the conduct shall also be regarded as misconduct on the part of that other person, and "guilty of misconduct" shall also be construed accordingly.

Division 2 - Discipline, etc.

187. Disciplinary action in respect of licensed persons, etc.

(1) Subject to section 189~~91~~<sup>2</sup>, where -

- (a) a regulated person is, or was at any time, guilty of misconduct; or
- (b) the Commission is of the opinion that a regulated person is not a fit and proper person to be or to remain~~licensed, or to be or to remain a responsible officer, or a person involved in the management of the business, of a licensed~~ the same type of regulated person<sup>3</sup>,

the Commission may exercise such of the following powers as it considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case -

- (i) where the regulated person is a licensed person -

<sup>2</sup> The amendment is consequential to the proposal to combine the respective provisions on procedural safeguards applicable in relation to a licensed corporation (clause 189 of the Blue Bill) and an exempt AI (clause 191 of the Blue Bill) to become the new clause 191.

<sup>3</sup> This amendment, together with the amendment to the definition of "regulated person" under clause 187(9) are of technical nature for greater clarity.

- (A) revoke his licence, whether in relation to all or any, or any part of all or any, of the regulated activities for which he is licensed; or
  - (B) suspend his licence, whether in relation to all or any, or any part of all or any, of the regulated activities for which he is licensed for such period or until the occurrence of such event as the Commission may specify;
- (ii) where the regulated person is a responsible officer of a licensed ~~person~~corporation<sup>4</sup> -

- <sup>2</sup>(iv) prohibit the regulated person from doing all or any of the following in relation to such regulated

<sup>5</sup> The amendments are to empower the SFC to impose a prohibition order with industry-wide effect. For example, a licensed representative whose licence has been revoked by the SFC cannot apply again for licensed representative status activity or regulated activities, and for such period or until the occurrence of such event, as the Commission may specify -

(A) applying to be licensed or exempt:

~~applying to be licensed, or~~ (B) applying to be approved under section 125(1) as a responsible officer of a licensed corporation:

~~person, -~~ (C) applying to be given consent to act or continue to act as an executive officer of an exempt person under section 71C of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155):

(D) seeking through an exempt person to have his name entered in the register maintained by the Monetary Authority under section 20 of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155) as that of a person engaged by the exempt person in respect of a regulated activity for such period as the Commission may specify.

or seek admission to the register maintained by the HKMA under section 20 of the Banking Ordinance for a specified period.

(2) Subject to ~~subsection (7) and section 189~~sections 191 and 191A<sup>6</sup>, where -

- (a) a regulated person is, or was at any time, guilty of misconduct; or
- (b) the Commission is of the opinion that a regulated person is not a fit and proper person to be or to remain~~licensed, or to be or to remain a responsible officer, or a person involved in the management of the business, of a licensed~~the same type of regulated person<sup>7</sup>,

the Commission may, separately or in addition to any power exercisable under subsection (1), order the regulated person to pay a pecuniary penalty not exceeding the amount which is the greater of -

- (ii) 3 times the amount of the profit secured or increased or loss avoided or reduced by the regulated person as a result of his misconduct, or

<sup>6</sup> Technical amendment due to the proposal to combine the provisions on procedural safeguards applicable in relation to a licensed corporation and an exempt AI (note 2 above), and to create a separate section on the "fining guidelines" (originally in clause 187(7) of the Blue Bill) under the new clause 191A.

<sup>7</sup> This amendment, together with the amendment to the definition of "regulated person" under clause 187(9) are of technical nature for greater clarity.

of his other conduct which leads the Commission to form the opinion (as the case may be).

(3) The Commission, in determining whether a regulated person is a fit and proper person within the meaning of subsection (1)(b) or (2)(b), may, among other matters (including those specified in section 128), take into account such present or past conduct of the regulated person as it considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(4) A regulated person ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under subsection (2) shall pay the penalty to the Commission within 30 days ~~after being informed of the order by a notice under section 189(2)~~, or such further period as the Commission may specify by ~~notice in writing to him.~~

(5) The Court of First Instance may, on an application of the Commission made in the manner prescribed by rules made under section 384 for the purposes of this subsection, register an order made under subsection (2) in the Court of First Instance and the order shall, on registration, be regarded for all purposes as an order of the Court of First Instance made within the civil

<sup>8</sup> We accept the market comment that the payment of a pecuniary penalty should not take effect prior to the determination of the relevant appeal. The amendment has the effect that payment is only required no sooner than 30 days after the determination of the relevant appeal.

jurisdiction of the Court of First Instance for the payment of money.

