

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL BRIEF
VILLAGE REPRESENTATIVE ELECTION BILL

INTRODUCTION

At the meeting of the Executive Council on 24 September 2002, the Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that the Village Representative Election Bill, at the Annex, should be introduced into the Legislative Council.

BACKGROUND AND ARGUMENT

General Background

2. A system of village representation has evolved in the New Territories over the decades. The arrangements for electing Village Representatives have also developed over time. Village Representative elections have been held for some 700 villages, including both indigenous and non-indigenous villages. However, the vast majority of these villages are indigenous villages.

3. Since August 1994, Village Representative elections have been held every four years in accordance with a set of election rules known as the Model Rules for the Conduct of Village Representative Elections, or the "Model Rules". A person elected as a Village Representative has to be approved by the Secretary for Home Affairs.

4. Mr. Chan Wah of Po Toi O in Sai Kung and Mr. Tse Kwan Sang of Shek Wu Tong in Yuen Long challenged the validity of the electoral arrangements for the office of village representatives of these two villages by judicial review proceedings. Both Mr. Chan and Mr. Tse were born and brought up in these two villages and have lived there all their lives. Furthermore, Mr. Chan is married to an indigenous inhabitant. Under the electoral arrangements made in 1999 for the office of village representatives of these two villages, Mr. Chan was excluded as a voter and Mr. Tse was excluded from standing as a candidate on the ground they are not indigenous inhabitants (i.e., persons who can establish patrilineal descent from an ancestor who was a resident of a village that was in existence in the New Territories in 1898).

5. The 1999 electoral arrangements used in the Shek Wu Tong were ruled by the Court of Final Appeal to be inconsistent with Article 21(a) of the Hong Kong Bill of Rights Ordinance, and the arrangements used in Po Toi O were ruled to be inconsistent with both Article 21(a) of the Hong Kong Bill of Rights Ordinance and section 35(3) of the Sex Discrimination Ordinance. The 1999 arrangements were based on the Model Rules. Many other indigenous villages used similar arrangements.

6. The Court of Final Appeal also ruled that the Secretary for Home Affairs, in deciding whether to approve an elected Village Representative, has to consider whether the person elected to represent a village was elected in accordance with electoral arrangements which are consistent with the Bill of Rights and the Sex Discrimination Ordinance.

7. In view of the ruling of the Court of Final Appeal, there have been calls on the Government to bring Village Representative elections under a statutory framework.

Review

8. The Government recognizes the need to reform Village Representative elections to ensure that they are conducted in an open, fair and honest manner and that they are consistent with the Bill of Rights and the Sex Discrimination Ordinance.

9. A working group was set up in April 1999 to review the procedure and arrangements for rural elections. An interim report was made in October 1999. The report recommended that the conduct of Village Representative elections should be brought under statutory control.

10. Having consulted the Heung Yee Kuk and representatives of the Rural Committees, the Home Affairs Bureau and the Home Affairs Department have completed a further review on rural elections. It is now recommended that legislation should be introduced to provide for and regulate Village Representative elections.

The Proposal

11. The main elements of the proposed arrangements for Village Representative elections are as follows:

General

- (a) Village Representative elections should be held for indigenous villages (Indigenous Villages or Composite Indigenous Villages) and existing village settlements (Existing Villages) now included in the village representation system in the New Territories;
- (b) all Village Representatives should be elected;
- (c) the Electoral Affairs Commission should be empowered to supervise and to make regulations governing the conduct of Village Representative elections;
- (d) all Village Representatives should be members of the Rural Committee of the area in which the Village is located;
- (e) to tie in with the term of office of the Rural Committee office holders and members and that of the Heung Yee Kuk office holders, Village Representatives should hold office for 4 years from 1 April after the election, except that the Village Representatives returned at an election in 2003 will hold office for 3 years and 9 months from 1 July 2003;

- (f) an election for the Village Representative should be held at least 1 but no earlier than 3 months before the new term of the Village Representative is to begin;
- (g) a candidate for the office of village representative should be nominated by at least 5 registered electors;

