Mrs. Percy Ma,
Clerk to the LegCo Panel on Administration of Justice and Legal Services,
Legislative Council Secretariat,
Legislative Council,
8 Jackson Road, Central,
Hong Kong.

Dear Mrs. Ma,

Re : The Law Society Professional Indemnity Scheme

I refer to the letter from the then President of the Law Society dated 21st October 2001 in which it was agreed that the Law Society would report back to the Legislative Council on progress made on the review of the Professional Indemnity Scheme. Whilst the review is proceeding according to plan it has been delayed by the inability of the reviewers to travel to Hong Kong to continue with interviews of practitioners and other relevant parties whilst the travel advisory was in force. There is a likelihood therefore that the report will be delayed by approximately one month and I am therefore writing to seek your indulgence to defer the report back to the Legislative Council to not earlier than 31st October 2003 by which time the reviewers will have again visited Hong Kong and the report will be nearer completion.

Please let me know should you or the Panel require any further information.

Yours sincerely,

Patrick Moss
Secretary General
