Section:	6	Heading:	Freezing of property	Version Date:

Remarks:
not yet in operation

(1) Where the Secretary has reasonable grounds to suspect that any property held by any person is terrorist property, the Secretary may, by notice in writing specifying the property, direct that the property not be made available, directly or indirectly, to any person except under the authority of a licence granted by the Secretary.

(2) Where-

- (a) property is specified in a notice under subsection (1); and
- (b) either-
  - (i) the Secretary ceases to have reasonable grounds to suspect that the property is terrorist property; or
  - (ii) the Court of First Instance has granted an application under section 17 which relates to the property, then the Secretary shall, as soon as is practicable, by notice in writing revoke the notice to the extent that it relates to the property.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a notice under subsection (1) which has not been revoked under subsection (2) shall expire on the 2nd anniversary of the date on which it was signed by the Secretary.

(4) Where an application under section 13 has been made to the Court of First Instance-

(a) in respect of property, or part thereof, specified in a notice under subsection (1); and

(b) before the expiration of the notice under subsection (3), then, subject to subsection (2), the notice shall not expire in relation to the property, or part thereof, as the case may be, until the date, if any, on which-

(c) proceedings relating to the application (including proceedings relating to any appeal) are no longer pending; and

(d) the property, or part thereof, as the case may be, has not been forfeited in consequence of those proceedings.

(5) Where a notice under subsection (1) has been revoked under subsection (2) or has expired under subsection (3) or (4), the Secretary shall not again exercise the power under subsection (1) in respect of the property specified in the notice unless there has been a material change in the grounds in respect of which the Secretary proposes to again exercise that power in respect of the property.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that the revocation under subsection (2), or the expiry under subsection (3) or (4), of a notice under subsection (1) shall not affect the application of section 8 to the property which was specified in the notice.

(7) A notice under subsection (1) or (2) shall be given to the person holding the property concerned (“the recipient”) and shall require the recipient to send a copy of the notice without delay to each person, if any, whose property it is, or for or on behalf of whom the property is held (“the owner”).

(8) A recipient shall be treated as complying with subsection (7) if, without delay, he sends a copy of the notice mentioned in that subsection to the owner at his last-known address or, if he does not have an address for the owner, he makes arrangements for a copy of the notice to be supplied to the owner at the first available opportunity.

(9) Where any property the subject of a notice under subsection (1) or (2) is immovable property, the notice shall, for the purpose of the Land Registration Ordinance (Cap. 128) –

(a) be deemed to be an instrument affecting land; and

(b) be registrable as such in the Land Registry under that Ordinance in such manner as the Land Registrar thinks fit.

(10) The Secretary may, in a notice under subsection (1) –

(a) give a direction that an authorized officer may, for the purpose of preventing any property the subject of the notice being removed from the HKSAR, seize the property;

(b) give directions in accordance with which any such property so seized shall be dealt with.

(11) The Secretary may exercise the powers under subsection (10) only if he has reasonable cause to suspect that the relevant property will be removed from the HKSAR.

Chapter:	575	Title:	UNITED NATIONS (ANTI-TERRORISM MEASURES) ORDINANCE	Gazette Number:	L.N. 137 of 2002
Section:	12	Heading:	Disclosure of knowledge or suspicion that property is terrorist property, etc.	Version Date:	23/08/2002

PART 4

DISCLOSURE OF KNOWLEDGE OR SUSPICION THAT PROPERTY IS TERRORIST PROPERTY

(1) Where a person knows or suspects that any property is terrorist property, then the person shall disclose to an authorized officer the information or other matter-

- (a) on which the knowledge or suspicion is based; and
  - (b) as soon as is practicable after that information or other matter comes to the person's attention.
- (2) If a person who has made a disclosure referred to in subsection (1) does any act in contravention of section 7 or 8 (whether before or after the disclosure), and the disclosure relates to that act, the person does not commit an offence under section 14(1) in respect of that contravention if-
- (a) that disclosure is made before the person does that act and the person does that act with the consent of an authorized officer; or
  - (b) that disclosure is made-
    - (i) after the person does that act;
    - (ii) on the person's initiative; and
    - (iii) as soon as it is practicable for the person to make it.
- (3) A disclosure referred to in subsection (1)-
- (a) shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by contract or by any enactment, rule of conduct or other provision;
  - (b) shall not render the person who made it liable in damages for any loss arising out of-
    - (i) the disclosure;
    - (ii) any act done or omitted to be done in relation to the property concerned in consequence of the disclosure.
- (4) In the case of a person who was in employment at the relevant time, this section shall have effect in relation to disclosures to the appropriate person in accordance with the procedure established by his employer for the making of such disclosures as it has effect in relation to disclosures to an authorized officer.
- (5) Where a person knows or suspects that a disclosure has been made under subsection (1) or (4), the person shall not disclose to another person any information or other matter which is likely to prejudice any investigation which might be conducted following that first-mentioned disclosure.

