

Copyright Notice for archival documents and records of the Legislature

1. Unless otherwise indicated, all materials contained in the archival documents and records of the Legislature ("relevant documents") is subject to and protected by copyright owned by the Legislative Council under section 184 of the Copyright Ordinance (Cap. 528) or other parties.
2. Where the relevant documents contains information protected by the Legislative Council copyright, such information may be used subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) The information must not be for sale, gain, profit or reward in any kind, or any other commercial purposes. "Commercial purposes" includes the purposes to offer to provide a business opportunity and to advertise or promote any goods, services, fixed properties and business opportunities.
 - (b) The information must be reproduced accurately and must not be used in any manner adversely affecting any right or interest of the Legislative Council and The Legislative Council Commission.
 - (c) "The Legislative Council" must be acknowledged as the source and copyright owner of the information.
3. Where the relevant documents contains information protected by third party copyright, the provision of the relevant documents does not automatically give the recipient a right to use such information in a way that would infringe copyright. Permission to use third-party copyright information should be sought from the copyright owners concerned.