Ref : CB2/BC/9/01

Paper for the House Committee meeting on 5 July 2002

Report of the Bills Committee on United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Bill

Purpose

This paper reports on the deliberations of the Bills Committee on the United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Bill at its last three meetings on 28 June and 2 and 3 July 2002.

Deliberations of the Bills Committee

2. The last Bills Committee report as set out in LC Paper CB(2) 2401/01-02 covers the deliberations of the Bills Committee up to its 12th meeting on 27 June 2002. This report highlights changes made to the Administration's proposed Committee Stage amendments (CSAs) and new CSAs proposed by members at the last three meetings, and includes additional information provided by the Administration since the last report.

Definition of "terrorist act"

3. Following discussion with the Hong Kong Bar Association, Hon Margaret NG has proposed to amend the definition of "terrorist act" in clause 2(1) of the Bill. Instead of using the words "the use or threat of action" in paragraphs (a) and (b) proposed in the Administration's CSA, Miss NG's CSA proposes to substitute them by "an act or omission".

Definition of "weapons"

4. As mentioned in the earlier report, the Administration has proposed to delete paragraph (d) of the definition and amend paragraph (a) of the definition to include "chemical, biological, radiological or nuclear weapons and their precursors". Members have asked the Administration to clarify the meaning of the terms "precursors" in the new paragraph (a) and "components" in paragraph (c) of the definition.

5. The Administration has explained that the ordinary meaning of the term "precursors" will prevail. In the context of the Bill, "precursors" will include the key substances within the stages of production from which the chemical, biological or nuclear weapons are assembled or manufactured.

6. As regards "components", the Administration notes members' concern that "components" which may form part of a weapon could have other legitimate uses. The Administration has pointed out that in order to substantiate an offence under clause 8 of the Bill, the prosecution has to prove to the court beyond reasonable doubt that the accused has the intention or knowledge to supply weapons to persons whom he knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, are terrorists or terrorist associates. In addition, the prosecution has to prove that such component was indeed part of any arms, ammunition or military equipment. The enforcement agencies will in most cases act upon intelligence or information on possible breaches of the law. The fact that such components could be used for other legitimate purposes will in practice render the offence even more difficult to prosecute.

Safeguarding legal privilege

7. Following discussion with the Bills Committee at the meeting on 28 June 2002, the Administration has agreed to revise its CSA to clause 2. Clause 2(5) provides that nothing in the Ordinance shall require the disclosure of any items subject to legal privilege or authorise the search or seizure of any items subject to legal privilege. "Items subject to legal privilege" is defined as having the same meaning as in section 2(1) of the Organised and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455). The Administration has advised that the same definition is also contained in section 22 of the Drug Trafficking (Recovery of Proceeds) Ordinance (Cap. 405).

Applications to the Court of First Instance (CFI)

8. Taking into account the comments of the Bills Committee, the Administration will move a CSA to add a new clause 2(6) to the Bill to clarify that the CFI may, of its own motion or on application, order that any person affected by an application under clauses 4A (inter partes application only), 13, 16 or 16A be joined as a party to the proceedings.

9. The Administration will also revise its proposed clause 16(2)(b) and (5)(b) to specify that the time limit for service of a copy of the application and other relevant documents, if any, to the other parties could be shorter than seven days before the date of hearing as the CFI may permit pursuant to rules of court. The rules of court will be made by the Rules Committee under the new clause 18 and subject to the scrutiny of the Legislative Council (LegCo) under section 34 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance (Cap.1).

10. In the CSAs proposed by Hon Margaret NG, clause 16(1)(a)(iii) provides that any person whom the CFI considers to have an interest in making application for an order made under section 4A to be revoked may with leave of the CFI make such application. Similarly, clause 16(1)(b) enables any other person affected by the notice given under clause 5(1) to make an application to the CFI. On review, the Administration has agreed to revise its CSA to that effect.

11. In addition, the Administration will add a new clause 19 to provide that inter partes proceedings for applications made pursuant to clauses 4A, 13, 16, 16A or regulations under clause 17 shall be held in open court unless the court otherwise orders. As agreed by the Bills Committee, the Administration will specify under clause 19 that, in deciding whether to allow for proceedings to be held in chambers or in camera, the court shall be satisfied that in so doing, it is in the interests of security, defence or external relations of Hong Kong, or in the interests of the administration of justice.