(6) Information obtained under or by virtue of a disclosure referred to in subsection (1) may be disclosed –

- (a) by any authorized officer to the Department of Justice, the Hong Kong Police Force, the Customs and Excise Department, the Immigration Department, and the Independent Commission Against Corruption, for the purpose of preventing and suppressing the financing of terrorist acts; and
  - ~~(b) by any authorized officer~~
    - ~~(i) for the purpose of promoting multi-lateral cooperation in preventing and suppressing the financing of terrorist acts; and~~
    - ~~(ii) to the authorities or persons responsible for~~
      - ~~(A) investigating or preventing terrorist acts; or~~
      - ~~(B) handling the disclosure of knowledge or suspicion that property is terrorist property,~~
- ~~of any place outside the HKSAR which the authorized officer thinks fit.~~
- (b) by any authorized officer to the authorities or persons responsible for investigating or preventing terrorist acts, or handling the disclosure of knowledge or suspicion that any property is terrorist property, of any place outside the HKSAR which the authorized officer thinks fit, for the purpose of preventing and suppressing the financing of terrorist acts.

(7) Subsection (6) is without prejudice to any other right to disclose information obtained under or by virtue of a disclosure referred to in subsection (1) that may exist apart from subsection (6).

12A. Requirement to furnish information or produce material

(1) ~~An authorized officer~~ The Secretary for Justice may, for the purpose of an investigation into a relevant offence, make an ex parte application to the Court for an order under subsection (2) in relation to a particular person or to persons of a particular description.

(2) The Court may, if on such an application it is satisfied that the conditions referred to in subsection (4)(a), (b) and (d) or subsection (4)(a), (c) and (d) are fulfilled, make an order complying with subsection (3) in respect of the particular person, or persons of the particular description, to whom the application relates.

(3) An order under subsection (2) shall –

- (a) give particulars of the relevant offence under investigation;
- (b) identify the particular person, or state the particular description of persons, in respect of whom the order is made;
- (c) authorize the ~~authorized officer~~ Secretary for Justice to require the person or persons in respect of whom the order is made –
  - (i) to answer questions or otherwise furnish information with respect to any matter that reasonably appears to ~~the authorized officer~~ an authorized officer to be relevant to the investigation; or
  - (ii) ~~to produce any material that reasonably appears to the authorized officer to relate to any matter relevant to the investigation, or any material of a class that reasonably appears to him so to relate,~~ to produce any material, or any material of a class, that reasonably appears to the ~~authorized officer~~ Secretary for Justice to be relevant to the investigation,or both; and
- (d) contain such other terms (if any) as the Court considers appropriate in the public interest, but nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as authorizing the Court to order the detention of any person in custody without that person's consent.

(4) The conditions referred to in subsection (2) are –

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the relevant offence under investigation has been committed;
- (b) where the application relates to a particular person, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has information, or is in possession of material, likely to be relevant to the investigation;
- (c) where the application relates to persons of a particular description, that –
  - (i) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that some or all persons of that description have such information or are in possession of such material; and
  - (ii) the relevant offence could not effectively be investigated if the application was required to relate to a particular person, whether because of the urgency of the investigation, the need to keep the investigation confidential or the difficulty in identifying a particular person who has the relevant information or material;
- (d) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is in the public interest, having regard –
  - (i) to the seriousness of the relevant offence under investigation;
  - (ii) to whether or not the relevant offence could be effectively investigated if an order under subsection (2) is not made;
  - (iii) to the benefit likely to accrue to the investigation if the information is disclosed or the material is obtained; and
  - (iv) to the circumstances under which the person or persons may have acquired, or may hold, the information or material (including any obligation of confidentiality in respect of the information or material and any family relationship with a person to whom the information or material relates),that an order under subsection (2) should be made in respect of that person or those persons.

