22October 2013

Dear President Tsang,

I refer to your letter to all members of the Council dated 17 October 2013 regarding the language used by some Members at Chief Executive's Question and Answer Session on the same day.

For the purposes of the Rules of Procedure, the Chief Executive is NOT a public officer and therefore not entitled to the protection given to public officers under Rules 10(2) and 41(4). It follows that any offensive and insulting language about the Chief Executive which is not unparliamentary is permissible under the Rules.

Dignity of the Council will certainly be upheld when the era of universal suffrage comes.

Yours Sincerely,

Wong Yuk Man
