Action

I. Confirmation of minutes

[LC Paper Nos. CB(2) 1695/01-02, CB(2) 1696/01-02 and CB(2) 1697/01-02]

The minutes of the meetings held on 22 February, 27 February and 4 March 2002 were confirmed.

II. Meeting with the Administration

[LC Paper No. CB(2)1764/01-02(01)]

2. The Committee deliberated on the Administration's response to issues raised at previous meetings [LC Paper No. CB(2)1764/01-02(01)] (index of proceedings attached at Annex).

Threshold for making charges

3. Hon Margaret NG said that she objected to the Administration's draft Committee Stage amendment (CSA) as proposed in paragraph 4 of the Administration's response because -

- (a) the CSA as proposed would enable a restraint order to be applied against a person who had been arrested and released on bail for one year, which was an unduly long period; and
- (b) although any person affected by the restraint order could apply to the Court to have the order lifted, making a successful application would be very difficult because the threshold, i.e. "the Court of First Instance is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, there is reasonable cause to believe that the defendant may be charged with the offence after further investigation is carried out", was very low.
- 4. The Administration said that depending on the circumstances of the case, sometimes the time taken to lay a charge against a person who had been arrested for a drug trafficking offence could be no more than one and a half months. However, it must be noted that this period referred to a person being charged with a holding charge, which the Administration regarded as inappropriate if the sole purpose of so holding charged was for applying a restraint order. Members in general agreed that the threshold could be retained if the restraint order would expire after a shorter period of time, say, two or three months. The Administration was requested to propose an appropriate period of time by revising the draft CSA accordingly and to provide justification for its proposed period.

Notifying the abscondee of proceedings in respect of a confiscation order

- 5. To facilitate members' consideration, the Administration was requested -
 - (a) to amend the CSA to section 3 of Schedule 1 and section 3 of Schedule 2 to the Bill to the effect that the phrase "and notice of those proceedings, addressed to that person, has been published in a Chinese language newspaper, and an English language newspaper, circulating generally in Hong Kong" was added after "whereabouts":
 - (b) to provide examples of deemed service relating to court proceedings in existing legislation; and
 - (c) to examine whether there was another option of notifying the abscondee of proceedings in respect of a confiscation order, as a balance between substituted service and deemed service.

Adm

Application of procedure for enforcing confiscation orders

6. In respect of the case referred to in Annex E to the Administration's response, the Administration was requested to ascertain whether an appeal had been lodged against the Court's decision of not fixing the time for payment of confiscation order.

Punishment for non-compliance with restraint orders and charging orders

7. Members noted that under section 14C of the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (POBO) (Cap. 201), if a person did not comply with a restraint order issued by the Court, he would be guilty of an offence and would be liable on conviction to a fine of $50,000 or to the value of the property disposed of or otherwise dealth with, whichever was greater, and to imprisonment for one year. The Chairman expressed concern that the proposed penalties for non-compliance with restraint orders and charging orders under Cap. 405 and Cap. 455 must not be appropriate as POBO was reviewed in 1997 but no amendment was proposed to the relevant penalty provision. To facilitate members' consideration as to whether the proposed penalties were commensurate with the gravity of the offences, the Administration was requested to provide information about offences in other local legislation where a person was liable on conviction upon indictment to a fine of $500,000 and to imprisonment of five years.

Provision of information about value of property

8. The Administration was requested to consider revising the proposed CSA to section 8 of Schedule 1, section 7 of Schedule 2 and section 3 of Schedule 3 to the Bill to set out clearly that it should not be necessary for a person to incur extra cost or time in providing information about the value of a property.

III. Any other business

- 9. The Committee agreed that the next meeting would be held when the Administration's response to the issues raised by members was available.
- 10. There being no other business, the meeting ended at 6:45 pm.