Freezing of funds (clause 5)

12. In response to members' suggestion, the Administration will revise the new clause 5(3A) to clarify that forfeiture applications made under clause 13 may refer only to part of the funds being the subject of a freezing notice.

13. As the Administration does not agree to further reduce the length of the expiry period of the freezing notice, Hon Margaret Ng has proposed a CSA to provide that such notice which has not been revoked under subclause (2) shall expire on the 1st anniversary of the date on which it was signed by the Secretary for Security.

Prohibition on supply of funds to terrorists and terrorist associates (clause 6)

14. JUSTICE, one of the deputations which have given their views on the Bill, considers that clause 6 should be amended to accord with the United Nations Security Council Resolution (UNSCR) 1373 which requires that the person providing or collecting funds intends that the funds are to be used to carry out a terrorist act. Having regard to the views expressed, Hon Margaret Ng has proposed to delete the clause and substitute it by -

"A person shall not provide or collect, by any means, directly or indirectly, funds with the intention that the funds should be used in whole or in part in order to carry out a terrorist act."

Prohibition on making funds etc. available to terrorists and terrorist associates (clause 7)

15. Hon Margaret NG has proposed to amend clause 7 by adding a new subclause (2) to ensure that funds will be made available for obtaining legal advice or representation.

Prohibition on supply of weapons to terrorists and terrorist associates (clause 8)

16. Hon Margaret NG does not agree with the Administration's analysis that the mental element of "having reasonable grounds to believe" constitutes objective and subjective components. She has proposed CSAs to clause 8 to replace "having reasonable grounds to believe" with "believing on reasonable grounds".

Prohibition on recruitment, etc. (clause 9)

17. Hon Margaret NG agrees with JUSTICE's view that since terrorist organisations may be operating under the appearance of a legitimate organisation, knowledge that the body of persons with whom one is dealing is specified under clause 4 or 4A must be a necessary ingredient of the offence. For this reason, Miss NG has proposed CSAs to clause 9 to that effect.

Prohibition against false threats of terrorist acts (clause 10)

18. Hon Margaret NG has proposed a CSA to delete clause 10 as it is not compatible with the minimalist approach and that there is no demonstrated need for such a provision.

19. Hon Mrs Selina CHOW has indicated that the Liberal Party will consider moving a CSA to clause 10(1) to provide that the communication or making available of any information must be with the intention to cause alarm to the public or a section of the public before an offence will be committed.

Disclosure of knowledge or suspicion that property is terrorist property (clause 11)

20. JUSTICE is of the view that the formulation "having reasonable grounds to suspect" is open to abuse and does not allow for innocent mistakes, naivete, credulousness or careless conduct. It considers that it should be replaced by the twofold requirement that a person "suspects on reasonable grounds".

21. Hon Margaret NG has therefore proposed CSAs to subclause (1) by deleting "has reasonable grounds to suspect" and substituting "suspects on reasonable grounds". She holds the views that subclause (4) may have implications on the implementation of subclause (1) unless the words "has reasonable grounds to suspect" are deleted.

22. The Administration has pointed out that there is a need for the provision to be consistent with that in the Drug Trafficking (Recovery of Proceeds) Ordinance (Cap. 405) and the Organised and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455).

23. In response to members' questions, the Administration has clarified that clause 14(7) of the Bill sets out the defence available to a person accused of an offence relating to disclosure under clause 11(4). The Administration has further pointed out that clause 14(7) of the Bill is based on section 25A(6) of both the Organised and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455) and the Drug Trafficking (Recovery of Proceeds) Ordinance (Cap. 405).

Forfeiture of terrorist property (clause 13)

24. Taking into consideration comments made by members, the Administration has accepted Hon Albert HO's suggestion to provide that the civil standard of proof will be adopted in forfeiture proceedings. Clause 13(4) will be amended by deleting "on the balance of probabilities" and substituting "the standard of proof applicable to civil proceedings in a court of law".

25. Hon Margaret NG has proposed CSAs to clause 13 to restrict the type of terrorist property that can be forfeited.

Compensation (new clause 16A)

26. Hon Margaret NG has proposed a new clause 16A providing that the CFI shall not order compensation unless it is satisfied that the applicant has, in consequence of the relevant specification or order, suffered loss. She objects to the other conditions imposed in the Administration's proposed new clause 16A.