(6) Any pecuniary penalty paid to or recovered by the Commission pursuant to an order made under subsection (2) shall be paid by the Commission into the general revenue.

<sup>2</sup> ~~(7) The Commission shall not perform any of its functions under subsection (2) unless it has published, in the Gazette and in any other manner it considers appropriate, guidelines to indicate the manner in which it proposes to perform such functions.~~

<sup>2</sup> ~~(8) Guidelines published under subsection (7) are not subsidiary legislation.~~

(9) In this section -

<sup>10</sup> "regulated person" (受規管人士) means a person who is or at the relevant time was any of the following types of person -

(a) a licensed person; ~~or~~

(b) a responsible officer of a licensed corporation;

or

~~officer, or~~ (c) a person involved in the management of the business, of a licensed perscorporation;

---

<sup>9</sup> As mentioned in Note 6 above, this clause is deleted as we have proposed a separate section (clause 191A) to set out in greater detail the "fining guidelines".

<sup>10</sup> As mentioned in Notes 3 and 7 above, the amendments to the definition of "regulated person" are of technical nature for greater clarity.

11 "relevant time" (有關時間), in relation to a person, means -

- (a) where subsection (1) (a) or (2) (a) applies, the time when the person is, or was, guilty of misconduct;
or
- (b) where subsection (1) (b) or (2) (b) applies, the time ~~when the person is, in the opinion of the Commission, of occurrence of any matter which, whether with any other matter or not, leads the Commission to form the opinion that the person is~~ not a fit and proper person within the meaning of such subsection.

188. Other circumstances for disciplinary actions in respect of licensed persons, etc.

(1) Subject to section 189~~91~~<sup>12</sup>, the Commission may revoke a licensed person's licence, whether in relation to all or any, or any part of all or any, of the regulated activities for which he is licensed, or suspend a licensed person's licence, whether in relation to all or any, or any part of all or any, of the regulated activities for which he is licensed for such period or until the occurrence of such event as the Commission may specify, if -

- (a) where the licensed person is an individual -
- (i) the licensed person enters into a voluntary arrangement with creditors, or has a bankruptcy order made against him, under the Bankruptcy Ordinance (Cap. 6);
  - (ii) the licensed person fails to satisfy a levy of execution;
  - (iii) the licensed person has been found by a court to be mentally incapacitated, or is detained in a mental hospital, under the Mental Health Ordinance (Cap. 136), which in the opinion of the Commission impugns the fitness and properness of the licensed person to remain licensed<sup>13</sup>;
- or
- (iv) the licensed person is convicted of an offence (other than an offence under any

<sup>13</sup> As we mentioned at the meeting on 20 April, in the light of the concern of some Members and market participants that the mental incapacity of one of the directors would be a straight ground for disciplinary sanction against the concerned licensed corporation, we propose to amend clause 188(1)(b)(vi) such that the provision explicitly says that the "mental incapacity" can be a disciplinary ground only if it affects the fitness and properness of the licensed corporation concerned. We also propose similar changes in clause 188(1)(a)(iii) in respect of the mental incapacity of a licensed representative.

of the relevant provisions) in Hong Kong or elsewhere, which in the opinion of the Commission impugns the fitness and properness of the licensed person to remain licensed;

(b) where the licensed person is a corporation -

- (i) a receiver or manager of the property or business of the licensed person is appointed;
- (ii) the licensed person fails to satisfy a levy of execution;
- (iii) the licensed person enters into a compromise or scheme of arrangement with its creditors;
- (iv) the licensed person goes into liquidation or is ordered to be wound up;
- (v) the licensed person is convicted of an offence (other than an offence under any of the relevant provisions) in Hong Kong or elsewhere, which in the opinion of the Commission impugns the fitness and properness of the licensed person to remain licensed;
- (vi) any of the directors of the licensed person has been found by a court to be mentally incapacitated, or is detained in a mental hospital, under the Mental Health Ordinance (Cap. 136), which in the opinion of the Commission impugns the fitness and properness of the licensed person to remain licensed<sup>13</sup>;

or

- (vii) any of the directors of the licensed person is convicted of an offence (other than an offence under any of the relevant provisions) in Hong Kong or elsewhere, which in the opinion of the Commission impugns the fitness and properness of the licensed person to remain licensed;
- (c) the licensed person does not carry on the regulated activity or regulated activities, or the part of regulated activity or regulated activities, to which the revocation or suspension (as the case may be) relates;

~~-(d) circumstances exist which would require or entitle the Commission to refuse to issue a licence of the same type as the licensed person's licence to the licensed person under this Ordinance if the~~

~~licensed person had not already been the holder of the licence;~~<sup>14</sup> or

(ed) the licensed person requests the Commission to so revoke or suspend the licence.