Types of Village Representatives

- (h) there should be two types of Village Representatives:-
 - (i) an Indigenous Inhabitant Representative for an Indigenous Village or a Composite Indigenous Village; and
 - (ii) a Resident Representative for an Existing Village;
- (i) an Indigenous Inhabitant Representative (or Representatives) for an Indigenous Village or a Composite Indigenous Village should be elected by an electorate comprising the indigenous inhabitants of the Village;

- (j) the functions of an Indigenous Inhabitant Representative for an Indigenous Village or a Composite Indigenous Village are to reflect views on the affairs of the Village (including the affairs of the Existing Village concerned) on behalf of the indigenous inhabitants of the Village and to deal with all affairs relating to the lawful traditional rights and interests, and the traditional way of life of those indigenous inhabitants;
- (k) a Resident Representative for an Existing Village should be elected by an electorate comprising the residents living in the Village;
- (l) the function of a Resident Representative for an Existing Village is to reflect views on the affairs of the Village on behalf of the residents of the Village;
- (m) a person could register as an elector for both an Indigenous Village (or a Composite Indigenous Village) and an Existing Village, if he or she is both an indigenous inhabitant of the Indigenous Village and a resident in the Existing Village;

- (n) no person should be allowed to stand as a candidate in more than one Village at the same time;

Number of Village Representatives

- (o) the current number of Indigenous Inhabitant Representatives (ranging from 1 to 5) for an Indigenous Village or a Composite Indigenous Village would be retained;
- (p) there would be one Resident Representative for an Existing Village;

Transitional Arrangements

- (q) since the terms of office of the Village Representatives returned at an election in 2003 will begin on 1 July 2003, the existing terms of office of Heung Yee Kuk office holders should be extended until 31 August 2003, and the existing terms of office of Rural Committee office holders and members and Village Representatives approved by the Secretary for Home Affairs should be extended until 30 June 2003, to ensure that there is no gap in their terms of office;

and

- (r) the next terms of office of Heung Yee Kuk office holders and Rural Committee office holders and members should be 3 years and 9 months so as to re-align their terms of office with the normal 4 years' term.

THE BILL

12. The main objects of the Bill are -

- (a) to provide for the establishment of the office of resident representative for an Existing Village and the establishment of the office of indigenous inhabitant representative for an Indigenous Village or a Composite Indigenous Village;
- (b) to provide for the elections of Resident Representatives and Indigenous Inhabitant Representatives;
- (c) to provide for the constitution of a Rural Committee to be construed to take account of the provisions of this Bill;

- (d) amend the Electoral Affairs Commission Ordinance to extend the functions of the Electoral Affairs Commission (except its functions under section 4(a) and (c) of that Ordinance) to the elections of Village Representatives and to require the functions of the Electoral Affairs Commission in relation to the conduct of those elections to be performed through the Director of Home Affairs; and
- (e) to amend the Heung Yee Kuk Ordinance to revise the terms of office of the Chairman, Vice-Chairmen and Ordinary Members of the Executive Committee, and the Special Councillors of the Full Council of the Heung Yee Kuk that commenced in 1999 and that commences in 2003.

13. The main provisions of the Bill are summarized as follows -

(a) Preliminary (Part 1)

The Bill (if enacted) shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Secretary for Home Affairs by notice published in the Gazette (clause 1). The terms used in the Bill are defined in clause 2. Clause 3 provides that the Director of Home Affairs shall keep a set of the maps on which Existing Villages are delineated. Clause 4 provides that the Director shall keep an Index of Villages for Electing Indigenous Inhabitant Representatives showing particulars by which an Indigenous Village, or a village of which a Composite Indigenous Village is composed, is identified.

(b) Office of Village Representative (Part 2)

There are two types of office of village representative: the office of indigenous inhabitant representative and the office of resident representative. Clause 5 provides for the establishment of the office of resident representative for an Existing Village. Clause 6 provides for the establishment of the office of indigenous inhabitant representative for an Indigenous Village or a Composite Indigenous Village. The functions of a Resident Representative and an Indigenous Inhabitant Representative are set out in these two clauses. Under clause 7, the term of office of a Village Representative is 4 years, except that the term of office of a Village Representative returned at the election in 2003 is 3 years and 9 months. Clauses 8 to 10 provides that a person elected as a Village Representative may give a notice of non-acceptance within 7 days, be disqualified from holding office or resign from office. Clause 11 states when a vacancy occurs in the office of village representative established for a Village.