(5) Where an order under subsection (2) authorizes ~~an authorized officer~~ the Secretary for Justice to require a person to answer questions or otherwise furnish information with respect to any matter that reasonably appears to ~~the authorized officer~~ an authorized officer to be relevant to an investigation, ~~the authorized officer~~ the Secretary for Justice may by one, or more than one, notice in writing served on that person require him to attend before an authorized officer at a specified time and place, or at specified times and places, and answer questions or otherwise furnish information with respect to any matter that reasonably appears to the authorized officer to be relevant to the investigation.

~~(6) — Where an order under subsection (2) authorizes an authorized officer to require a person to produce any material that reasonably appears to the authorized officer to relate to any matter relevant to an investigation, or any material of a class that reasonably appears to him so to relate to be relevant to the investigation or be of a class that is so relevant, the authorized officer may by one, or more than one, notice in writing served on that person require him to produce at a specified time and place, or at specified times and places, any specified material that reasonably appears to him so to relate or any material of a specified class that reasonably appears to him so to relate to be so relevant or any material of a specified class that reasonably appears to him to be so relevant.~~

(6) — Where an order under subsection (2) authorizes the Secretary for Justice to require a person to produce any material that reasonably appears to the Secretary for Justice to be relevant to the investigation or be of a class that is so relevant, the Secretary for Justice may by one, or more than one, notice in writing served on that person require him to produce at a specified time and place, or at specified times and places, any specified material that reasonably appears to him to be so relevant or any material of a specified class that reasonably appears to him to be so relevant.

- (7) A notice in writing imposing a requirement on a person under subsection (5) or (6) shall –
- (a) state that a court order has been made under this section and include –
    - (i) the date of the order;
    - (ii) the particulars of the relevant offence under investigation;
    - (iii) where the order is made in respect of that particular person, a statement to that effect;
    - (iv) where the order is made in respect of persons of a particular description and that person is of that particular description, a statement to that effect;
    - (v) a statement of the authorization given to ~~an authorized officer~~ the Secretary for Justice by the order; and
    - (vi) a statement of any other terms of the order relevant to that person;
  - (b) have annexed to it a copy of the order under this section, but there may be excluded from such copy –
    - (i) any reference in the order to a particular person other than that person, or to persons of a particular description not including that person; and
    - (ii) any details in the order that relate only to such particular person or persons of a particular description; and
  - (c) be substantially in the form specified in Schedule 2 in relation to such notice and in addition shall set out or have annexed to it ~~subsections (8), (9) and (10)~~ subsection (8) and section 12E.

(8) An authorized officer may photograph or make copies of any material produced in compliance with a requirement under this section.

~~(9) — Without prejudice to the generality of section 2(5), a lawyer may under this section be required to furnish the name and address of his client.~~

~~(10) — An order under subsection (2), and a notice in writing imposing a requirement under subsection (5) or (6), may be made in relation to information held by, and material in the possession of, a public body.~~

(11) ~~A person~~ Subject to section 2(5)(a), (b) and (c), a person is not excused from furnishing information or producing any material required under this section on the ground that to do so would breach an obligation as to secrecy or another restriction upon the disclosure of information or material imposed by statute or otherwise.

(12) A statement by a person in response to a requirement imposed by virtue of this section may not be used against him in criminal proceedings against him except in evidence in proceedings under section 14(7F) or under section 36 of the Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 200), as follows—

- (a) ~~in evidence in proceedings under section 14(7F) or under section 36 of the Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 200); or~~
- (b) ~~for the purpose of impeaching his credibility in proceedings in respect of any offence where in giving evidence he makes a statement inconsistent with it.~~

(13) Where an order under subsection (2) has been made, the Secretary for Justice, or a person authorized in writing by the Secretary for Justice for the purpose of this subsection, may, after satisfying any conditions that may be prescribed by rules of court in this respect, obtain a copy of the order; but subject to the foregoing part of this subsection and to subsection (7)(b), no person is entitled to obtain a copy of the order or any part of the order.