(2) Subject to section 189~~91~~<sup>15</sup>, but without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Commission may revoke a licensed person's licence in relation to Type 7 regulated activity or any part thereof if -

- (a) the Commission has imposed a condition under section 117(1)(c) that the licensed person should, if he is to continue to carry on the regulated activity, be authorized to provide the automated trading services in question under section 95; and
- (b) (i) the licensed person has failed to make an application for the authorization under section 95, within a period that is reasonable in the circumstances of

<sup>14</sup> Some market participants have expressed concerns that their licence would be revoked due to changing requirements introduced by the SFC over time without any grace or transitional period for compliance. We accept this comment and propose to delete clause 188(1)(d) of the Blue Bill accordingly. Please see Paper 9A/01.

<sup>15</sup> The amendment is consequential to the proposal to combine the respective provisions on procedural safeguards applicable in relation to a licensed corporation (clause 189 of the Blue Bill) and an exempt AI (clause 191 of the Blue Bill) to become the new clause 191.

the case, or has otherwise informed the Commission that he proposes not to make an application for the authorization under section 95; or

(ii) the licensed person has made an application for the authorization under section 95, but the application is not granted.

(3) A licence shall be deemed to be revoked if -

(a) where the licensed person is an individual, the licensed person dies; or

(b) where the licensed person is a corporation, the licensed person is wound up, struck off the register of companies or is otherwise dissolved.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a licence shall be deemed to be suspended if -

(a) the licensed person fails to pay any annual fee payable by him under section 135, or any additional sum payable by him under that section as a result of any default in paying any annual fee payable by him under that section, within 3 months after the annual fee first became so payable; or

(b) the licensed person fails to submit an annual return required to be submitted by him under section 135 within 3 months after the annual return was first required to be so submitted, and, subject to subsection (6), the suspension shall remain in force until such time as the Commission considers it appropriate that the licence should no longer be suspended and informs the licensed person to that effect by notice in writing.

(5) A licence shall not be regarded as suspended under subsection (4) unless and until -

- (a) in the case of a suspension under subsection (4) (a) by reference to any failure to pay any annual fee or additional sum, the Commission has, by notice in writing given not less than 10 business days before the suspension is to take effect, informed the licensed person of the requirement to pay the annual fee or additional sum (as the case may be), and of the consequence of the failure to comply with the requirement under this section; or
- (b) in the case of a suspension under subsection (4) (b) by reference to any failure to submit an annual return, the Commission has, by notice in writing given not less than 10 business days before the suspension is to take effect, informed the licensed person of the requirement to submit the annual return, and of the consequence of the failure to comply with the requirement under this section.

(6) Where a licence is suspended under subsection (4) and the event described in subsection (4) (a) or (b) (as the case may be) has not been remedied within 30 days after the date<sup>16</sup> on which the suspension becomes effective under subsection (4), or such further period as the Commission may specify by notice in writing to the licensed person, the licence shall be deemed to be revoked.

(7) Subject to section ~~189~~17<sup>17</sup>, where a person who is a responsible officer of a licensed ~~person~~corporation<sup>18</sup> is convicted of an offence (other than an offence under any of the relevant provisions) in Hong Kong or elsewhere, which in the opinion of the Commission impugns the fitness and properness of the person to remain such a responsible officer, the Commission may -

- (a) revoke the approval granted under section 125(1) in respect of the person as such a responsible officer; or
- (b) suspend such approval for such period or until the occurrence of such event as the Commission may specify.

~~189. Procedural requirements in respect of exercise of powers under section 187 or 188~~<sup>17</sup>

<sup>17</sup> The amendments are consequential to the proposal to combine the respective provisions on procedural safeguards applicable in relation to a licensed corporation (clause 189 of the Blue Bill) and an exempt AI (clause 191 of the Blue Bill) to become the new clause 191.

~~— (1) The Commission shall not exercise any power under section 187(1) or (2) or 188(1)(a), (b), (c) or (d), (2) or (7) without first giving the person in respect of whom the power is exercised a reasonable opportunity of being heard.~~

~~— (2) Where the Commission decides to exercise any power under section 187(1) or (2) or 188(1), (2) or (7), the Commission shall inform the person in respect of whom the power is exercised of its decision to do so by notice in writing, and the notice shall include—~~

- ~~(d) in so far as applicable, the terms in which the person is to be reprimanded under the decision; and~~
- ~~(e) in so far as applicable, the amount of any pecuniary penalty to be imposed under the decision and the date by which it is required to be paid~~

19189A. Disciplinary action in respect of exempt persons, etc.