(c) Who May Vote at an Election (Part 3)

Clause 13 provides that only an elector for a Village may vote at an election for the village. Clause 14 sets out the grounds on which an elector is disqualified from voting.

Under clause 15(4), a person is not eligible to be registered as an elector for an Existing Village unless that person:

- (i) is a resident of that Village;
- (ii) has been such a resident for the 3 years immediately preceding the application;
- (iii) has reached 18 years of age; and
- (iv) is a Hong Kong permanent resident.

Under clause 15(5), a person is not eligible to be registered as an elector for an Indigenous Village unless that person:

- (i) is an indigenous inhabitant of that Village, or a spouse of an indigenous inhabitant of that Village;
- (ii) has reached 18 years of age; and
- (iii) holds an acceptable identity document.

Clause 16 sets out the grounds on which a person is disqualified from being registered as an elector. Clause 17 requires the Electoral Registration Officer to compile and publish a provisional and a final register of electors for each Village. Clause 19 provides that if a person is dissatisfied with a decision of the Electoral Registration Officer, he may appeal to a Revising Officer.

(d) Conduct of Election (Part 4)

The arrangements for the conduct of election are set out in this Part. Clauses 20 and 21 deal with the holding of a village ordinary election and a village by-election for a Village. Under clause 22(1), a person is not eligible to be nominated as a candidate at an election for an Existing Village unless, inter alia, the person -

- (i) is a resident of the Village;
- (ii) has been a resident for the 6 years immediately preceding the nomination;
- (iii) has reached 21 years of age; and
- (iv) is registered as an elector for the Village.

Under clause 22(2), a person is not eligible to be nominated as a candidate at an election for an Indigenous or a Composite Indigenous Village unless the person -

- (i) is an indigenous inhabitant of that Village;
- (ii) has reached 21 years of age;
- (iii) is registered as an elector for the Village;
- (iv) is a Hong Kong permanent resident; and
- (v) ordinarily resides in Hong Kong.

Clause 22(4) provides that a person is eligible to be nominated as a candidate at only one election for a Village at a time.

Clause 23 sets out the grounds on which a person is disqualified from being nominated and being elected. Clauses 24 to 26 deal with the nomination process. Clause 27 requires a Returning Officer to determine the validity of nominations. Clauses 28 and 30 deal with the situation where a candidate dies or is disqualified. Clause 31 provides for how votes are counted. Under clause 34, an election is presumed to be valid unless the Court of First Instance determines, on the hearing of an election petition, that the election is invalid. Clause 36 requires a Returning Officer to publish a notice of the election result in the Gazette.

(e) Election Petitions(Part 5)

Clause 39 provides that the result of a Village Representative election may be questioned only by an election petition to the Court of First Instance and only on certain grounds. Clause 40 provides that an election petition may be lodged by 10 electors or by a person claiming to be a candidate at the election. Clause 43 provides that an election petition may be lodged only during the period of 2 months following the date on which the Returning Officer has published the result of the election in the Gazette. Under clause 49, if the Court determines that a person declared to be elected a Village Representative is not duly elected, the person's acts as a Village Representative are not to be invalidated.

(f) Appointment and Functions of Officers (Part 6)

Clauses 51, 53 and 54 provide for the appointment and functions of the Electoral Registration Officer, Returning

Officers and the Revising Officer (a magistrate).

(g) Legal Proceedings (Part 7)

Under clause 58, the Secretary for Justice may bring proceedings against any person who is acting or claims to be entitled to act as a Village Representative, if that person is disqualified from acting as such.

(h) Rural Committee (Part 8)

Clause 61 provides that Village Representatives are members of the relevant Rural Committee. Clause 62 extends the term of office of the existing office holders and members of a Rural Committee by 3 months. It also provides that the electoral procedures and the conduct of an election to elect office holders of a Rural Committee shall be consistent with Article 21(a) and (b) of the Hong Kong Bill of Rights. Under clause 60(1), the constitution of a Rural Committee shall be construed in accordance with these 2 clauses.

