Explanatory Memorandum

The purpose of this Bill is to amend the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 32) ("the Ordinance") to enable a listed company incorporated in Hong Kong ("listed Hong Kong company") to send a copy of a summary financial report in place of a copy of the financial documents required to be laid before the company in its general meeting to a shareholder, debentures holder or any other entitled person of the company ("entitled person").

2. Clause 2 amends section 2(1) of the Ordinance to define new terms used in the Bill.

3. Clause 3 adds a new provision to section 129C of the Ordinance to make it clear that the requirement for certain documents to be attached to a balance sheet of a company does not apply to a copy of a balance sheet which is incorporated into a summary financial report of a listed Hong Kong company.

4. Clause 4 amends section 129G of the Ordinance so that a listed Hong Kong company is not required to send a copy of its financial documents to an entitled person if it has duly sent to the person a copy of its summary financial report.

5. Clause 5 amends section 140A(3)(b) of the Ordinance to improve the provision from the drafting aspect.

6. Clause 6 adds new sections to the Ordinance in relation to the sending of copies of summary financial reports to entitled persons. New sections 141CA and 141CB regulate the sending of a summary financial report of a listed Hong Kong company in certain circumstances. New section 141CC provides for the compliance of certain requests made by entitled persons of a listed Hong Kong company for copies of the financial documents of the company. New section 141CD specifies the circumstances in which a listed Hong Kong company is not allowed to send to an entitled person a copy of a summary financial report in place of a copy of the financial documents. New section 141CE specifies the requirements in relation to the form and contents of a summary financial report of such a company. New section 141CF empowers the court to make order prohibiting a listed Hong Kong company from circulating, issuing or publishing a summary financial report where there is a conviction of an offence under new section 141CE(3). A new section (section 141CG) is also added to the Ordinance to provide that a listed Hong Kong company shall be treated in certain circumstances as having sent a copy of the company's financial documents or summary financial report to entitled persons for the purposes of section 129G if the documents or report are or is published on a computer network.

7. Clause 7 amends section 359A of the Ordinance to empower the Chief Executive in Council to make regulations providing for various matters in relation to a summary financial report of a listed Hong Kong company, including providing for the form and contents of the report, the means to ascertain the wishes of an entitled person in respect of receiving a copy of a summary financial report in place of a copy of the financial documents for the purposes of a general meeting and such incidental, consequential and transitional provisions as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of the matters provided for under the new section 359A(2).

8. Clause 8 amends the Twelfth Schedule to the Ordinance to specify the penalties for committing offences under new sections 141CA, 141CB, 141CC, 141CD and 141CE.