(14) Where a requirement imposed on a person under this section relates to material which consists of information recorded otherwise than in legible form—

- (a) the requirement shall have effect as a requirement to produce the material in a form in which it can be taken away; and
- (b) an authorized officer may, by notice in writing served on the person, require the person to produce at a specified time and place, or at specified times and places, the material in a form in which it is visible and legible and can be taken away, and may by like notice release the person from any obligation under the requirement to produce the material in the form in which it is recorded.

(15) An application for the revocation or variation of an order under this section may be made by any person on whom a requirement is imposed under the order.

(16) The Secretary shall prepare a code of practice in connection with—

- (a) the exercise of any of the powers conferred; and
- (b) the discharge of any of the duties imposed, by this section, and any such code shall be laid before the Legislative Council and shall not be promulgated until the code has been approved by the Legislative Council.

12B. Order to make material available

(1) ~~An authorized officer~~ The Secretary for Justice or an authorized officer may, for the purpose of an investigation into a relevant offence, make an ex parte application to the Court for an order under subsection (2) in relation to particular material or to material of a particular description, whether in the HKSAR or elsewhere, in the case of an application by the Secretary for Justice, elsewhere.

(2) Subject to ~~subsections (6) and (7)~~ subsection (6), the Court may, if on such an application it is satisfied that the conditions referred to in subsection (5) are fulfilled, make an order—

- (a) that the person who appears to the Court to be in possession of the material to which the application relates shall—
  - (i) produce the material to an authorized officer for him to take away; or
  - (ii) give an authorized officer access to it, within such period as the order may specify;
- (b) that the person who appears to the Court likely to come into possession of the material to which the application relates shall, when the person comes into possession of any such material—
  - (i) produce the material to an authorized officer for him to take away; or
  - (ii) give an authorized officer access to it, within such period as the order may specify; or
- (c) in terms both of paragraphs (a) and (b).

(3) An order under subsection (2), in so far as it is in terms of paragraph (b) of that subsection, shall cease to have effect upon the expiration of 3 months after the day on which the order is made, or upon the expiration of such lesser period, if any, as is specified in the order for the purpose, but nothing in this subsection shall –

- (a) affect any obligation incurred under that order prior to its expiration;
- (b) prevent, in relation to the person required to comply with that order, any further order being made under that subsection in respect of that person (including before the expiration of that first-mentioned order).

(4) The period to be specified in an order under subsection (2) shall be 7 days unless it appears to the Court that a longer or shorter period would be appropriate in the particular circumstances of the application.

(5) The conditions referred to in subsection (2) are –

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the relevant offence has been committed;
- (b) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the material to which the application relates is likely to be relevant to the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made;
- (c) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is in the public interest, having regard –
  - (i) to the benefit likely to accrue to the investigation if the material is obtained; and
  - (ii) to the circumstances under which the person in possession of the material holds it, that the material should be produced or that access to it should be given.

(6) Where an application under subsection (1) relates to material of a particular description, an order under subsection (2) shall only be made where an application in relation to particular material is not reasonably practicable.

~~(7) An order under subsection (2) may require any officer of a public body (whether named in the order or not) who may for the time being be in possession of the material concerned to comply with it, and such an order shall be served as if the proceedings were civil proceedings against the Government.~~

(8) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (2)(a)(ii) or (b)(ii) in relation to material on any premises it may, on the same or a subsequent application of an authorized officer, order any person who appears to it to be entitled to grant entry to the premises to allow an authorized officer to enter the premises to obtain access to the material.

(9) An application for the revocation or variation of an order under subsection (2) or (8) may be made by any person who is subject to the order.

(10) Where material to which an application under this section relates consists of information recorded otherwise than in legible form –

- (a) an order under subsection (2)(a)(i) or (b)(i) shall have effect as an order to produce the material in a form in which it can be taken away; and
- (b) an order under subsection (2)(a)(ii) or (b)(ii) shall have effect as an order to give access to the material in a form in which it is visible and legible.

(11) Where an order under subsection (2)(a)(i) or (b)(i) relates to information recorded otherwise than in legible form, an authorized officer may, by notice in writing served on the person, require the person to produce the material in a form in which it is visible and legible and can be taken away, and may by like notice release the person from any obligation under the order to produce the material in the form in which it was recorded.