(i) Miscellaneous (Part 9)

Clause 63 extends the terms of office of the existing Village Representatives by 3 months. Clause 64 clarifies the fact that a person is an elector for an Indigenous Village or a Composite Indigenous Village does not mean that he is an indigenous inhabitant. Clause 65 empowers the Secretary for Home Affairs to make regulations for purposes related to the enacted Bill. Clause 66 empowers the Chief Justice to make rules relating to the lodging of election petitions.

(j) Schedules

Schedule 1 contains a list of Existing Villages, Schedule 2 a list of Indigenous Villages and Schedule 3 a list of Composite Indigenous Villages. The number of persons to hold the office of village representative is set out for each Existing Village (1 for each Village) and for each Indigenous Village or Composite Indigenous Village (the current number of Village Representatives for an indigenous village). Schedule 4 contains consequential and other amendments to several Ordinances, including the Heung Yee Kuk Ordinance, the Electoral Affairs Commission Ordinance, and the Elections (Corrupt and Illegal Conduct) Ordinance. The Heung Yee Kuk Ordinance is amended to extend the term of office of Heung Yee Kuk office holders by 3 months. The Electoral Affairs Commission Ordinance is amended to extend the functions of the Electoral Affairs Commission to Village Representative elections.

14. We have consulted the Heung Yee Kuk, District Councils in the New Territories and the Rural Committees on the proposals. We have also consulted the Legislative Council Panel on Home Affairs. We met and discussed with the Association for the Promotion of the Rights of New Territories Residents (representing non-indigenous residents) and the Association of New Territories Indigenous Residents.

15. Two open forums were organized for residents in the New Territories.

BASIC LAW IMPLICATIONS

16. The Bill does not conflict with those provisions of the Basic Law carrying no human rights implications.

HUMAN RIGHTS IMPLICATIONS

17. The Bill is consistent with the human rights provisions of the Basic Law.

BINDING EFFECT OF THE LEGISLATION

18. The Bill does not contain a provision which expressly binds the State.

FINANCIAL AND STAFFING IMPLICATIONS

19. It is estimated that the 2003 Village Representative Election would have financial implications of about $23 million. This covers expenses on boundary delineation, voter registration, installation of a computer system for the election, polling, vote counting and other services.

SUSTAINABILITY IMPLICATIONS

20. The Bill does not have major sustainability implications, but should help ensure that Village Representative elections would be conducted in a fair and open manner without compromising the lawful rights and interests of indigenous inhabitants.

LEGISLATIVE TIMETABLE

32. Consequences of non-compliance with requirements of this Ordinance

In any proceedings brought to question the validity of an election, the Court shall not declare the election to be invalid only because of –

- (a) a failure to comply with the regulations made under section 65, or the EAC Regulations; or
- (b) a mistake in the use of a nomination form, if it appears to the Court that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in this Ordinance and the Electoral Affairs Commission Ordinance (Cap. 541) and that the failure to comply or the mistake did not affect the result of the election.

33. Misnomer or inaccuracy not to limit operation of election document

(1) A misnomer or inaccurate description of a person, or a person's identity document or place, specified in a document to which this section applies does not limit the full operation of the document with respect to that person, identity document or place if the description of the person, identity document or place is such as to be commonly understood.

(2) This section applies to a provisional register, final register, nomination paper, ballot paper, notice or other document prepared for the purposes of an election.

34. Election to be presumed valid

(2) A prosecution for an offence under this section may be brought only with the consent of the Secretary for Justice.

(3) A person is not liable to conviction for an offence under this section unless the complaint or information alleging the commission of the offence is laid within 3 months after the date of the alleged commission.

38. Elector not to be required to disclose how vote was cast

(1) An elector who is asked to disclose the name of, or any particulars relating to, the candidate for whom the elector voted at an election is not required to answer the question.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 2.