27. Other members have reiterated their concern about the requirement of "serious default" and urged the Administration to seriously review the provision. The Administration has explained that the proposed clause 16A is modelled on section 27 of the Drug Trafficking (Recovery of Proceeds) Ordinance (Cap. 405) and section 29 of the Organisation and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455). The Administration has pointed out that it is necessary to retain the requirement of "serious default", since public funds are involved in making compensation. The Secretary for Security will conduct a review of the issue of compensation with the Secretary for the Treasury and the Department of Justice and report back to the LegCo after the passage of the Bill.

Protection of property rights

28. Members have expressed concern whether the forfeiture provision in clause 13 of the Bill and the compensation provision in the new clause 16A proposed in the Administration's CSAs are consistent with the property right protection requirement under Articles 6 and 105 of the Basic Law (BL). The Administration has provided a written explanation to the Bills Committee stating that it considers that it is consistent and that, in particular, it does not constitute a "deprivation" ("zhenyong"(徵用)) of property within the meaning of BL 105 for which compensation is payable.

29. The Administration has pointed out that under BL 105, the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) shall, in accordance with law, protect the "right to compensation for lawful deprivation of ... property". The term "deprivation" in BL 105, when construed in the light of the corresponding Chinese text of "zhenyong" (徵用), arguably refers to the act where the state or the Government resumes or acquires properties due to the needs of defence or socio-economic development. In the present case, the forfeiture provision in clause 13 does not fall within the narrow meaning of "deprivation" ("zhenyong"(徵用)) of property, since it is in the nature of preventive confiscation of terrorist properties.

30. The Administration is of the view that even if a broader meaning is given to the term "deprivation", it does not, under the European human rights jurisprudence, include preventive confiscation that can be justified under the principle of proportionality with reference to overriding public interest(s). In this regard, clause 13 seeks to combat the global problem of terrorism and more specifically, terrorism financing, by way of preventive confiscation of terrorist property.

31. The Administration has further pointed out that apart from the protection of the above important public interest, the principle of proportionality requires that there be a reasonable relationship of proportionality between the means employed for the interference with private property rights and the aim sought to be realised. Under European human rights jurisprudence in relation to confiscation or forfeiture of properties, it is relevant to consider whether there are procedures which enable reasonable account to be taken of the link between the conduct of owner and breach of law and allow the owner to put his case to the responsible authorities. In this regard, a forfeiture order under clause 13 will not be made unless the court, under relevant Rules of the High Court, is satisfied that the property concerned is terrorist property and falls within the criteria laid down in clause 13. There will therefore be sufficient procedural safeguards in compliance with the principle of proportionality to protect the rights of the parties concerned.

Enforcement powers

32. In response to members' concerns about the wide powers in Schedules 2 and 3, the Administration has proposed to delete Schedules 2 and 3 to the Bill, and rely on powers of investigation, seizure and detention as are available under existing laws. Clause 12 which describes the purpose and scope of Schedules 2 and 3 and clause 15(1) which empowers the Secretary for Security to authorise persons as "authorised officers" will also be deleted.

33. In addition, clauses 17, 18 and 19 relating to procedures to be provided by rules of court, amendment of Schedules 1, 2, and 3 and power to make regulations for freezing of property (other than funds) respectively will be deleted. A new clause 17 will be added to empower the Secretary for Security to make regulations to deal with the freezing of property (other than funds), and to provide for matters such as any necessary investigative, seizure and detention powers that may be required in the future. The Administration has proposed that all of the regulations made under clause 17 will be subject to the approval of the LegCo.

34. Members have pointed out that it is highly unsatisfactory that the freezing of property (other than funds) and the provision of the necessary investigative powers, seizure and detention powers should be dealt with by way of subsidiary legislation instead of by amendment to the principal Ordinance. They understand that the relevant provisions are taken out for the time being because more time is required to work out the details and urge the Administration to introduce an amendment bill as soon as possible for LegCo's consideration.

35. The Administration has agreed to give priority consideration to introducing the relevant provisions by way of an amendment bill. The Administration will work on the details during the summer with a view to submitting the proposals, including changes, if any, to the compensation provision, to LegCo in the last quarter of 2002.

Commencement

36. Members note the Administration's intent that clauses 4A, 5, 7, 14A, 16 and 16A of the Bill would not come into operation after the passage of the Bill until the relevant rules of court have been made under the new clause 18.

