment relating to a matter in which he has a pecuniary interest, whether direct or indirect, or speak on any such matter, except where he discloses the nature of that interest. The main purpose of such disclosure is to ensure that other Members and the public are made aware, when a Member is participating in the proceedings of the Council or its committees, of any pecuniary interest which might reasonably be thought to be relevant to those proceedings.<sup>1</sup>

"Direct or indirect pecuniary interest"

3. RoP does not provide specifically the circumstances under which a Member does or does not have a pecuniary interest in a matter that is before the Council or a committee, be it direct or indirect. It is for individual Members to judge whether they have a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the matter under consideration at the relevant meeting of the Council and committees. The basic principle as having been adopted by the Committee on Members' Interests ("CMI") of the previous LegCo in determining whether a pecuniary interest should be disclosed is whether the interest might reasonably be thought by others to influence the Member's actions or speech in the matter being considered.<sup>2</sup> It has been the view of CMI that for a pecuniary interest to be direct, it should be immediate and not merely of a remote or general character. As regards "indirect pecuniary interest", it is an interest not immediate and personal to a Member, but does have a certain relationship with the Member which would make a reasonable person to consider that such interest might have certain influence on the action or speech of the Member.<sup>3</sup>

4. The requirement for disclosure of pecuniary interest by Members under Rule 83A is distinct from the requirement for registration of interests by Members under Rule 83. As provided in paragraph III(3) of the Guidelines on Registration of Interests issued to all Members, "[t]he registering of interests is additional to, and in no way a replacement of, the requirement on Members to disclose pecuniary interest under Rule 83A". Hence, an interest registered still requires to be disclosed if it falls within Rule 83A.

Timing of disclosure of pecuniary interest

5. Under Rule 83A of RoP, disclosure by a Member of the nature of his direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter in the Council, a committee or subcommittee is a condition to the Member's speaking on the matter. Based on the principle that it is a Member's responsibility to disclose his pecuniary interest in a matter being considered to enable other people to judge if his views on the matter have been influenced by his interest, it has been the view of CMI of the previous term that a Member should disclose his pecuniary interest at the beginning of his speech on the matter.<sup>4</sup>

Not voting or withdrawal in case of direct pecuniary interest

6. Rule 84(1) of RoP provides that in the Council or in any committee or subcommittee, a Member shall not vote upon any question in which he has a direct pecuniary interest except where his interest is in common with the rest of the population of Hong Kong or a sector thereof or his vote is given on a matter of Government policy. Rule 84(1A) further provides that in the Council or a committee of the whole Council, a Member shall withdraw when a vote is taken on a question in which he has such a direct pecuniary interest, as the mere presence of a Member under those circumstances may affect the voting result. If a Member has failed to withdraw, under Rule 84(3A), any Member may move without notice a motion for the withdrawal of the Member after the President has put the question on the original motion but before the vote is taken. If the withdrawal motion is passed, the Member shall withdraw when the original motion is voted on. Also, under Rule 84(4), any Member may move without notice a motion to disallow the vote of a Member before the result of the voting is declared. The procedure on the moving of a motion for the withdrawal of Member or disallowance of vote on grounds of direct pecuniary interest is set out in Rule 84 of RoP as well as rule 3 and Appendix II of the House Rules.

7. Regarding the interpretation of "a sector thereof" in Rule 84(1), the subject was studied by CMI in the 2000-2001 session. After deliberation, CMI of the Second LegCo concluded that it was technically impossible to give a clear and clean definition of the phrase "a sector thereof", and individual Members should decide whether their pecuniary interests were common to "a sector of the population of Hong Kong", in the context of their own particular circumstances.<sup>5</sup>

  - (b) where a division has been ordered on the original motion, the President, Chairman of a committee of the whole Council or chairman shall direct the Clerk to the Legislative Council or the clerk to alter the numbers voting and, in the case of the Council or a committee of the whole Council, the effect of the presence of the Member in the original division accordingly.