ELECTION PETITIONS

39. Election may be questioned only by election petition made on specified grounds

(1) An election may be questioned only on the following grounds –

(a) the ground that the person declared by the Returning Officer concerned in accordance with the EAC Regulations to have been elected as a Village Representative at the election was not duly elected because –

- (i) the person was ineligible to be, or was disqualified from being, a candidate at the election;
- (ii) corrupt or illegal conduct was engaged in by or in respect of that person at or in connection with the election;

(iii) corrupt or illegal conduct was generally prevalent at or in connection with the election; or

(iv) material irregularity occurred in relation to the election, or to the polling or counting of votes at the election; or

(b) a ground specified in any other enactment that enables an election to be questioned.

(2) An election may be questioned only by an election petition lodged under section 40.

(3) In this section, “election” (選舉) includes nomination proceedings and the decisions of the Returning Officer or any of the Assistant Returning Officer concerned.

40. Who may lodge election petition

An election petition questioning an election may be lodged –

(a) by 10 or more electors entitled to vote at the election; or

(b) by a person claiming to have been a candidate at the election.

41. Who may be made respondent to election petition

(1) Any person whose election is questioned by an election petition and the Returning Officer for the Village concerned may be made a respondent to the petition.

(2) Two or more candidates at an election may be made respondents to the same election petition and their cases may be tried at the same time, but for the purposes of this Part, and in relation to any order for giving security for costs, the petition is taken to be a separate election petition against each respondent.

42. Court to have jurisdiction to determine election petitions

(1) The Court has the same jurisdiction and the same functions in respect of an election petition as it has in respect of an ordinary cause of action within its jurisdiction.

(2) An election petition is triable in open court and, unless the Chief Justice otherwise directs, before one judge.

43. Period within which election petition is to be lodged

An election petition questioning an election may be lodged only during the period of 2 months after the date on which the Returning Officer has published the result of the election in the Gazette.

44. Court may direct security to be given for costs

(1) Within 5 days after lodging an election petition in the Court, or within such other period as the Court directs, the petitioner shall give security for all costs that may become payable by the petitioner to any witness who gives evidence in the proceedings on the petitioner's behalf or to any respondent.

(2) The amount of security to be given under this section is to be of such amount, not exceeding $20,000, as the Court directs. That amount is to be given in such manner and form as the Court directs.

(3) An election petition is taken to have been withdrawn if this section is not complied with.

45. Court to determine election petition

(1) At the end of the trial of an election petition questioning an election that was not contested, the Court shall determine whether any decision of the Returning Officer as to the validity of a nomination was correct and, if not correct, determine whether the person declared by the Officer to have been elected in that election was or was not duly elected.

(2) At the end of the trial of an election petition questioning an election that was contested, the Court shall determine whether the person whose election is questioned was or was not duly elected and, if not duly elected, determine whether some other person was duly elected instead.

(3) At the end of the trial of an election petition, the Court shall certify the determination of the Court in writing. The judge shall sign the certificate and ensure that the seal of the Court is applied to the certificate. The determination as certified is final as to the matters at issue concerning the election petition.

(4) The Registrar of the High Court shall arrange for a copy of the certificate of the Court to be delivered to the Secretary, the Electoral Affairs Commission and the Director.

(5) The Court may, on its own initiative, provide the Secretary, the Electoral Affairs Commission or the Director with a report on any matter arising in the course of the trial of an election petition if in its opinion the matter should be reported.

(6) The Court shall comply with any request made by the Secretary, the Electoral Affairs Commission or the Director to provide a report on any specified matter arising in the course of the trial of an election petition.

(7) If, at the end of the trial of an election petition, it appears to the Court that a specified person may have engaged in corrupt or illegal conduct at or in connection with the election, the Court is required to provide the Director of Public Prosecutions with a report giving details of the conduct.

46. What happens if election petition is withdrawn

(1) Subject to section 44(3), a petitioner shall not withdraw or abandon, or cease to prosecute, an election petition unless the petitioner has obtained the leave of the Court.

(2) At the hearing of an application for leave mentioned in subsection

- (a) any person who could have lodged an election petition in respect of the election concerned, or the Secretary for Justice, may apply to the Court to be substituted as a petitioner; and
- (b) the Court may, if it thinks appropriate, accordingly substitute that person or the Secretary for Justice for the original petitioner.