~~(12) An order under subsection (2) may be made in relation to material in the possession of a public body.~~

(13) ~~A person~~ Subject to section 2(5)(a), (b) and (c), a person is not excused from producing any material in relation to which an order under subsection (2) is made on the ground that to do so would breach an obligation as to secrecy or another restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by statute or otherwise.

(14) An authorized officer may photograph or make copies of any material produced under this section.

12D. Disclosure of information obtained under section 12A, 12B or 12C

(1) Where any information subject to an obligation of secrecy under the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112) has been obtained from the Commissioner of Inland Revenue or any officer of the Inland Revenue Department under or by virtue of section 12A, 12B or 12C, that information may be disclosed by any authorized officer to the Secretary for Justice for the purposes of –

- (a) any prosecution of a relevant offence;
- (b) any application for an order under section 5 or 13(1); or
- (c) any consideration of giving a notice under section 6(1), but, subject to subsection (4), may not otherwise be disclosed.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), information obtained by any person under or by virtue of section 12A, 12B or 12C may be disclosed by any authorized officer –

- (a) to the Department of Justice, the Hong Kong Police Force, the Customs and Excise Department, the Immigration Department, and the Independent Commission Against Corruption, for the purpose of preventing and suppressing a relevant offence;
- (b) ~~where the information appears to the Secretary for Justice to be likely to assist any corresponding person or body to discharge its functions, to that person or body; and~~ to any corresponding person or body, where the information appears to the Secretary for Justice to be likely to assist that person or body to discharge its functions relating to preventing and suppressing offences of a similar nature to relevant offences; and
- (c) to the Chief Executive for the purposes of section 5 and the Secretary for the purposes of section 6.

(3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to any other right to disclose information obtained under or by virtue of section 12A, 12B or 12C that may exist apart from subsection (2).

(4) Information mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) may, on the authority of the Chief Executive, but subject to the information being transmitted through and with the approval of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China, be disclosed –

- (a) to any organ of the United Nations or to any person in the service of the United Nations; and
- (b) for the purpose of assisting the United Nations in securing compliance with or detecting evasion of measures in relation to a terrorist or terrorist associate decided upon by the Security Council of the United Nations.

(5) In this section, “corresponding person or body” (相應的人員或機構) means any person who or body which, in the opinion of the Secretary for Justice, has under the law of a place outside the HKSAR, functions corresponding to any of the functions of any body mentioned in subsection (2)(a).

12G . Issue of warrant

~~(1) Where it appears to any magistrate upon the oath of any person that there is reasonable cause to suspect that in any premises there is any terrorist property, or with respect to which a relevant offence has been committed or is about to be committed, the magistrate may, by his warrant directed to any authorized officer, empower the officer, with such assistance, and by such force, as is necessary and reasonable to enter the premises named in the warrant and there to search for and seize, remove and detain any terrorist property.~~

Where it appears to the Court upon the oath of any person that there is reasonable cause to suspect that –

- (a) in any premises there is terrorist property; or
- (b) there is in any premises any thing that is, or contains, evidence of a relevant offence,

~~the Court may issue a, by its warrant directed to any authorizing an authorized officer, empower the officer with such assistance, and by such force, as is necessary and reasonable, to enter the premises named in the warrant and there to search for and, seize, remove and detain any terrorist property.~~

~~(1A) An authorized officer executing a warrant issued under subsection (1) may use such assistance and force as is reasonable and necessary for the purposes for which the warrant is issued.~~

~~(2) Any authorized officer~~ An authorized officer who has entered any premises by virtue of a warrant issued under subsection (1) may seize, remove and detain any thing (including any material produced or required to be produced by virtue of an order under section 12A or 12B or a warrant issued under section 12C) if he has reason to suspect that such thing is terrorist property.

~~(3) An authorized officer who has entered any premises by virtue of a warrant issued under subsection (1) may stop and search any person found on the premises if –~~

- ~~(a) in relation to the premises, any thing mentioned in subsection (2) has been seized; or~~
- ~~(b) the authorized officer has reason to suspect that the person has in his actual custody any thing mentioned in subsection (2).~~

~~(4) No person shall be searched under this section except by a person of the same sex.~~

~~12H. Seized property may be detained~~

~~An authorized officer may, in accordance with the provisions of this Part, detain any seized property.~~