37. Hon Cyd HO has pointed out that as anti-terrorism measures are quite new, other countries have also adopted a phased approach in implementation of such measures. She considers that there is a need for the provisions in the Bill to be reviewed periodically to ensure that they are in line with the international trend. She has asked the Administration to give an undertaking to that effect.

Members' concluding remarks

38. Hon YEUNG Sum has indicated that the Democratic Party supports the resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill on 10 July 2002 because of the need to meet international obligations. However, the Democratic Party expresses deep regret that the Administration has given notice of resumption before the Bills Committee has completed its deliberations. Mr YEUNG has stated that the Democratic Party will support Hon Margaret NG's CSAs to clause 10 and new clause 16A.

39. Hon Howard YOUNG has indicated that the Liberal Party supports the resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill in view of the need for the HKSAR to implement UNSCR 1373. Mr YOUNG has likewise expressed regret that the Administration has not consulted the House Committee Chairman before giving the notice of resumption. As regards the new clause 16A, Mr YOUNG has pointed out that the Liberal Party considers that if the Government is at fault, compensation should be paid to the party concerned without setting very harsh criteria to obstruct payment of compensation. He also considers that clause 10 may be amended along the lines indicated by Hon Mrs Selina CHOW.

40. Hon CHAN Kam-lam has indicated that the Democratic Alliance for Betterment of Hong Kong supports the resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill as there is an urgent need for enactment of the Bill in order that the HKSAR can fulfill its international obligations.

41. Hon Emily LAU has stated that the Frontier does not support the resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill and considers the giving of notice not in accordance with normal practice unacceptable. Ms LAU has reiterated her concern that the Administration has decided to retain clause 10 despite the views of many organisations that it is not necessary and incompatible with the minimalist approach. She has pointed out that it is very unsatisfactory that the final version of the CSAs is still not yet available one week before the date of resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill.

42. Hon Cyd HO has also expressed regret about the Administration giving notice of resumption before the Bills Committee has completed its deliberations. Ms HO has pointed out that the extremely tight schedule has made it impossible for Hon Margaret NG to explain her proposed CSAs or lobby support for them at the last two Bills Committee meetings. Ms HO considers that the Administration should have introduced the Bill much earlier to allow time for more thorough discussions by both members as well as community organisations and legal bodies. She is unable to support the resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill.

43. Six of the members present at the last meeting have voted in support of the resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill on 10 July 2002 while three members have voted against it.

Committee Stage amendments

44. The CSAs to be moved by the Secretary for Security as at 3 July 2002 are in Appendix I. The CSAs to be moved by Hon Margaret NG as at 2 July 2002 are in Appendix II. It should be noted that due to the absence of Hon Margaret NG from Hong Kong since 29 June 2002, the Bills Committee has not been able to discuss Miss NG's proposed CSAs at its last two meetings.

Undertakings by the Administration

45. The Administration has agreed to give the following undertakings during the resumption of the Second Reading debate or Committee Stage -

- (a) The Security Bureau will give priority consideration to introducing an amendment bill in the last quarter of 2002 to deal with the outstanding issues mentioned in paragraph 33 above;
- (b) The Security Bureau will conduct a review regarding the Bills Committee's view that the requirement for "serious default" should be removed from the compensation provision in the new clause 16A of the Bill, and to include improvements, if any, in the amendment bill mentioned in paragraph (a) above;
- (c) In exercising the delegation of power under clause 15(3), the Secretary for Security will only delegate such power to senior officers of the Security Bureau; and
- (d) The Administration will review the anti-terrorism measures set out in the Bill periodically to ensure that they are in line with the international trend (paragraph 37 above refers).

Follow-up actions by the Administration

46. The Administration has agreed to work on the outstanding provisions during the summer with a view to consulting the LegCo Panel on Security as early as possible in the new LegCo session.

Follow-up action by the LegCo Panel on Security

47. Members have agreed to the Administration's suggestion that monitoring of anti-terrorism measures should be included in the list of outstanding issues to be considered by the Panel on Security.

Recommendation

48. The Bills Committee supports the resumption of the Second Reading debate on the Bill on 10 July 2002.

Advice Sought

49. Members are invited to note the recommendation of the Bills Committee in paragraph 48 above.