(3) If an application to withdraw or abandon, or to cease to prosecute, an election petition is, in the opinion of the Court, induced by a corrupt bargain or the offer or giving of corrupt consideration, the Court may direct that the security given by or on behalf of the original petitioner is to remain as security for any costs that are incurred by the substituted petitioner. To the extent of such sum as the Court directs, the original petitioner (and that original petitioner's sureties, if any) is to be liable to pay the costs of the substituted petitioner.

(4) If the Court does not so direct, then before the substituted petitioner may proceed with the substituted election petition, security of the same amount as would be required to be given under section 44 in the case of an original election petition shall be given by or on behalf of that petitioner in the same manner and form, and within such period, as the Court directs. This subsection does not apply to the Secretary for Justice.

(5) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), a substituted petitioner stands in the same position as the original petitioner.

(6) If a petitioner is substituted for the original petitioner, the original petitioner shall provide the substituted petitioner with all evidence available to the original petitioner and relevant to the continued prosecution of the election petition.

- (7) The petitioner is liable to pay the costs of the respondent if –
- (a) the election petition is withdrawn or abandoned;
 - (b) the petition is taken to have been withdrawn under section

44(3); or

(c) the petitioner ceases to prosecute the petition.

(8) If there are 2 or more petitioners, an application to withdraw or abandon, or to cease to prosecute, the election petition can be made only with the consent of all the petitioners.

(9) Any person who –

(a) contravenes subsection (1); or

(b) without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with subsection (6), commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 2 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

47. When an election petition is terminated

(1) If an election petition is lodged by one petitioner, the petition is terminated by that petitioner's death.

(2) If an election petition is lodged by 2 or more petitioners, the petition is terminated if the last remaining petitioner dies.

(3) The termination of an election petition under this section does not affect the liability of the estate of the deceased petitioner, or the liability of any other person, for the payment of costs previously incurred.

(4) On the termination of an election petition under this section, the Registrar of the High Court shall publish in the Gazette a notice of the termination.

(5) Within 14 days after the publication of such a notice, any person who could have lodged an election petition in respect of the election concerned may apply to the Court in writing to be substituted as a petitioner. On receiving such an application, the Court may, if it thinks appropriate, substitute the applicant for the original petitioner.

(6) The same security shall be given by or on behalf of the substituted petitioner as would be required to be given by or on behalf of the original petitioner.

48. When respondent can withdraw from election petition proceedings and be substituted

(1) If, before the trial of an election petition, a respondent other than a Returning Officer –

- (a) dies, resigns or otherwise ceases to hold the office of village representative to which the petition relates; or
- (b) gives the Registrar of the High Court notice that the respondent does not intend to oppose the petition, that the Registrar shall publish in the Gazette a notice of that fact.

(2) Within 14 days after the publication of such a notice, any person who could have lodged an election petition in respect of the election concerned may apply to the Court in writing to be substituted as a respondent to oppose the petition. On receiving such an application, the Court shall order the applicant to be substituted as a respondent to the petition.

(3) A respondent who has given notice under subsection (1)(b) cannot appear or participate in the proceedings on the election petition in opposition to the petition.

49. Acts of person not invalid if determined not duly elected

The certification by the Court of a determination under section 45(3) that a person who was originally declared to have been elected as a Village Representative for a Village at an election was not duly elected does not invalidate acts purporting to have been done by the person as a Village Representative for the Village before the certificate is received by the Director.

50. What is to happen if a Village Representative is determined not duly elected

(1) If, on the hearing of an election petition, the Court determines that a person who was originally declared to have been elected as a Village Representative for a Village at an election was not duly elected, that person ceases to be a Village Representative for the Village and, subject to subsection (2), a vacancy occurs in the office of village representative for the Village from the date of the determination.

(2) If, on the hearing of an election petition, the Court determines that a person was duly elected as a Village Representative for a Village in place of a person that the Court has determined not to have been duly elected for the Village at the election, the first-mentioned person becomes a Village Representative for the Village from the date of the determination.