(1) Subject to section 191, where -

(a) a regulated person is, or was at any time, guilty of misconduct; or

(b) the Commission is of the opinion that a regulated person is not a fit and proper person to be or to remain the same type of regulated person.

the Commission may exercise such of the following powers as it considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case -

(i) where the regulated person is an exempt person -

(A) revoke his exemption, whether in relation to all or any, or any part of all or any, of the regulated activities for which he is exempt;

<sup>19</sup> The new clause 189A is to reflect the latest proposals to apply the same range of disciplinary sanctions to exempt AIs and licensed corporations as detailed in Paper No. 8D/01. The effect is that an exempt AI, its executive officers, relevant employees and management would be subject to "reprimand", "civil fines", "prohibition orders" (where applicable), "suspension/revocation" (where applicable) in the same manner as that applicable in relation to a licensed corporation. The equivalent of "suspension" and "revocation" of the relevant employees and executive officers will be included as Committee Stage Amendments to the Banking (Amendment) Bill 2000 as their admission to the conduct of a regulated activity is provided for in that Bill. Otherwise, clause 189A is basically the same as clause 187 in respect of disciplinary action against licensed persons.

(B) suspend his exemption, whether in relation to all or any, or any part of all or any, of the regulated activities for which he is exempt for such period or until the occurrence of such event as the Commission may specify:

(ii) publicly or privately reprimand the regulated person:

(iii) prohibit the regulated person from doing all or any of the following in relation to such regulated activity or regulated activities, and for such period or until the occurrence of such event, as the Commission may specify -

(A) applying to be licensed or exempt;

(B) applying to be approved under section 125(1) as a responsible officer of a licensed corporation;

(C) applying to be given consent to act or continue to act as an executive officer of an exempt person under section 71C of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155);

(D) seeking through an exempt person to have his name entered in the register maintained by the Monetary Authority under section 20 of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155) as that of a person engaged by the exempt person in respect of a regulated activity.

(2) Subject to sections 191 and 191A, where -

(a) a regulated person is, or was at any time, guilty of misconduct; or

(b) the Commission is of the opinion that a regulated person is not a fit and proper person to be or to remain the same type of regulated person.

the Commission may, separately or in addition to any power exercisable under subsection (1), order the regulated person to pay a pecuniary penalty not exceeding the amount which is the greater of -

(i) $10,000,000; or

(ii) 3 times the amount of the profit secured or increased or loss avoided or reduced by the regulated person as a result of his misconduct, or of his other conduct which leads the Commission to form the opinion (as the case may be).

(3) The Commission, in determining whether a regulated person is a fit and proper person within the meaning of subsection (1)(b) or (2)(b), may, among other matters (including those specified in section 128), take into account such present or past conduct of the regulated person as it considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(4) A regulated person ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under subsection (2) shall pay the penalty to the Commission within 30 days, or such further period as the Commission may specify by notice under section 191(2), after the order has taken effect as a specified decision under section 224.

(5) The Court of First Instance may, on an application of the Commission made in the manner prescribed by rules made under section 384 for the purposes of this subsection, register an order made under subsection (2) in the Court of First Instance and the order shall, on registration, be regarded for all purposes as an order of the Court of First Instance made within the civil jurisdiction of the Court of First Instance for the payment of money.

(6) Any pecuniary penalty paid to or recovered by the Commission pursuant to an order made under subsection (2) shall be paid by the Commission into the general revenue.

(7) Without prejudice to the exercise by the Monetary Authority of any powers under the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155), the Commission may make such recommendations to the Monetary Authority in respect of the exercise by the Monetary Authority of any of its powers under sections 58A and 71C(4) of that Ordinance as the Commission considers appropriate.

(8) In this section -
"regulated person" (受規管人士) means a person who is or at the relevant time was any of the following types of person -

- (a) an exempt person;
- (b) an executive officer of an exempt person;
- (c) a person involved in the management of the business constituting any regulated activity for which an exempt person is or was (as the case may be) exempt;

or

(d) an individual whose name is or was (as the case may be) entered in the register maintained by the Monetary Authority under section 20 of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155) as that of a person engaged by an exempt person in respect of a regulated activity;

"relevant time" (有關時間), in relation to a person, means -

(a) where subsection (1) (a) or (2) (a) applies, the time when the person is, or was, guilty of misconduct;

or

(b) where subsection (1) (b) or (2) (b) applies, the time of occurrence of any matter which, whether with any other matter or not, leads the Commission to form the opinion that the person is not a fit and proper person within the meaning of such subsection.
